Among those seen were Mr. and Mrs. Berlew, Henry Winten, Leo Fhronapel, Andrew Tschacher, Joe and John Edward Kuhn, Tom Katen and Harry Desling.

Obituary.

Once again the All Wise hand of a Divine Providence has been laid heavily upon us, this time removing one of our young men, just a little more than a boy. For several weeks past Ivar A. B. Osnes has been laid on a bed of sickness patiently waiting his time to go, which he knew must soon come. Medical treatment was of no avail. Kind friends ministered to him to the last. He passed away on Sunday morning at four o'clock, Feb. 28, 1909. Ivar A. B. Osnes was born at Nordfjord, Eid, Norway, April 14, 1891. He emigrated with his uncle, O. A. Davig, to America reaching Alliance April 10, 1905, his father having died when the family of children were very small. The hard labor of the mother to support the little ones soon impaired her health so in a few years she followed the father. They made their home with the aged grandmother until O. A. Davig went after them bringing three with him to Alliance, Neb. Those who are left to mourn his loss are his brother, Alfred M. Osnes, and sister, Amanda B. Osnes, uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Davig, and their family and two aunts, Mrs. A. J. Dunham of Bayard, Neb., and Mrs. A. Snyder of Loup City, Neb. In Norway still is his sister, Caroline Osnes, an aunt, Mrs. Grinda and the aged grandmother. He was a member of the Lutheran church, being confirmed in that faith on Nov. 5, 1905. He was steadfast and true, so patient and kind, trusting all in Jesus till the last. Considering the early hour and the condition of the roads, the large congregation of friends that gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to the remains, speaks more for his kindness and goodness than words can do. The funeral was held at the home of O. A. Davig, in Box Butte precinct, Mar. 2, at ten o'clock, conducted by Pastor Klavjord of Hemingford. The floral tribute was very beautiful. After a brief and very touching ceremony, the remains were laid to rest in the Lutheran Cemetery near Hemingford.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to the friends and neighbors for their kindness to us during the illness, death and burial of our beloved nephew and brother. Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Davig, Alfred and Amanda Osnes.

FAIRVIEW.

Harry Nelson of Alliance is painting C. H. West's house. Wm. Dilling made a business trip to Alliance Monday. Dean Richards is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lawrence. Ollie Countryman is working for J. R. Lawrence at present. F. L. Glarum is plastering for Wm. Aspen on his new house. Andrew Strick is working for Ed Curry at present. Ed has the mumps. The Ladies' Aid will meet at Grandma Lawrence's Wednesday, March 10th. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rust, Jr., are la grippe victims at the present writing. Elmer Shanks is very sick with the mumps at present, having taken a relapse. Otto Vogel and a party of gentlemen from Alliance departed for the South Lakes on a hunt Monday. J. R. and D. R. Lawrence, also John Vogel and son departed for the Platte river route Blue creek for a two weeks' hunt. John Lawrence and son William returned home Monday after spending a few days on the latter's homestead in the sand hills. Miss Letha Watson closed a very successful term of school in Dist. No. 5 last Friday. Miss Watson is a very successful teacher and was well liked by all the scholars.

Married

At the Baptist parsonage in Alliance, at 1:30 p.m., Tuesday, March 2, 1909, Mr. Carl Brickner was united in marriage to Miss Grace Vandermark, Rev. J. M. Huston officiating. After the ceremony had been performed the happy couple left on the train on a wedding trip to Crawford, Neb., and Rock Springs, S. D. The groom is employed by W. H. Matthies, the tailor, and upon their return he and his bride will make their home in this city.

To the Public

My present store is not large enough so about March 8th I will be located in a spick and span, bigger and better store right across the street. Let me thank you now for your liberal patronage which has made my success possible. But before moving I want to reduce my stock. Want you help? The real genuine bargains I will offer should induce you to look them over. Thanking you again and asking your continued patronage in my larger and better store.

Yours,
THE BEE HIVE STORE.
