Memorial Day Program

Captain W. R. Akers to be Orator of the Day

Next Sunday, being Decoration day, arrangements have been made to observe the same in an appropriate manner. Exercises will be conducted at the Phelan opera house, commencing at 2 o'clock p.m., Mr. E. P. Sweeney, chairman of the day, presiding; after which a line of march will be formed and those who will assist in decorating the graves of departed soldiers will proceed to Greenwood cemetery.

Following is the program of the exercises to be held in the opera house: Double Quartette, "The Blue Fades into Gray," Misses Ruth Hager, Dora Jones, Nell Acheson, Kate Bogue, and Messrs. Cecil Smith, Camille Nohe, R. W. Morrison, Prof. G. H. Williams.

Prayer..... Rev. J. L. Vallow
Song, Double Quartette..... Selected
Scripture Reading..... Dr. H. P. V. Bogue
Song, Double Quartette..... Selected
Address..... Capt. W. R. Akers
Song, Double Quartette..... Selected
Benediction..... Rev. J. M. Huston

Forming of line of march by officer of the day, W. O. Barnes.

All persons who are to participate in above program are requested to assemble at the opera house at 1:30 p.m.

Improved City Directory

For some time past The Herald Publishing company has been making special efforts to hold in Alliance printing that formerly was done in the eastern part of the state or in other states. As many of our readers are aware this office is turning out a very much larger quantity of job-printing than formerly. A large per cent. of this increase of business is due to the fact that we are doing work in a very satisfactory manner that was formerly done elsewhere. This work has invariably been as well done, and sometimes better, than that done by outside printing establishments.

About once in every two years a Springfield, Mo., firm publishes a directory for a number of the smaller cities of Nebraska, including Alliance. The last Alliance directory which they published, while a great convenience to the business men using it, was not altogether satisfactory. Having secured the services of Mr. Maurice Kling, formerly of Chicago, who is conversant with city directory work, we decided to print this year's directory in Alliance. In so doing we are getting up the best and most convenient directory that has ever been compiled in any city in Nebraska outside of Lincoln and Omaha; and by publishing it here the money that is paid the printers, who do the work, will be spent with the business men who furnish the patronage necessary to bear the expense; and the profit, if there is any, will be spent in our home town.

Junior Normal Edition

Within the last few years the city of Alliance has been making a very favorable impression upon other parts of the state in educational matters. This impression has been enlarged and deepened within the last few months. It is of great importance not only to this city but to this part of the state that the advanced ground taken educationally be maintained and that additional educational facilities be secured if possible, particularly the new state normal school.

Superintendent D. W. Hayes of the city schools and County Superintendent Ora E. Phillips have just issued a six-column folio paper announcing the coming Junior Normal, which has been sent to teachers and others who might attend from this and surrounding counties. No doubt quite a number of The Herald readers will receive a copy of this announcement but there are hundreds of our subscribers to whom it will not be sent. Last year the Alliance Junior Normal took the lead of the eight Junior Normals of the state. It had the largest attendance of any and, if we are not mistaken, incurred to the state the smallest expense. It is of the highest importance that this record be maintained this year.

As there are many readers of this paper who will not receive a copy of the Junior Normal paper above referred to, we have decided to make this issue of The Herald a special Junior Normal edition. We sincerely hope that many of our readers who are interested in the cause of education will become more interested in the Junior Normal and if possible will attend the same this year. The expense will not be heavy and the training received will be of inestimable value to the young people who attend, whether they become teachers or not. We urge upon parents who can do so to send their sons and daughters who have passed the eighth grade. The time so spent cannot be occupied to better advantage.

May Day Observance at Holy Rosary Church

Special May Day exercises of a religious nature will take place next Sunday evening at Holy Rosary church. As is known, the month of May is especially devoted by members of this church to pay homage to the Blessed Virgin Mary and the concluding features of such devotion is the crowning of a statue of the Virgin. This is done in a most beautiful manner by the children and young people. The arrangements are under the direction of the Sisters of St. Agnes' academy, who desire that all the children attending the academy and the parents meet at the Knights of Columbus hall next Sunday evening at 6:30 promptly where they will march in a body to the church and be present at the crowning exercises. Miss Marie Buechsenstein was selected by the scholars of St. Agnes' academy to act as crown bearer on this occasion. A general invitation is extended to all to be present at the church.

Will Take a Summer Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Gregg are planning a most delightful summer trip. They expect to leave Alliance June 6 with their son Robt., to be gone about a month, and will take in the exposition at Seattle and also visit Los Angeles, Salt Lake City and other points in the mountains and on the coast. Their first stop will be Portland to take in the celebrated annual Rose Carnival which will be held there this year from June 7 to 12. They expect also before returning to go to Vancouver, Wash., where they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. James W. Christy, who are well known to many of The Herald readers.

The Airdome Opening Last Night

The Crystal Airdome theatre opened last night with a crowded house and the popularity of the Crystal, which several weeks ago was curbed by the fire that destroyed the Rumer block, broke out anew and we believe stronger than before. The airdome is well arranged and has a seating capacity of 600. The managers are to be congratulated on the manner in which they so quickly arranged this amusement hall, and their efforts no doubt will be rewarded by large attendances henceforth. Next week an especially interesting line of vaudeville and illustrated pictures will be presented.

Will Build Warehouse

Beal Bros. have given up their office and store room at 204 Box Butte avenue, and are planning to build a warehouse on the railroad right of way on Big Horn Ave., near the electric light plant. The warehouse is to be completed and ready for occupancy by September first. Meanwhile Ralph will look after some farming that he is expecting to do this summer, while Tom will put in a part of the intervening time on a southern and eastern trip.

While this will give them a lull in their business during the summer months it is expected that beginning in September they will transact a larger business in purchasing and shipping produce, jobbing in fruits, etc., than ever before.

PROMPT PAYMENT OF DEATH LOSS

Certificate Amount Paid into Hands of Beneficiary Within Ten Days After Death, Commends the Woodmen of the World to All Seeking Protective Insurance.

Floyd E. Watson of this city met his death in a railroad accident on May 5th, 1909. His remains were placed at rest on May 7th. Proofs of loss were forwarded by the officers of Maple Camp, No. 165, Woodmen of the World, the details of the settlement completed and a check from the Sovereign banker was in the hands of the local officers on the 15th, and paid over to the beneficiary named in his policy on the 17th, ten days after the funeral date.

This prompt payment of the death loss is but an individual example of the methods of this progressive fraternal organization. With an adequate reserve emergency fund (over $8,000,000.00 now) the matter of adjusting a loss is not a matter of weeks and months, and speaks volumes for the splendid conduct of the business of the organization which has spread its protecting influence over the dependent ones of a half-million members.

Protecting dependent ones in the event of untimely death is commendable. To place this protection and confidence in an organization with the record for fairness and promptness as evidenced by the Woodmen of the World is the most commendable act of man while in life and in possession of health and strength.
