COERCION

The following, written by Walter Wellman, recognized as one of the strongest republican writers in the country, has the following to say in the Chicago Record-Herald, a staunch republican newspaper, in the issue of Oct. 27, 1908, page 5, column 5:

"The republican managers have also been trying to induce employers to bring pressure to bear upon their men, such as the passage of word that if Bryan is elected they will have to reduce wages or close shop. A great deal of this has been done in past campaigns. But it is now an OLD STORY. While it is undoubtedly true many business men sincerely feel Bryan's success would bring on a short period of waiting and watching, and retard the coming of the good times, there is not much alarm about it among the workingmen themselves, nor, to tell the whole truth, very much among business men in general. At any rate, few employers are willing to take the trouble to try to impress their men in that way, and the few who do make the effort find it received with smiles of skepticism."

WHY?

Why Were These Popular Reforms Which the People So Earnestly Demanded and Wanted Continued Turned Down at Chicago?

WHY was Sheldon, a director and controller in twenty-two trusts and combinations—a Stand Patter—selected to collect campaign money?

WHY was DuPont, head of the powder trust, which trust is now being prosecuted by the federal government, placed at the head of the republican executive committee, to send out speakers?

WHY is Cromwell, Standard Oil's attorney and legal advisor, placed at the head of the executive committee to elect Taft, and gives $50,000 to the campaign fund?

WHY do these same people refuse to publish the trusts' donations to the campaign fund before election and persist in running the ship with all lights out?

WHY is the national republican party and Taft opposed to the guarantee of all bank deposits, so the people's money will be safe and stop forever a trust manipulated panic for benefit of Wall Street and the system?

WHY is Taft and the trusts afraid to let the people elect their own senators by direct vote. Why was this popular measure voted down?

WHY is Taft and the republican party opposed to a physical valuation of the railroads, which is the only basis by which the commercial commission can arrive at just freight rates?

WHY is the trust controlled republican party opposed to the rich man paying an income and inheritance tax on swollen fortunes to lighten the burdens of the poor and equalize taxation?

WHY does the republican party want to place double duty on the things the American farmer has to buy, and leave him at the mercy and competition of the markets of the world on the things he has to sell? Why does this party want the steel trust to put one dollar in its own coffers for every dollar they pay in wages to the workingman?

WHY is the national congressional committee working overtime with expense reports unnecessary to re-install Cannon as czar of the house when he refuses to permit any Roosevelt ideas to get past the committees which he names?

These are the questions that the American voter is asking today, and they cannot be answered by ridicule, hot air, or soft-sounding eulogistic platitudes. The truth is the people are not ruling this year through the republican party.
 The trusts are doing that for them.

If you demand that this government be run for the benefit of all the people, instead of a favored few, you should vote for that great champion of the common people, William J. Bryan.

He has spent years in advocating, and his party is pledged to the enactment of these laws for the benefit of all the people. Bryan's election will restore confidence, put the hoarded money back in the banks, prevent manipulated panics, start the wheels of commerce going again, and put to work the millions of unemployed.

If you voted for Roosevelt and want to continue his policies that were turned down at Chicago the only way you can do it is to vote for Wm. J. Bryan, for the republican party in this campaign is opposed to them.
