THE GLORIOUS FOURTH OF JULY

A GROUP OF PATRIOTS HARD AT IT.

Parland Newhall Concert Company Coming

The greatest musical treat of the season will be the Parland Newhall Concert Company. This company will appear as the second number of the Alliance Junior Normal entertainment course.

There are two reasons why this company will receive the largest possible patronage. First, they are the best company of their kind in the United States today. Their programs, consisting of male quartets, brass quartets and bell ringers, offer a variety that will please everybody. Second, the people of Alliance will show their appreciation of the Normal by giving hearty support to the course. The entertainment courses for the past three years have been paid for, every dollar, by the people of Alliance, and this year will prove no exception to the rule. Phelan opera house, July 8. Tickets on sale at Holsten's after July 1st. Admission, 50c; gallery, 35c.

Lawn Social

The Epworth League will give a lawn social at the Methodist parsonage, corner Box Butte avenue and Idaho street, on Friday evening of this week. All young people are invited. Refreshments to cents.

Begins Residence in Alliance

Don B. Wagner arrived in Alliance from Indianapolis on June 14 to take a position in the office of the trainmaster, having formerly been in the employ of the "Big Four." On Tuesday of this week his wife and little daughter, Donna, came to make their home here, and we are sure they will receive a royal welcome from the people of this city.
