LEADING REPUBLICANS DECLARE FOR BRYAN

Resent the Efforts of Roosevelt to Force "Injunction Bill" on the Republican Party—Mayor Smith Among the Number.

D. E. Watson, a pioneer settler and well known farmer of Box Butte precinct, was in the city Monday. Mr. Watson called at this office to renew his subscription for the only democratic paper he ever subscribed for and notwithstanding the fact that he receives a dozen leading republican papers, which would be sufficient to convince the average republican that there was only one man in the world—and that man is Taft. Mr. Watson says he can't go the republican candidate for president this year. While he has never voted anything but the republican ticket in his life, he says that this year he will vote for Bryan instead of Taft, whom he declares is only a tool and who has always been fed at the public crib through appointive offices. Mr. Watson was a great admirer of Roosevelt but he says Teddy has lost thousands of friends by trying to force such a man as Taft on the Republican voters. Mr. Watson is only one of scores of republicans in this county who believe as he does. The Herald could publish their names, but this we never do without their consent. Many people have personal reasons for not wishing their views published.

Another citizen, who has voted the republican ticket for thirty years, is now out for Bryan and don't care who knows it. He is the man who holds the highest office that could be tendered him by our people—Hon. C. C. Smith, mayor of Alliance. Mr. Smith has never voted for a democratic president in his life but if you have any doubt of his intentions this year just approach the mayor on the subject. Mr. Smith says Mr. Bryan is the smartest man in the United States and that means in the whole world. Other leading republicans, who never voted for any but a republican president heretofore, who are now ardent supporters of Mr. Bryan, are R. M. Hampton and Wm. James, W. H. Holtz, who formerly lived in Bryan's ward in Lincoln, is for him this year, although he voted against him twice before. A democratic friend suggested that it is not policy to publish the names of republicans who are supporting Bryan because the republican leaders will endeavor to gather them back into the monstrous bosom of Mr. Taft, but we are not in the least alarmed about this. In fact we would be glad to have our republican brethren talk the matter over with any of the above named gentlemen. We might also state that none of these men are disappointed office seekers and are not expecting federal offices if Bryan is elected. By the way, at a meeting recently held no democrat was found who could afford to accept the position of postmaster or receiver of the land office, therefore if Bryan is elected it is probable that the present incumbents will be invited to remain in office because it is likely that these offices will continue even if the cows cease to give milk, the hens decline to lay, and the jackasses refuse to bray, as Judge Taft might say.

Deserving of Good Patronage.

The Chase-Lister theatrical company who are playing a week's stand at the opera house in this city commencing last Monday night and concluding next Saturday night, with a rendition of "Cinderella" at a Saturday afternoon matinee, are most accomplished actors one and all, and deserving of liberal patronage because they present drama in the most interesting manner. Their acting and stage work throughout is clever and the specialties by Mr. Clint and Bessie Robbins are the best theatre-attending people of Alliance have seen and heard in the town. The Herald is pleased to say the best of things about the Chase-Lister company and hope to see the people of Alliance patronize them liberally.
