W. C. Hibbs, Mgr.

A. W. Pierson returned to Alliance Tuesday morning after an extended visit with home folks. He reports a good time and we can vouch for that. He left his mother recovering from a siege of pneumonia and at the time of his departure she was getting along nicely. Al is at the present time a man of leisure, having tendered his resignation to the International Harvester Co., and is open for engagements; now is the time girls.

The Crystal has just added a new special Compensare Rheostat at a cost of seventy-five dollars to their moving picture outfit. This is a great improvement over the rheostat ordinarily used and allows them to give the pictures just the right illumination. As it is placed inside of the fireproof box in which the machine is placed, it gives greater safety.

The Editor of The Herald is on a business trip to Omaha this week, and will make a run up to Norfolk to attend the meeting of the Nebraska State Association of Commercial Clubs as delegate of the Alliance Commercial Club. He expects to purchase additional machinery while in Omaha to add to the equipment of The Herald office.

As will be seen by the ad of the Bennett Company in today's issue of The Herald, this firm expects to give a grand opening of their new piano store in the Rumer building next to James Graham's grocery store, on Saturday, March 20th. A fine new Chickering grand has just been placed on their floor. This is the first grand piano in Alliance and as they say that "nothing is too good for Alliance" we will probably see more. They have a very complete line and expect to keep a stock of from thirty to fifty pianos in Alliance all the time.

Mrs. P. Healy of Buffalo, Wyo., stopped off at Alliance last Thursday and visited a day with her sister, Miss Sedwick. Mrs. Healy together with her husband have been touring the eastern part of the United States the last couple of months. Some of the points of interest at which they stopped were Washington, D. C., being there for the inauguration, New York City, Philadelphia and Hampton Roads, being at Hampton Roads at the time of the return of the Fleet. A very enjoyable trip is reported. Mr. Healy went on through to Buffalo without stopping off here.

F. J. Brennan and Harry Thiele have received a carload of paint. This is something new for Alliance and shows that they have confidence in Alliance.

Cy Laing has returned from his visit to Omaha.

Boxing Contest at Crawford

The boxing contest between Natt Dewey (colored), and Terry Mustang, at Crawford last night, resulted in a victory for Dewey in the 17th round, on a knock out.

Palace Meat Market Again Changes Hands

W. Herman has purchased the Palace Meat Market of Ed. Eldred and took charge of the same last week. He intends to install a modern refrigerating plant and make the market up-to-date in every respect.

He has an ad in this issue of The Herald. It was not his fault that it did not appear in the last issue—we were so crowded that we could not make the change before going to press.

Members of the Epworth League and their friends were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Tash last evening. The house was tastefully decorated in green to suit the occasion. Games and music were diversions of the evening after which an elaborate lunch was served. Rev. Vallow gave an interesting address on the legend of St. Patrick. The evening was a source of enjoyment to all present.
