Postmaster Walker advises us he is unable to furnish Hemingford correspondence this week owing to the serious illness of Mrs. Bliss, mother of Mrs. Walker. Mrs. Bliss is a pioneer settler in the county and has many friends in Alliance who regret to hear of her serious condition.

A chicken pie supper was given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church last evening, from 5 to 8 o'clock, which was liberally patronized. It was a crispy day, when chicken pie in connection with other delicacies served came in just right.

Mrs. Mike Elmore arrived in Alliance Monday and will visit her daughter and other relatives and friends here for a few days. She was accompanied from Albany, N. Y., by Mr. Elmore, who stopped off at Lincoln and was accompanied here yesterday by W. H. Kilpatrick, the Beatrice railroad contractor, and the two drove out to the Elmore ranch. Mr. Elmore has secured another big contract for railroad construction between Albany and New York City which he estimates will require three years to complete. He is as strong a Bryan man as ever and is confident of the great commotion carrying New York.

John O'Keefe and Jas. Dougherty returned Sunday from Miles City, Mont., with three cars of horses, which they bought at a stock sale. They report good horses scarce and high priced in that section.

W. M. Fosket came down from Hemingford yesterday and will spend a few days among the voters. Mr. Fosket is the republican candidate for county commissioner from the second district, and a good man he is, too, but the landslide for Bryan that will sweep over Box Butte county, November 3, makes the race for our friend Fosket a hopeless one.

Father McNamara is back from his trip to the eastern part of the state. His assistant, Father Roach, arrived during his absence from the city and has resumed his duties at Holy Rosary church. Father Roach is a young man of pleasing address and is reinforced with a classical education, having attended some of the best educational institutions in Europe. His ordination to the priesthood took place in Paris only recently.

H. N. Gambill, who resides nine miles northeast, considers himself lucky that he's alive today. He lives in a sod house and while planning some improvements thereon this morning the roof on one room fell in. Mr. Gambill narrowly escaped being caught under falling debris. The steel range and other furniture was damaged. The recent rains made the roof so heavy that the old time "ridge poles", which have probably done service for twenty years, gave way with the result stated.

The Misses Mary, Nora and "Girly" Johnson departed last week for Omaha where they will remain for several weeks visiting relatives and friends. Scorsby-Eastgate" and was the gift of his mother, Mrs. Scorsby-Eastgate, and his aunt, Mrs. Scorsby-Sherman. When the Sisters open their hospital here the bed will be transferred to them, at which time it is planned to furnish a room in memory of the late Dr. Eastgate.

Brice of this city, who carried on the business of Sleuman for several years, having still in his possession cancelled checks on the York banks amounting to thousands of dollars.

The sudden cold wave of the past week has created a stimulus to coal trade and stove business. Ranges about town have been put in commission and overcoats have been a source of comfort to those who have been compelled to face the cold blast that swept down from the north. Judge W. H. Westover, Candidate for Congress.

Judge Westover's Position

Believing that the voters of the Sixth Congressional District have a right to know where their candidate stands on the issues involved in this election, and believing that candidates before election should state publicly and unequivocally what they are in favor of, and what they will undertake to do if elected, I hereby pledge myself as follows:

- I will support any and all measures which will bring about the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people.
- I will support a law making it compulsory upon all political parties to publish a complete statement of campaign contributions before election.
- I will favor a law providing that in all cases of indirect contempt of court, the party so accused shall be tried by a jury, the same as any other person accused of crime.
- I will favor a reduction of the present tariff to an extent that foreign competition will compel American manufacturers to sell their products to American consumers as cheaply as they sell them to consumers in any foreign country; and that all agricultural machinery, fencing, building material, and all household utensils be placed on the free list.

- I will favor an amendment of the so called Railroad Rate Bill, now in force, which will provide that pending an appeal to the federal courts, the order of the interstate commerce commission, whether making a new rate, or which is made for the purpose of preventing an existing discrimination, shall be and remain in force pending the appeal in the federal courts.
- I shall favor an amendment to the federal constitution providing for an inheritance and income tax.
- I shall favor an amendment to the present homestead law, now in force and applicable to this district, which will give the homesteader the same rights of commutation, and making final proof, as are enjoyed in other localities by homesteaders under the general homestead law of the country.

- I shall favor a law under which deposits in all national banks will be guaranteed, as proposed in the Denver platform.
- I shall devote all of my time, energy and what ability I possess, to attending to the business of the people of this district, and to guarding their rights individually and collectively.
- I shall favor an amendment of the rules of the house of representatives, which will deprive Speaker Cannon, or any other speaker of the house, of the power to throttle legislation which is demanded by the people.

If the above and foregoing propositions meet with your approval, I respectfully and earnestly solicit your support at the coming general election.
