RAILWAY NOTES AND PERSONALS

Mrs. S. W. Jacoby is visiting her husband in Crawford this week.

Mrs. L. G. Severns is spending a few days with friends in Scottsbluff.

Foreman C. A. Landberg and wife spent Sunday in Bridgeport with relatives.

Engineer H. P. Harbottle left this morning for a visit with his family in Kansas City.

Mrs. C. R. Witham left the first of the week for an extended visit with her parents in Aurora.

Mrs. L. E. Mark and son left a few days ago for an extended visit with relatives in Harvard.

G. E. Cornu expects to return today from Sidney where he has been hunting for the past few days.

Flagman J. W. Burke left today for a two weeks visit with friends and relatives in Friend and Omaha.

Brakeman J. B. Harris left a few days ago for Omaha to make arrangements to move his family to Alliance.

Thos. O'Neal, general boiler inspector, spent a few days in Alliance the last of the week, leaving for his home in Lincoln Sunday.

W. H. Allgeier, of the general superintendent's office, and wife returned Monday from a two weeks visit with relatives and friends in Beatrice.

The railroad clerks are busily engaged today in moving the furniture, fixtures, etc. from the Rumer building to the new depot. The upstairs of the building is now ready for occupancy, while the lower floor will probably not be completed for another week.

Railroad Notes from Edgemont Edgemont Express.

Mrs. H. J. Peters will go to Alliance soon to visit with old friends.

Mr. Malone has gone to work in the yards here as a switchman.

J. L. Berryhill, the storekeeper at Alliance, has been in Edgemont this week.

J. P. Brigham has been transferred from Alliance to Edgemont and will work in the shops as a boiler maker.

George Griggs, chief clerk for the superintendent at Alliance, passed through here Wednesday on his way to Sheridan.

Engineer Wade of the high line is laying off and went to Deadwood to spend a few days prior to his going to St. Louis where he will stay some time.

F. J. Mahoney, the fireman, has been transferred to Alliance and will work out of there in the future.

H. J. Peters, the engineer, has taken the place made vacant by Engineer Wade, who is laying off, and will pull the throttle on 142.

E. W. Bell, superintendent of water service, has been in town this week looking after the High Line water supply.

The turn table has been overhauled and is now in working order and is a welcome addition to the men working at the shops as it is somewhat easier turning engines with the engine than by man power.

William Wright, who was a car repairer here and was transferred to Alliance and later to Deadwood, has gone to the sand hills near Alliance for a big hunt. His family will visit in Alliance while he makes a killing among the game birds.

Engineer J. McDonald, who has been running on the Alliance to Edgemont run, went through here this week on his way to Deadwood to visit some friends. He has just returned from a trip to Creston, Iowa, where he was called by the death of a relative.

Two special cars, No's. 77 and 79, attached to engine 366, passed through Edgemont Wednesday on their way to Sheridan and Billings on a tour of inspection. With the party were General Manager G. W. Holdrege and General Superintendent Allen. The inspection engine 366 was brought to Edgemont by Engineer O. F. Wood and taken west from here by Engineer Gus Holden.

Moving to the New Quarters.

The furniture and fixtures of the Burlington are being moved from the Rumer block to the new station today. The offices on the second floor are now completed and it is expected that the lower rooms will be ready for occupancy in another week.

Fair Daughters Ride the Goat

The expectations of thirty-five lady candidates for membership into the order of the Daughters of Isabella were fully realized last Monday night when they went through the ordeal of riding the goat and otherwise participating in the dark mysteries that enshrouds that society. Sunday and Monday the delegates from McCook came straggling in and when the hour for the degree work was at hand the visitors were promptly at the Knights of Columbus hall to do their part. On every hand there was expectancy and pale faces in anticipation of what was to come over the lambs who were soon to be led to slaughter. Father Laughran, the state organizer, was present at the initiatory degrees. Following is a list of the McCook team that conferred the degree:

Grand Regent, Miss Hannan. Vice Grand Regent, Miss Coyle. Prophetess, Miss Ryan. Lecturer, Mrs. Wright. Monitor, Mrs. Martin. Sentinels, Miss McKenna, and Miss Provance.

Banner Bearer, Mrs. J. B. Kniest. After the degree work, which lasted till 11 p.m., all hands repaired to the hall over Marks' harness shop where they sat down to a bounteous repast. After the inner man had been satisfied, Mrs. J. B. Kniest, toast-mistress, after a short preliminary talk, introduced the speakers of the evening.

"Our Order," was the subject of Miss Hannan, grand regent, who reviewed the history of the court existence briefly and paid a most praiseworthy compliment to Alliance and St. Agnes Court, Daughters of Isabella.

Miss Mary O'Keefe was called on and responded to the toast, "Our Foundation."

Father McNamara, as usual in his happy vein, won merit with the gentler sex with his subject, "Benefit of Lady Organizations in Church work."

Mrs. W. J. Hamilton gave an impromptu talk most suitable to the occasion, and considering the fact that she was one of the lambs to the slaughter.

"The Relationship of Two Orders," Dr. Copey was assigned this subject. Grand Knight of the Knights of Columbus, and the doctor surely gave words of cheer and congratulations to the Daughters, and the best of it is, was that he spoke for the whole body.

Father Laughran was assigned a most perplexing subject, "Is There a Place in Heaven for the Daughters?" The speaker came to the conclusion that there surely was such a place and he declared that in his opinion the Daughters of McCook and Alliance had a cinch on the same. Father Laughran is a versatile speaker and his address rivited the closest attention.

After several impromptu addresses by several at the banquet table, those present repaired to the Knights of Columbus hall, where they enjoyed a few hours in dancing and other social enjoyments.

The Daughters of St. Agnes Court surely started out with every indication of success.

Delightful Party.

Mrs. Marcus Frankle was hostess at a shower Wednesday afternoon, complimentary to Miss Pearl Mitchell, whose marriage to Mr. Harry Gantz will occur on October 14th. There were nineteen ladies present. Elaborate refreshments were served, and a most pleasant time was had by all. Miss Mitchell was the recipient of many beautiful presents.

Where is Boyd?

The Alliance friends of Attorney E. H. Boyd are somewhat alarmed over his prolonged absence from the city. His friends say that for sometime prior to his departure his face bore a far-away western look and it was anticipated that the refreshing atmosphere on a Sioux county ranch would have a most soothing effect. Although some of his associates here have tried to get in communication with him it is without avail and The Herald is informed by a responsible party that the indications are that the genial lawyer will not return to Alliance a bachelor. Well, old man, we don't blame you. In fact, we congratulate you on your good luck.

M. Fitzgibbons, of Hillsdale, Ill., arrived in Alliance yesterday. Mr. Fitzgibbons is engaged in the stock business and bought a few cars of cattle at the yards in South Omaha Monday. He is an old acquaintance of the O'Keefe family, whom he is visiting while here.

Gratitude.

Miss Bertha Allison of Leon, Kans., a niece of our county surveyor, J. P. Hazard, recently won a handsome Schiller piano by being voted the most popular young lady in Butler county. Mr. Hazard was requested to write an expression of thanks in behalf of the young lady and the Walnut Valley Times (El Dorado, Kans.) gives his "words" as follows:

Words, oh, simple words, how good
The doling of man to tell!
Just when and where and how, if ye would,
And other facts as well.
Yes, wondrous words, the truth to tell—
They are but hearts o'er flown;
Our grief, our joy to express so well,
And all our wants make known.
They say just what we want them to,
In matters of love and hate;
They sometimes tell even more than's true—
In the former at any rate.
But when it comes to gratitude—
Our feelings to explain,
Oh, words! mere words, how weak, how rude!
They fail us in the main.

As Bertha has won the coveted prize,
She's full of joy today;
To her many friends, (of any size),
She now does "thank you" say.

Alliance to the Front

South Omaha, Neb., Sept. 22, '08.
Editor Herald:—
Alliance came to the front this week on the market here when Jesse Hufft had in his good steers. We sold 35 of them for feeders that averaged 1306 pounds at $4.55, which was 15 cents per hundred more than any other feeders brought on the market today. Considering that there were 6700 cattle here and the market was slow, we feel that this was a very good sale and thought the people of Alliance would be interested in knowing they raise as good cattle there as any place in the country.

With kind regards, we are,
Yours very truly,

These represent our facilities for doing the kind of printing that will please you. The prices are right, and prompt delivery the invariable rule at this office.

Roofing Troubles

are practically unknown to those whose buildings are roofed with Ruberoid. Ruberoid Roofing requires no painting when laid, but a coat of after it has passed through a few winters, will improve and revitalize a Ruberoid roof and add years to its life. The cost is small—Try it. FOR METAL ROOFS, S P C Flexible Iron Paint is a most effective preservative. It stops leaks and prevents corrosion.

Manufactured by THE STANDARD PAINT COMPANY, New York.
