Notice.

Having moved my office from the First National bank building to the Fletcher block, water consumers are requested to call at the latter place to pay their accounts. C. W. BRENNAN, Water Commissioner.

Wanted—A good, reliable man to sell tea and coffee at once.—Grand Union Tea Co., Omaha, Neb.

Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.

THE hosts are out in grand array,
"A-wearing of the green;"
Long columns march adown the street,
With playing bands between,
And I—my feet are keeping step
To tunes that roll out free,
But my heart's afar in a blessed isle—
A green isle o'er the sea.

THERE, in a thatched roof, humble cot,
A gray haired woman bides.
The snows of time rest on her head;
Care in her wrinkles hides.
I'm with my mother where she waits,
Her heart bound up in me.
My heart is there; her heart is with
Her boy far o'er the sea.

AND o'er the moor another cot,
Amid a sea of green,
Holds one whose eyes turn oceanward—
My own sweet, fair colleen.
And she—she's wearing shamrock, too;
She'll send a sprig to me.
She lifts her heart in prayer today
For one across the sea.

I LOVE this land; it treats me well,
And I mean well by it.
So bear with me when on this day
I backward glance a bit
To that green isle which gave me birth,
Where loved ones wait for me.
My heart will take, St. Patrick's day,
A trip across the sea.
