

TAYLOR PARDONED

Governor Willson of Kentucky Ends Goebel Murder Case.

CLEMENCY FOR ALL BUT ONE.

Henry E. Youtsey, Now Serving a Life Sentence, is Only Person to Suffer for Taking Off of Goebel. Former Secretary of State Charles Finley Has Also Been Pardoned. Refugees in Indiana.

Louisville, April 24.—Governor Willson cleared the Kentucky court records of all charges growing out of the murder in January, 1906, of Senator William Goebel, except those hanging over state's evidence witnesses in the conspiracy, by granting pardons before trial to former Governor W. S. Taylor and former Secretary of State Charles Finley, who have been fugitives in the state of Indiana for nine years; to John Powers, brother of Caleb Powers, who is believed to be in Honduras; to Holland White of Butler county, John Davis of Louisville and Zach Steele of Bell county, under indictment and who did not flee from the state.

The men over whom indictments are left hanging are W. Golden of Knox county, now in Colorado; F. C. Earl of Bell county, now a railroad detective in St. Louis, and William H. Culton of Owsley county, said to have died in the west a few months ago.

These cases, with the possible exception of Culton, will be dismissed, leaving Henry E. Youtsey, now serving a life sentence in the state penitentiary, the only person to suffer for the taking off of Goebel.

WHITLA KIDNAPERS INDICTED

James H. Boyle and Wife Will Be Placed on Trial Next Friday.

Mercer, Pa., April 24.—Indictments were returned here by the grand jury against James H. Boyle and his wife in connection with the abduction March 18 of Willie Whitla of Sharon, Pa. The bill against Boyle charges kidnaping. The maximum sentence is life imprisonment. The woman is similarly indicted, with an extra count charging aiding, assisting and abetting in the kidnaping. The trial will begin next Friday.

The grand jury also reported that Sheriff Chess had been instructed by them to place Boyle in a burglar proof cell because of a recent attempt to liberate him.

The kidnaping case was before the grand jury about seven hours. The witnesses were J. P. Whitla and his son, who was kidnaped, Janitor Schloss of the Sharon school, Roy Thompson, who rented a horse and buggy to the abductors, and Detective Woods of Cleveland, who effected the arrest.

MRS. SCOTT IS D. A. R. CHIEF

Administration Candidate Is Elected President of Order.

Washington, April 24.—After twenty-four hours devoted to counting and recounting the ballots, the Daughters of the American Revolution found the honors of the biennial election of their society divided between the administration and the anti-administration forces. The big fight of the congress was won by the administration in the election of Mrs. Matthew T. Scott of Illinois, to be president general. The second office in point of honor, that of vice president general, in charge of organizations, however, went to the anti-administration followers by the election of Mrs. Andrew Tulley of this city. The election was characterized by a bitterness that prevented the motion of Mrs. Story to make the election of her rival unanimous being adopted without dissent from a group of anti-administration delegates.

CASTRO REACHES PARIS

Former Venezuelan Dictator Says He Is Victim of United States.

Paris, April 24.—Cipriano Castro arrived here. He walked out of the station supported by two attendants and it was evident that he made his way with difficulty. He was greeted by a dozen prominent Venezuelan residents of Paris.

His return was in striking contrast to his two previous appearances in Paris. Instead of having a magnificent automobile waiting, he entered an ordinary taxicab, taking with him his two attendants and four friends and went to a modest hotel in the Place Concorde, where he hired a single room. To journalists the former president continued his abuse and denunciation of the United States.

TRADE REVIEW FOR THE WEEK

Dun Says Movement Toward Full Prosperity Will Be Rapid.

New York, April 24.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: Faith in the future is more pronounced than in the immediate conditions, and with the year's crops assured the movement toward a full prosperity will be rapid. This, with the knowledge that abundant money and big gold output are favorable to expansion, inspires courage. The fact that lower prices are stimulating a more active demand for iron and steel products also aids in this development.

With some improvement in the volume of inquiries and with raw cotton at a high level, prices have held firm in the primary cotton goods market, although just at present the export trade has again fallen off to small proportions. In the woolen goods division practically all clothing salesmen are now on the road and considerable duplicate business is already reported. A very fair demand is noted on wool goods and on worsted stocks many lines are sold up, while others are sharply advanced in price.

In the hide market pronounced strength has developed in all lines and active buying has been in progress throughout the week. While there have been no further sales of unusual size in the leather market, there is a steady demand from small buyers and the market on the whole shows an improvement over last month. Prices are firm, owing to rapidly advancing hide market.

FAMOUS BEAUTY MARRIED

Norah Langhorne, Youngest of the Beautiful Langhorne Girls, a Bride.

New York, April 26.—Society families of New York, Virginia and Great Britain were united today by the marriage of Miss Norah Langhorne, youngest daughter of Chiswell D. Langhorne of Albemarle county, Va., to Paul Phipps of England. The ceremony was performed in St. James' Protestant Episcopal church of this city, Bishop Courtenay, rector of the church, officiating. The wedding ceremony was followed by a small reception at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson.

Today's bride is the youngest of the beautiful Langhorne girls. Besides Mrs. Gibson, whose husband is the famous artist, there are Mrs. Waldorf Astor of England, daughter-in-law of William Waldorf Astor; Mrs. Reginald Brooks of New York and Mrs. T. Moncure Perkins, also of this city. The Langhorne are well known in the society of Virginia, New York and Great Britain for their beauty and charm.

Mr. Phipps, who is a young architect, is a grandson of Mr. William Butler Duncan of New York. He is well known in the hunting set in Virginia.

PATTEN HAS NOTHING TO SAY

Refuses to Answer Any Questions About Wheat Market.

Trinidad, Colo., April 26.—James A. Patten, the Chicago "wheat king," and his party passed the night at the Adams ranch, ten miles from the Bartlett ranch. Mr. Patten declined to answer any questions bearing on his relation to the wheat market.

"We have nothing to say," was all a member of the party would say in answer to questions asked over the telephone.

When told of a dispatch from El Paso, Tex., saying the members of the party might be arrested for fishing out of season, as well as for neglecting to procure licenses, the person talking laughed loudly. No information would be given as to the length of time the party proposes to remain in the west.

INCOME TAX IS UP

Senator Bailey Opens Ball in Favor of Amendment.

MAKES LENGTHY ADDRESS.

Committee on Finance Reports Its Final Amendment to Tariff Schedules—Believed Bill Will Remain in Senate for Three or Four Weeks Before Being Sent to the House. Many Paragraphs in Dispute.

Washington, April 26.—The income tax in connection with the tariff bill will receive especial attention in the senate during the present week. Senator Bailey, who had introduced an amendment to the bill providing for a flat rate of taxing incomes, opened the ball today with a protracted speech in support of his amendment, and he will be followed by others for and against the provision.

Mr. Bailey has made a careful study of the income tax question and presented the subject in all of its bearings, both legal and economic. He expressed himself pointedly and was subjected to many interruptions, with the result that there was much spirited colloquy during his speech.

The committee on finance reported its final amendment to the tariff schedules today, and as soon as the opportunity permits the senate will return to the consideration of the bill, paragraph by paragraph, taking up in order the items which during the reading last week were laid aside for future consideration. There are about 200 of these paragraphs, and as amendments to each of them are contemplated it may be inferred that much time will still be necessary for the completion of the senate's work.

The general opinion is that the bill will remain in the senate for about three or four weeks and after the senate completes its work the time of adjournment will depend upon the attitude of the house towards the numerous changes.

Sentiment Evenly Divided.
Frequent utterances by President Taft of the hope that congress will hasten the passage of the tariff bill in order that business may be restored to its normal condition at the earliest possible date may postpone the real test of strength over the income tax proposition.

At the present time sentiment of the senate is pretty evenly divided for and against an income tax amendment to the pending bill, but there are many differences of opinion among those favoring the idea as to details of the legislation. Some of the senators believe that it is impractical to tax incomes of less than $5,000, while others believe it will be necessary to go as low as $2,000.

North Will Not Resign.

Washington, April 26.—S. N. D. North, director of the census, whose differing with Secretary Nagel of the department of commerce and labor relative to the matter of authority and administration in the census bureau has resulted in several conferences between the secretary and President Taft, stated that it was not now his purpose to resign.

ROOSEVELT'S FIRST HUNT

Bags Two Wildebeests and a Thompson's Gazelle.

Nairobi, British East Africa, April 26.—After a brief hunting expedition at Kapiti Plains, ex-President Roosevelt and his party broke camp and started for the ranch of Sir Alfred Pease, on the Athi river.

Colonel Roosevelt's first hunt was favored by fine weather and he enjoyed the experience immensely. He bagged two wildebeests and a Thompson's gazelle. In one respect, Mr. Roosevelt was somewhat disappointed, as he had been anxious to secure a Grant's gazelle, whose massive horns are much sought after for trophies. The hunt lasted several hours and all the members of the party were well tired out when they returned to camp.

Smallpox is prevalent at Nairobi and two cases have developed among the porters at Kapiti.
