The Man With A Millstone About His Neck

The millstone is lack of special training. It holds one man down to hard work and small wages while others, properly trained, go ahead. But every man and woman who is laboring under such a burden can easily rise to a better position and increased earnings and can find out how for the asking.

To find out how, simply write the I. C. S., stating the position you wish to gain. In return, an instruction with 15 years of successful experience in training thousands of others for advancement will tell you how it can fit YOU for a better-paying position. No risk to run. No books to buy. Isn't such a chance for advancement worth this much to you?

HEMINGFORD

Postmaster W. F. Walker, Editor.

A base ball game on the home diamond next Sunday.

Seven car loads of cattle shipped from here Monday.

McClusky Bros. are building a barn for Braddie Fenner near Duola.

A. M. Miller took two car load of cattle to the eastern market Tuesday.

We notice C. E. Phillips of Canton on our streets the first of the week.

Orvil Kidwell's team took a little spin around town without a driver Tuesday.

Scribner Bros. are doing considerable drilling down toward Alliance at present.

Mrs. Kinmouth of Kearney, Nebr., was visiting with Mrs. C. A. Rowland the first of the week.

Claud Brown is down on Main street now. He will be glad to see all his old friends.

Miss Helen Phillips and sister were up and spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Millett.

Sam Grass and his men went out Saturday and finished Garfield Ball's house, returning Tuesday evening.

H. J. Herbes is in town for a few days the first of the week. He and his brother ute to be here in the early days.

Beginning Monday, Aug. 17, the post-office has been closing at 7 p. m. instead of 8 p. m. as before, until further notice.

Three new steam threshing outfits unloaded of the cars here in the last week which bears evidence that Box Butte county has raised a bountiful crop this year.

There is talk of having a new postoffice out in Sioux county. We understand it will be in place of the Ashbrook office as Mr. Ashbrook is tired of the business.

Chas. Lockwood was in from Canton the first of the week after goods for the store. Charley must sell lots of goods at his Canton store for he is in often for his goods.

Mr. Latham returned to these parts the first of the week, our informant says to be engineer for S. L. Wright. Mr. Wright could hardly have found a more competent man.

School starts the 31st of August. Everything indicates that we will have a splendid school this year. We have a good school board, one that will work for the best in the school line.

Louie Spitzer and Mr. Loveland had quite a little experience Sunday trying to hitch a bronco. The animal did some tall pitching and kicking, injuring both gentlemen, though not seriously.

C. A. Burlew, C. J. Wildy and Claud Brown are the latest to install new gas lights in their places of business. Mr. Wildy has a very fine street light in front of his store which adds very much to the appearance and convenience of his store.

E. L. Everett's building, known as the old pool hall, has been moved to the lot just between the postoffice and Baker's restaurant, the building to be used for a bowling alley and pool hall. Garrett & Sons did the work of moving the building and a good job they did, too.

MARSLAND.

J. M. Tollman was an Alliance visitor, coming home on 43 Sunday.

Miss Kennedy of Alliance was a Marsland visitor a couple of days last week.

C. H. Richie made a trip to Hunter's ranch Sunday, taking a passenger there.

L. Snow has been helping on H. G. Furman's house, building chimneys, foundation, etc.

George Gregg is harvesting his large crop with a new binder purchased by F. R. Bellamy.

Oscar Braman of Alliance was in this place recently looking at land with a view to purchasing.

Miss Nora Niece came down from Crawford Sunday, having spent a few days with friends there.

E. E. Horner began cutting grain Monday with a new Acme binder purchased of McGogy-Poole Trading Co.

Messrs. Ford and Dubon shipped two cars of cattle to So. Omaha Monday Lawrence Ford accompanied the shipment.

The present is a very busy time, altogether too busy to have much of importance happen, with harvesting, haying, etc., it is work, work, work.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Gregg and three children returned from the east Thursday. They have been gone about five months and visited in several cities in Massachusetts and Maine.

J. N. Hartranft, the newly-appointed road overseer of this road district, has ordered six thousand feet of bridge planks with which to repair bridges in this valley, some of which are in a dangerous condition.

A large delegation came down from Belmont Sunday afternoon expecting to see a game of ball between Hemingford and Crawford. There being no game, they all rode to the river washed themselves and went home clean.

Mesdames Kile, Hayes, Willis, Snow, Gregg, Hunsaker and Bellamy made a trip to Ft. Wednesday. George Richie drove the team and looked after the bunch. They report things quite lively at the fort, there being three hundred Ute Indians in camp nearby who are on their way to Cheyenne to attend Frontier day.

The sick ones at the Richie hotel are getting along nicely. Mr. Clifton is im-

MEET TO TALK PROSPERITY

Unemployed Dissent From Commercial Travelers' Congress.

Two rival "armies" descended upon the meeting of the commercial travelers' interstate prosperity congress in New York Friday. First came grim-looking men under the leadership of Alexander Berkman, professed anarchist, who some years ago shot H. C. Frick, the millionaire, after the Homestead steel strike riots. It was necessary for the police to disperse the "army" and Berkman angrily reproached his followers as a "lot of spineless, driveling idiots" for not opposing the police. Berkman and his followers said that they represented 40,000 unemployed workmen. The second "army" was composed of determined suffragettes. They also demanded recognition by the prosperity congress.

After Berkman and his followers had been dispersed a committee of unemployed asked that a resolution it had proposed be presented. The resolution was accepted, but not presented to the congress. It stated that while there was a demand for workmen in the western states, the men had been out of work so long they did not have clothing or tools or money for transportation to the waiting positions. The resolution was free from bitter language and stated that the authors of it were in thorough sympathy with the prosperity movement.

Henry Clews, the New York banker, spoke on the financial situation. He said that the combined value of the crops this year would be about $8,000,000,000.

"That means," he added, "that the farmers will have money to burn this fall."

ITALIAN SLAIN BY ASSASSINS

Found Dead With Letter Written in Blood and Roll of Money in Pocket.

In a lonely spot known as "Murderers' field," on the Lincoln road, in the Flatbush section of Brooklyn, Pietro Barilla, a well-to-do hotelkeeper of Woodhaven, was attacked and killed by a number of men. Barilla is thought to have gone to the place to keep an appointment, as a letter was found on his person, seemingly written in blood. Barilla rode to the scene on a bicycle and carried a magazine revolver, which he nearly emptied in a desperate defense. Persons nearby heard shots and, rushing to the place, saw men fleeing across the fields. Barilla was found dead with four stab wounds in his breast and back and two bullet wounds. The slayers were evidently frightened away before they had an opportunity to rob the victim, if that was their motive, as a large roll of bills and a gold watch were left. Antonio Del Marto, a cousin of Barilla, is held awaiting an investigation. From several letters found in the dead man's pockets it seems certain that Barilla was a victim of a blackhand plot.

RAILROAD MEN ORGANIZE

Will Fight Legislation Hostile to Railway Interests.

Over 300 railroad employes met in St. Paul to organize an association to fight legislation hostile to the railroad interests. The men are of the opinion that by standing by the railroads in their fight they will be benefiting themselves. The meeting was the result of a call by John Lynch, an employe of the Chicago Great Western railway. Six representatives of the Nebraska State Railway Employees' Protective association were present. It is the intention to support only those candidates in the coming election who are favorable to the railroads and their employes.

After considerable discussion an executive committee was selected with two members for each railroad, which will form locals on each railroad in Minnesota.

The Nebraska railway men who were there to assist in organizing the association will hold a similar meeting in Des Moines Sept. 6 for the purpose of forming an Iowa state association.

LAUNCH CAPSIZES; FOUR DROWN

Chicagoans Are Victims of Water at Kilbourn, Wis.

By the capsizing of a pleasure launch on the Wisconsin river at Kilbourn, Wis., four Chicago people were drowned.

They are: Edward G. Pfeiffer and son, Ralph; Miss Mabel Ward, Mrs. W. G. Heath.

The rescued are: Mrs. E. G. Pfeiffer, wife of the drowned man; Miss Pfeiffer, daughter of the drowned man and twin sister of Ralph; W. G. Heath, husband of Mrs. Heath; son of Mr. and Mrs. Heath, and Gertie Ward, sister of Mabel Ward.

The boatman, John Wirtz, saved himself by swimming ashore.

The launch, containing nine persons, was returning from a trip through the Dells. When the boat was near the dock it capsized.

Dies From Wholesome Causes.

F. Deutchmann of Belleville, Ill., died of a complication of diseases, including tetanus, ptomaine poisoning, constant hiccoughs for five days and paralysis. The attending physician says the case is unprecedented. He thinks the tetanus germs entered Deutchmann's system in latent form prior to the ptomaine poisoning, which followed his eating liver sausage.

Drowns While Bathing.

William A. Hinz of Milwaukee was drowned at Enterprise, Kas., while bathing in the Smoky Hill river. He was an insurance man.

AN ELECTION PRIMER

Pertinent Points About Our Election Machinery For New Voters and Old

THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE.

What is the electoral college?
That is the popular but unofficial designation of the body of men who elect the president and vice president of the United States.

What! Don't the people elect the president?
Well, only indirectly. The people elect the presidential electors, who compose what is known as the electoral college. The constitution of the United States provides that each state shall choose as many electors as there are senators and representatives in congress from the state. Each political party in each state nominates the state's proper quota of candidates for electors. These candidates are placed on the general state ticket, and the set that receives a majority or a plurality of the state vote is elected.

What then?
The presidential electors in each state meet at a designated point in the state on the second Monday in January following the general election and cast their ballots for president and vice president. Three lists are made out, one of which is deposited with the federal judge of the district. The other two are sent to the president of the United States senate, one by mail, one by messenger.

And the next step?
The next and final step takes place in the hall of the house of representatives at Washington on the second Wednesday in February. Both houses assemble, and the presiding officer of the senate opens and counts the state returns and announces the result.
