PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

In this design I present something which is in great favor on the coast, and, though only the first floor is finished, there is ample room on the second floor for a couple of small rooms. Because of its simplicity it should also prove to be an economical house to build. The rooms are all of generous size. The size over all is 27 feet by 38 feet. The basement is seven feet high and the first floor nine feet. Either a large or small basement can be had, at the option of the builder. The exterior is sided, though either shingles or plaster would look well. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $1,700.

SIXTEEN INJURED IN TORNADO

Storm Destroys Large Part of Oklahoma Town.

Oklahoma City, Okla., April 27.—Sixteen persons were injured, one perhaps fatally, in a tornado which destroyed a large part of the town of Centrahoma, near here.

A child of Rev. E. J. Matthews is thought to be dying. Mrs. Matthews and her four other children were also injured. Lee Grist was badly bruised and his collarbone was broken. The others were not seriously hurt.

Not a building in the town remained wholly intact after the storm. Twelve buildings, including the Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian churches, were totally wrecked. The town contains about 800 inhabitants. Many of these are homeless as a result of the storm.

A terrific rain and hail storm followed the tornado, greatly adding to the damage.

Cathedral Roof Falls at Mass.

Madrid, April 27.—The roof of the cathedral at Forbes, in Lugo province, collapsed while mass was being celebrated inside the building. Nine persons were killed and thirty injured.

SULTAN CRUSHED

Constantinople Surrenders to Army of Investment.

TWO THOUSAND ARE KILLED

Conquering Young Turks Declare They Will Put an End to All Sedition—Commission of Notables Will Try Abdul Hamid—Confirmation of Report That Twenty-five Thousand Were Killed in Adana.

Constantinople, April 26.—The Yildiz garrison surrendered to the constitutionalist forces. The commanders of these battalions began sending in their submission to Mahmoud Scheiket Pasha during the night and the whole of the troops protecting the palace gave their formal and unconditional surrender shortly after day-break.

Niaci Bey, who is called the hero of the July revolution, is now in command of the garrison.

Sultan Abdul Hamid has been permitted to remain within the walls of the Yildiz Kiosk, where, in company with his ministers, he had waited for the outcome of the struggle between his loyal troops and the army of investment, each hour bringing to him word of a fresh disaster. It has been stated, since victory rested with the constitutionalists, that the sultan himself gave orders to his men not to resist. Whether or not this is true, it can be safely said of the troops within the capital that they put up a stubborn resistance at all points, and the losses on both sides are exceedingly heavy for the length of time the engagement was in progress.

Parliament to Deal With Sultan. A report of the commander in chief of the constitutionalist forces is authority for saying that the sultan will be dealt with by the parliament and that there will be an adequate inquiry into the sovereign's alleged complicity in the recent mutiny. Up to the present the ministry has not been dissolved, but Constantinople and a number of other places have been declared in a state of siege.

Martial law prevails, and while there is some uneasiness among the people, order has been maintained with a strict hand. The last garrison to surrender was the Selimieh artillery barracks, in Scutari, opposite Stamboul. Four thousand men stationed there, with a hundred guns, threatened to blow the city into ruins, but General Scheiket ordered up sixty big guns and several batteries of machine guns to positions which commanded the barracks and the cruiser Medjidieh steamed out of range of the field pieces and prepared for action. The commander of the barracks thereupon submitted.

Following Saturday's terrific fighting, the city took on an aspect of strange quiet. Beyond a few scattering shots there was nothing to disturb the peace of the city. The investing troops were reinforced, however, in the fear that the Yildiz garrison would remain loyal to the sultan and continue the struggle to the end. Fortunately the officers in command of these soldiers saw the hopelessness of resistance and there was no opposition when various commanders laid down their swords and gave over their detachments to the strongly entrenched "enemy."

25,000 ARMENIANS MASSACRED

Latest Estimate of Number Killed in Vilayet of Adana.

Beirut, April 26.—The situation in Asiatic Turkey is one of extreme gravity. How many thousands have been massacred cannot even be estimated, because the disturbances have been so widespread that it is impossible to secure details of the happenings during the past ten days. The latest estimate of the number killed in the vilayet of Adana reaches approximately 25,000 and thousands have been done to death in the towns of other districts. The state of siege which several of the places experience have brought the inhabitants to the verge of starvation and each day brings its tales of further atrocities and the depths of misery and despair to which the savagery of the fanatics has brought the people. Several warships are now in these waters, but the disorders are so far reaching that the efforts of the powers to restore normal conditions as yet have been hard, felt.

Sultan to Lose Throne.

Constantinople, April 27.—The deposition of Sultan Abdul Hamid appears now to be certain, and the 101 guns saluting Mehmed Rechad Effendi as the new ruler of the empire probably will be heard before the next Selamlik, on Friday. The dignitaries of the church care as little for Abdul Hamid as does the committee of union and progress, but the clergy are seeking to curb the agitation of the enthusiasts of the Mohammedan league. Senators and deputies who have made inquiry among the Ulemas find them in different degrees favorable to the sultan's removal.

Two Thousand Slain.

London, April 26.—The Standard's Constantinople correspondent estimates that 2,000 men were killed in the fighting in the capital Saturday and that the losses were heaviest on the side of the constitutionalists, who did all the attacking and who offered good targets in the open.
