You can bend it like this when new

This is the secret of the wonderful success of the Red Cross Shoe. Its sole, though of regular thickness, is so supple you can bend it double when new.

This springy flexible sole of specially tanned leather allows the Red Cross to respond to every movement of your foot—gives a sense of buoyancy, of freedom that is an absolute joy to women with tender feet. The

There's Trouble Brewing Around the Bung-hole

There was a ripple of excitement in Alliance Saturday night when it became known that a raid was being made on the houses of ill repute, charges having been made against the keepers of dispensing liquid refreshments to their guests. Two or more detectives, under the leadership of Carl Slatt, of Lincoln, have been here for several weeks securing evidence and when the officers, consisting of the regular police officers, Laing and Cox, Sheriff Wiker and deputy, Con. Stirkle, M. F. Donovan, Messrs.
Wilson and Hogle of the railroad force, swooped down on those resorts they secured two barrels of beer and a small quantity of liquor. Queen Snow, Nellie Thompson, Georgia Palmer and Jennie Woods had a preliminary hearing before County Judge Berry yesterday and gave bonds in the sum of $300 each for their appearance at the next term of district court, which will be held in December. The detectives testified that they bought booze at the places of business of these women and in one instance the good old beer—the genuine article—was dispensed from a tray on which an 'hop ale' bottle occupied a prominent place. As the detective put it, "that was the latest scheme inaugurated."

But that was not all. George Smith got his foot in it on the charge of selling booze to the weary wanderer about town and he was bound over to the district court.

Yesterday Everett Cook and F. J.
Betzold were brought into court, charged with selling liquor, but when the witnesses were put on the stand they swore that they bought no booze from Cook or Betzold and the defendants were discharged. W. O. Cheney, one of the witnesses, was then placed under arrest and bound over to court.

Complaint was made against John Anderson, manager of the drug store at Hemingford, and he was bound over to the next term of court.

It is not improbable that a petition will be presented to the district judge to call a grand jury and that the government will take a hand in the matter.

No law abiding citizen will deny that all bootlegging should be stopped and those who violate the laws should be punished. However, The Herald does not believe it is for a newspaper to say that anyone is guilty until it has been so proven in court, hence we state only the proceedings of record and refrain from further comment at this time.

D. W. Hayes, superintendent of the city schools, attended a meeting of the executive board of the state teachers' association at Lincoln Saturday.

The carpenters are at work putting in the stairs in St. Agnes' academy that take place of the temporary ones and when this is finished the building will be completed throughout.

Miss Ethel Nolan came from Sheridan Saturday afternoon and visited her parents till Sunday. She is pleased with her position there but would rather live in Alliance of course.

The Alliance and Box Butte County Anti-Saloon League will pay $100.00 for the arrest and conviction of any person found illegally selling intoxicating liquors in Box Butte county, Nebraska.

The well known Chase-Lister Theatre Co. will be with us again for an entire week beginning Monday, Oct. 12th.
Clint and Bessie Robins and the Chase Lister Ladies' Orchestra are still featured with this attraction. Better plan now on seeing several of the excellent performances to be given by this splendid company.

At the bankers' convention recently held at Denver, S. K. Warrick, cashier of the First National of this city, was elected vice-president of the association for this state and S. H. Burnham, president of the First National of Lincoln, was made a member of the executive committee. It is pleasing to note that at most all conventions Alliance generally comes in for her share of the honors.

W. M. Copeland came from Torrington, Wyo., Tuesday and started on the return trip Wednesday with a new auto which he purchased of the International Harvester Co. Mr. Aspen-wall accompanied "Mac" home to teach him the "whys and wherefores" of the machine. Mr. Copeland engaged in the mercantile business at Torrington a couple of years ago and is doing splendidly, which his many friends are pleased to learn.

The home of Mrs. F. M. Broome was the scene of a beautiful "Preserve" shower party Tuesday afternoon, given in honor of Miss Pearl Mitchell. There were twelve ladies present and the time was passed very enjoyably with "500" and other pleasures. The first prize, a cut glass jelly dish, was won by Mrs. Hively and presented to Miss Mitchell, who also received the guest's prize, a beautiful hand painted jam jar.

ONE mistake men often make is not having clothes enough. They seem to think two suits of clothes bought at one time, or two overcoats, would be extravagant.

The fact is, if you buy our Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes, two suits or two overcoats at a time would be economy. A raincoat, shown here, or a fancy fabric overcoat for daily wear; and a black or oxford overcoat for dress occasions; a fancy weave suit of some new color and pattern for business, and a black or blue serge for changing occasionally, and for dressier times; every man ought to have such an outfit.

You'd find it economy; and the clothes will all last last longer if you don't wear them continuously; get them pressed occasionally.

We want to see our customers dressed right.
We'll take care of it for you if you'll let us.
