A Panic Howler Called

One big city banker has been called good and hard for giving expression to the calamity cry that desperate republican campaign managers have resorted to during the past few weeks. President George E. Roberts of the Commercial National Bank of Chicago, recently expressed the opinion that Bryan's election would be harmful to business interests. Mr. Roberts has received a flaying at the hands of J. P. O'Malley, president of People's Savings Bank of Iowa, for his stand in this matter. In a letter to officers of the Commercial National Bank, Mr. O'Malley said:

"I notice by the public press that your president, Mr. Roberts, with some other business men, have been giving out interviews in regard to the coming election. Now, personally, I entertain a high opinion of Mr. Roberts as a business man and more especially because he was a former resident of our state, and further I do not want to interfere with any man's right of free speech and concede to every citizen the right to express his choice between Mr. Bryan and Mr. Taft. But I do seriously object to this 'Panic Talk' put up by our so-called business men as being unpatriotic, unwise and unbusiness-like, and any man or party using those campaign methods are unsafe men to do business with because we give them credit for knowing better, and they cannot be honest in trying to deceive the innocent voter in this respect.

WHO PAID THE BILL?

New York, October 9.—The fact that Andrew Carnegie has contributed $50,000 to the campaign fund of the republican national committee was announced today by State Chairman Woodruff.—Associated Press Dispatch.
 Twenty thousand dollars—that is but a little dab
 Andrew Carnegie has given Mr. Taft. Just the profit of an hour of his tariff graft.
 Twenty thousand families go hungry for a day
 To help the "Laird o' Skibo" work his will;
 But amidst our toil and sweating there's no danger we're forgetting
 That those who died at Homestead paid the bill.
 Twenty thousand dollars—there's a red-brown, dirty stain
 On the money that can never be erased.
 'Tis the blood of honest toilers shed by greedy trust despoilers
 Who at vantage points their Pinkertons had placed.
 Just the profits of oppression wrought by those who had possession
 Of the power held by kings to save or kill;
 But the third day of November let the toilers well remember
 That those who died at Homestead paid the bill.
 The martyred dead at Homestead—green the grass above their graves—
 Green the memory of how the martyrs died.
 And again we see the battle; hear the rifles' crashing rattle,
 See the blood of workers flow in crimson tide.
 Aye, upon that contribution is the stain of destitution—
 Hungry children, hopeless widows wan and ill—
 Woe and want the worker pinching—gold the tariff baron clinching—
 And those who died at Homestead paid the bill.

Another Republican Gets His Eyes Opened

W. J. Johnson, a prominent stockman of Wright precinct, and who has been known as one of the rankest republicans in the county, was in Alliance Saturday. Mr. Johnson surprised his republican friends by declaring that himself and three sons would vote for Bryan. He says a system that can reduce the value of property one half in the short time of three months is wrong and he cannot conscientiously vote for a party which is responsible for such a condition. A leading republican of Alliance did his best to persuade Mr. Johnson not to desert the g.o.p. but his efforts were without avail.

Great Work of a Nebraska Newspaper

The Omaha World-Herald shows its usual enterprise and has done grand work for the national campaign by raising funds by popular subscription from the common people. The $10,000 mark is now passed, this amount having been contributed in sums of fifty cents up and forwarded to the World-Herald from about 400 towns, mostly in Nebraska. Omaha heads the list with a subscription of $1437.00 and Alliance comes second with $150.00.

Rockefeller, Morgan and Taft Consolidated Show Next Tuesday

The republican campaign managers have resorted to the "undignified" method of bill board advertising of their pet candidate, Wm. Taft. All that's good and holy is attributed to their idol who represents the trusts and combinations, while the leader of the masses, Wm. J. Bryan, is slurred and misrepresented. But every one who stops to review these comparisons can readily read between the lines and that speaks of Taft's labor injunction acts.

The other day, George L. Sheldon, republican candidate for re-election as governor of Nebraska, spoke in Adams, Nebr. While walking down the street he saw a beautiful parrot in a cage.

"What a magnificent bird," exclaimed the governor. "I never saw such a beauty. Hello Polly."
 "Hello," replied Polly.
 "Polly want a cracker?" inquired the governor.
 "Hurrah for Bryan!" shrieked the parrot.
 Now the last days of Governor Sheldon's campaign are made miserable for him by joking friends and political opponents who greet him with the query: "Polly want a cracker?"

The high protective tariff fostered by the republican party has finally proven its downfall. In the past twelve years the number of combinations and trusts that have multiplied, and to which the people have had to pay tribute, has brought about a reactionary sentiment in favor of casting off the unjust burden. The managers of the g.o.p. have become aware of this fact, and today refute their former actions by advising a "change in the tariff." Under McKinley and Roosevelt more than two hundred trusts were created to further scourge the people. The laboring man, the merchant, in fact every consumer of manufactured goods on which there is a duty, have been compelled to pay tribute to mammon. It took several years for the people to resent this high-tariff imposition but on next Tuesday thousands of voters all over the union will go to the polls and oppose further tyranny in this respect with their ballot.

Judge Westover's Position

Believing that the voters of the Sixth Congressional District have a right to know where their candidate stands on the issues involved in this election, and believing that candidates before election should state publicly and unequivocally what they are in favor of, and what they will undertake to do if elected, I hereby pledge myself as follows:

1. I will support any and all measures which will bring about the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people.
2. I will support a law making it compulsory upon all political parties to publish a complete statement of campaign contributions before election.
3. I will favor a law providing that in all cases of indirect contempt of court, the party so accused shall be tried by a jury, the same as any other person accused of crime.
4. I will favor a reduction of the present tariff to an extent that foreign competition will compel American manufacturers to sell their products to American consumers as cheaply as they sell them to consumers in any foreign country; and that all agricultural machinery, fencing, building material, and all household utensils be placed on the free list.
5. I will favor an amendment of the so-called Railroad Rate Bill, now in force, which will provide that pending an appeal to the federal courts, the order of the interstate commerce commission, whether making a new rate, or which is made for the purpose of preventing an existing discrimination, shall be and remain in force pending the appeal in the federal courts.
6. I shall favor an amendment to the federal constitution providing for an inheritance and income tax.
7. I shall favor an amendment to the present homestead law, now in force and applicable to this district, which will give the homesteader the same rights of commutation, and making final proof, as are enjoyed in other localities by homesteaders under the general homestead law of the country.
8. I shall favor a law under which deposits in all national banks will be guaranteed, as proposed in the Denver platform.
9. I shall devote all of my time, energy and what ability I possess, to attending to the business of the people of this district, and to guarding their rights individually and collectively.
10. I shall favor an amendment of the rules of the house of representatives, which will deprive Speaker Cannon, or any other speaker of the house, of the power to throttle legislation which is demanded by the people.

If the above and foregoing propositions meet with your approval, I respectfully and earnestly solicit your support at the coming general election.
 W. H. WESTOVER.

Geo. M. Adams' Statement

Crawford, Nebr., Oct. 15, 1908.
 To all Voters of the Fourteenth Senatorial District of Nebraska:
 Having been nominated by the Democratic and People's Independent Parties for the honorable position of State Senator for the Fourteenth district of Nebraska, and believing that the voters of this district should know before election where their candidate stands upon the most important issues involved in this campaign, I submit the following for your consideration:
 1. I am in favor of a law that will guarantee bank deposits, for the absolute security of the people's money, to prevent panics and promote prosperity, and available to national as well as state banks of this state wishing to take advantage of the same.

2. I am in favor of the election of precinct or township assessors by the direct vote of the people in the precincts or townships in which they live.
3. I am against what I term the unjust action of the state board in arbitrarily raising the valuation as returned by the local and county assessors.
4. I believe in a state experimental farm and that it should be located in the northwestern part of the state, as mentioned in the Democratic platform.
5. I favor a wide open primary election, where every voter will have an opportunity of voting a secret ballot and for whom he chooses.
6. From a national standpoint, I am in favor of every plank in the Democratic platform that was adopted by the Democratic party at its last national convention held in Denver, Col., in July, 1908.
 Having served in the last legislature as the representative from the Fifty-third district, which is accredited with being the most progressive legislature that has assembled in Nebraska for the last fourteen years, I believe that I am in a better position to know what the people of my part of the state want and expect from their member if elected to the office.
 Respectfully,
 GEO. M. ADAMS.
