

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Dr. Bellwood is spending a few days in Omaha.

Sang C. Reck made a business trip to Lincoln this week.

Dr. Eikner and wife of Hemingford are in the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Holsten are taking in the sights at Omaha this week.

Mrs. E. C. Koons is in Denver visiting Miss Pease, formerly of this place.

Nate Hart of Lead, S. D., was transacting business in Alliance this week.

Miss Marie Basse went to Hemingford today to visit the family of Anton Uhrig.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Landrigan expect to leave this week for an extended visit in Illinois.

Miss Attie Snow returned yesterday from her visit with relatives and friends at Marsland.

Harry Thiele, Frank Brennan and W. J. Pool were passengers this afternoon for Omaha.

Mrs. G. H. Wright left yesterday for Kansas City to attend the "Priest of Pallas" festivities.

William Elmore arrived from Maryland last week and will visit with his family for a some time.

Mrs. C. H. Grothe left Monday afternoon for Omaha to be present at the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities.

Mrs. Eugene Thompson and mother, Mrs. Hood, were up from their ranch in the sand hills Tuesday.

H. E. Jones, the hustling land man of Hemingford, was transacting business in Alliance Saturday.

Conductor and Mrs. Andrews are among those from Alliance taking in the Ak-Sar-Ben at Omaha this week.

Jacob Jesse and sister, Miss Elsie Jesse, and C. E. Simpson went to Omaha Monday morning to spend a week.

T. Shankin returned to Alliance Sunday morning from Omaha where he had a shipment of cattle on the market.

Wm. Becker and "Sante Fe" Johnson will leave today for South Dakota to register in the government land drawing.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Gilman have returned from Torrington, where they visited W. M. Copeland and family a few days.

The entertainment at the Crystal theatre last night was given for the benefit of St. Agnes Academy and netted $26.30.

Enoch Boyer and family spent Friday and Saturday in Crawford taking in the carnival and visiting at the home of S. W. Jacoby.

Wm. O'Mara and wife of Moomaw accompanied Mrs. O'Mara's sister as far as Alliance, she being enroute to her home in Colorado.

Mrs. Chas. Tubbs returned this morning from Omaha where she has been visiting friends since Sunday, and taking in the Ak-Sar-Ben.

After a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. J. K. Kridelbaugh, and family, Mrs. L. W. Spafford has returned to her home at Creston, Iowa.

Eugene Reeves returned Monday from Torrington, Wyo., where he was visiting his son and family. He also attended the fair while there.

Joe Smith, the expert soda dispenser at Holsten's, returned Monday from a days visit at Omaha and other points in the eastern part of the state.

J. L. Barnett, the accommodating salesman at Newberry's returned to Alliance Saturday from a pleasant visit with relatives and friends at Rushville.

No doubt the lady readers of The Herald will be attracted by the handsome advertisement of the Horace Bogue store which appears on page 8.

Martin O'Connor and bride arrived yesterday morning from Livingston, Mont., for a visit at the parental home. They may possibly decide to locate here.

J. H. Furman, the well known stockman of Dawes county, whose ranch is near Marsland, returned today from South Omaha where he marketed two cars of cattle.

A. T. Luna went to Omaha Sunday for a short vacation. Mrs. Luna and the children, who have been visiting relatives there for some time, will accompany him home.

The County Sunday School Association will hold its annual convention at Hemingford on October 7th. All Sunday School workers are urged to attend.

Chas. W. Lockwood.

Mrs. S. B. Libby and Mrs. Ira Tash returned last Saturday from Kearney, where they went as delegates to the state convention of the W.C.T.U. The

Millinery Opening & Initial Fall Exhibit in All Departments Saturday, Oct. 3

What a wealth of Millinery beauty awaits your inspection here Saturday. What infinite variety! What richness, grace and elegance! The whole bewildering panorama of new Hat fashions will stand revealed in our Millinery Department.

The predominant modes of Paris and the clever conceptions of American artist Milliners will be presented in a magnificent showing of superb Pattern Hats. And side by side with these, faithful copies of models originally costing ten times our prices, made by our own deft-fingered designers. It will be a showing out-rivaling in breadth and beauty any Millinery Exhibit ever before presented in Alliance.

And in each department the conspicuous splendor of new Fall merchandise is apparent. The whole store is resplendent in its new garb. Your every want can here be filled from assortments which speak eloquently of our search for all that was new and stylish. Dress Fabrics, Silks, Underwear, Hosiery, Gloves, Neckwear—but why name them?—they are all here, correct in style, low in price, and waiting for your approval!

THE NEW IN WOMAN'S GARMENTS

Suits, Coats, Skirts and Waists, in Fashionable Assortments!

The exhibit of Suits, Coats, Skirts and Waists, beggars description. Never have we shown such a galaxy of garment style—so much of originality, of new ideas, of fabric variety.

The influence of the "Directoire" style is plainly evident in the Suit and Skirt styles—the long, graceful swing of their clinging lines, the tight fitting, long, trim sleeves, the elongated collar effects. Truly, the "Directoire" period has lent the Fall styles many charming and pleasing innovations.

You must see the new garments. Come, glean the new style ideas. It's time to consider the Fall wardrobe—time to plan your purchase. You find Suits here at $65.00 and others priced as low as $9.98. Coats from $5.00 to $40.00. Skirts from $3.00 to $20.00 and Waists from 98c to $12.00.

But forget about the price for a while. This is primarily a viewing time. We want you to come—with or without buying intentions. Then, when you do buy you will know where to obtain the best and most stylish garments at the least expense. COME!

Horace Bogue

ladies report a very large and enthusiastic meeting and much work done to further the cause. When the report from Alliance was made and that it carried the information that the saloon had been abolished from this city, the waving of handkerchiefs and flags was tremendous.

Iverson Bros. of Dunlap went down to Omaha Monday night with a shipment of cattle. The boys will combine business with pleasure and take in the Ak-Sar-Ben while there.

Geo. Douglas was in the eastern part of the state last week, returning Saturday. He will accompany the Burlington special exhibit car east again this fall and winter.

Mrs. Holdridge, Mrs. C. D. Hall, Mrs. Frush, Mrs. Mallery and daughter Leone are among those in attendance at the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities. Miss Leone is one of the maids of honor.

The quarterly report of the condition of the Alliance National bank appears in this issue and the standing of that reliable banking institution keeps pace with the business world in a substantial manner.

The forthcoming nuptials of Mr. Louis A. Baschky and Miss Anna Regina Rowland have been announced to take place at Holy Rosary church, on Wednesday morning, October 7th, at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. J. Carey arrived from South Anthon, Canada yesterday morning and will visit a couple of months with her children, Miss Madeline, of this city, and Agent Carey and Miss Lettie of Hemingford.

The Herald has received a goodly sum in contributions for the democratic national campaign fund and a statement thereof will be published next week. Several republicans have contributed to the fund.

A telegram received this morning announces the death of Miss Frances Adams, sister of John Adams of this office, who was called to her sick bed last week. Friends and relatives in this city extend sympathy to the bereaved brothers and sister.

The Hay Springs Enterprise of last week tells of a party given recently in honor of Mr. and Mrs. O. Gilbert of that place, but who formerly resided in this city. Evidently Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert's popularity have followed them to Hay Springs.

Engineer Yarbrough's wife and little daughter arrived in the city last Tuesday from Sterling, Colo., and visited until the following day with her aunt, Mrs. Cora Bayse. From here they went to Billings, and Helena, Mont. to visit relatives.

Dave Lee of Bridgeport was in the city last Monday transacting business and visiting friends. Dave has demonstrated his ability to take care of himself with the pen as well as the sword and when he dips his quill into vitrol it behooves even some of the old newspaper men to hunt their holes.

H. H. Smice, who resides on the county poor farm, has 35 acres of as fine corn as one would wish to feed to stock. It is the White Cap variety and samples brought to this office show that it is well filled and matured. Mr. Smice says that it will go forty bushels to the acre and this is mighty good on land that costs considerable less than $100 per acre.

Editor Ellis of the Times is down to Lincoln visiting his family who have been there some time. He will also wait for the Taft demonstration which is to occur there in a few days. Mr. Ellis is a great admirer of the republican candidate for president and would rather lose a meal than the pleasure of gazing on Bill's delicate form.

The Herald is in receipt of a letter from A. L. Field with a year's subscription enclosed. Mr. Field, who was a pioneer settler in this county, our first county judge, and later engaged in the lumber and drug business, is now running a lumber yard at Clara City, Minn., and prospering. Mr. Field sends regards to Alliance friends.

Miss Inice McCorkle went to Omaha Friday where she will be the guest of Miss Edith Anderson for a month. The evening before Miss McCorkle departed she gave a musicale at her home which was participated in by her large class in music. An excellent program was rendered, refreshments served, after which the guests enjoyed an automobile ride about the city.

Sunday at the Baptist church, G. C. Jeffers, pastor. Sunday School at ten o'clock. Subject of morning discourse, "The Light of God." Young people's meeting at 6:30, one-half hour earlier than formerly. Subject of evening sermon, "The Turning Point." The hour of preaching service is also changed one-half hour earlier, from 8 o'clock to 7:30. Midweek prayer service Thursday evening. A welcome to all services.

Dr. Bowman is in Omaha this week enjoying the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities and visiting friends.

How Edgemont "Lambs" Liked the Initiation

(From the Edgemont Express)

On Sunday night Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Applegate, Mrs. Riley and Misses Agnes and Mollie Stack and Nellie Colgan went to Alliance where they were initiated into the mysteries of the order of the Daughters of Isabella, which was organized there Monday night. Upon arriving in Alliance the party was met at the train by Denny Landrigan and W. Hamilton, who escorted them to a hotel and after breakfast Mr. Hamilton took them to see the lodge room. Mr. Tom O'Keefe then came with his automobile and several hours were spent in viewing the city and the surrounding country.

At seven o'clock in the evening they adjourned to the lodge room where the work was beautifully put on by the McCook team. A sumptuous banquet was given from eleven to twelve o'clock which was followed by speeches given by the various candidates and this was followed by a dance which lasted into the small hours of the morning. The officers of this new order are all Alliance people and as it is a ladies order, only the highest officers of the Alliance order of the K. of C. were admitted to the installation. There were thirty-five candidates in all and the new lodge will be known as St. Agnes Court No. 90.

The candidates that were present from Edgemont expressed themselves as having enjoyed every minute of their stay in Alliance and that a more whole-souled, hospitable lot of people they never met, than those of Alliance. They returned home Tuesday morning tired out, but with the most pleasant of memories of their meeting with the jolly people of Alliance, and hope to again have the pleasure of being with them many other times.

We understand that while Miss Agnes Stack had as much fun as any of them, she had quite a serious time in keeping up with the pace of the party from here and got lost a number of times. Miss Nellie Colgan was very much elated at the prospect of a trip to Alliance because of so many eligible bachelors living there. Imagine her chagrin upon reaching there to be introduced as Mrs. Colgan and in spite of all argument and protestation on her part they still believe her to be a married woman.

Some High-Class Short-Horn Bulls.

I raised the bull calf that took first premium, also calf that took fifth in same class, in open competition, at our State fair in September 1907. My herd took fourteen ribbons, altogether. I now have thirty bulls, from one to three years old, which I would like to sell for fall delivery; a car load. I will sell from twelve to twenty; you take your pick for $100 each. I will keep them for two months, feed them oats, alfalfa, etc., get them in good shape. You take them in December, winter them at home, and they will do you some good. J. G. BRENSLER, 43-1 year Broken Bow, Neb.

Warning.

We will pay $25 reward for evidence that will convict anyone of hunting or fishing on this ranch without written permission.

Signed by H. A. Peters, 30-6 THE PETERS & WILLIAMS CO.