NEWS OF NEBRASKA

Bank Guaranty Bill is Now Ready for Governor.

Bartos Bill Limiting Dividends of Stockholders Recommended for Passage—Diers' Garnishee Measure is Passed by Senate.

Lincoln, March 23.—The house concurred in the senate amendments to the bank deposit guaranty bill, which has the effect of passing it, and it now goes to the governor. It was one of the bills in which W. J. Bryan took a personal interest and has been a source of extended debate throughout the session of the legislature, now nearing a close. In addition to providing for the guaranteeing of deposits, it makes important changes in the banking laws of the state.

Representative Taylor of Custer county was the only member to make serious objection to a concurrence in the senate amendments to the bank guaranty bill. He objected to making the initial levy one instead of one-half of 1 per cent. He declared the "tearing down of the bill was done in the interest of national banks" and said it had been "so trimmed down that national banks will have no edge over state banks." Graff of Cuming, who reported the bill, was the principal speaker to oppose Taylor.

When Graff finally moved that the senate amendments be concurred in, the motion was adopted by a vote of 53 to 43.

The bank bill formed the chief source of interest in both branches and a number of senators were on the house floor during the deliberations over the amendments. The measure will be in Governor Shallenberger's hands today and probably will be signed by him without further ado.

Limit Dividends of Stockholders.
In the senate a bill was recommended for passage which prevents stockholders in stock life insurance companies accepting more than 8 per cent dividends, or bonuses in lieu thereof. Senator Bartos of Saline county fathered the bill, for which he made a strong fight. He cited figures to show conditions that had been unearthed in large life insurance companies and was able to carry his point. The bill will probably be before the senate for passage before the week ends.

Senator Diers' bill providing for the lowering of the exemption of wages from garnishee proceedings from 90 per cent to 75 per cent was passed by the senate by a vote of 21 to 9. However, the bill as amended provides that no one's wages shall be subject to these proceedings except for debts contracted for the necessities of life.

The senate committee of the whole recommended for passage the bill to prohibit merchants using trading stamps or premiums of any kind as an inducement to trade. A fine of from $25 to $100 is fixed for violation thereof.

Appropriation Bills.

A number of the appropriation bills were placed on the general file of the senate on recommendation of the finance, ways and means committee. The bills provided for appropriations of $70,000 for a building at the feeble minded institute at Beatrice; $3,000 for improvement in the state fish hatcheries at South Bend, and $5,000 for improving the same in Cherry county; $50,000 for library at Peru; $50,000 for wing to chapel and gymnasium at Kearney normal; $75,000 for weak school districts.

TELL CONFLICTING STORIES

Two Boys Under Arrest at Alma for Dillon Murder Differ.

Alma, Neb., March 23.—The preliminary hearing of George Critzer and Ben Heddendorf, the two boys under arrest charged with the murder of William Dillon of Stamford, will not be held until Friday.

The boys tell conflicting stories of the crime and it will remain for the preliminary to determine the truth of their statements. Dillon was buried today at Stamford.

A feature of the affair was that while hounds were on the trail of the murderers both boys were with the crowd following the dogs. Later the sheriff believed there was reason to suspect the boys and caused their arrest. He kept them apart after their arrest and secured from each an entirely different story. It has been learned that Critzer purchased a revolver at a local hardware store. Both boys have been staying at the home of Heddendorf during the absence of the latter's parents in Iowa.

Charged With Poisoning Stock.

Ogallala, Neb., March 23.—Ducello and Charles Henry, neighbors in the North Platte valley, had a lawsuit, in which Ducello was beaten. The latter now has caused the arrest of Henry on a charge of poisoning his stock. Two horses, two cows and a number of hogs have died from poisoning and other horses were made sick since the lawsuit and Henry caused his arrest. Henry charges that he caught Ducello putting salt and paris green in alfalfa hay belonging to Henry. Ducello is in jail.

Pollard Returns to Plattsmouth.

Plattsmouth, Neb., March 19.—Former Congressman E. M. Pollard has returned home from Washington and will, it is stated, supervise the re-establishment of the Plattsmouth Evening News and assume editorial control of the paper.
