YARDS

Sale begins at 10 a. m. sharp

SAT., SEPT. 25, '09

Closing out sale of noted "Figure 8" horses, from Helena, Mont. Supposed to be the best herd of draft-bred horses in Montana, imported Percheron and Shire Stallions being used in this herd for 15 years. This offering consists from unbranded colts to six-year-old mares weighing 1700 pounds. They are the right type of a draft horse, short legs and wide as a wagon kind. Teams have gone out of this herd for $500 and $600 per team, one team went to Seattle for $1,000.

We have decided to sell at public sale at Alliance, Nebraska, Saturday, Sept. 25, this entire herd of 400 head of grand, good horses, including one imported Percheron Stallion, five years old, without reserve. And we extend a hearty invitation to all farmers and stockmen in the territory of Alliance and Western Nebraska to try and attend this sale whether you wish to buy or not, as the opportunity has never been better to buy so many good horses of the type the demand calls for. The colts, yearlings and two-year-olds are good enough to go to any state fair. These horses will be sold single or in car lots, or in numbers to suit purchaser.

These horses will be in the stock yards in Alliance, Sept. 24, and we invite your inspection

Sale Positive. Terms, cash or one year's time will be given at 8% interest

MARSLAND.

(Received last week too late for publication.)

Mr. Keeton is clerking for the McGogy Pool Trading Co.

Mr. Burt Bouck is plastering and finishing up his new home.

The last small pox patient has been discharged from the quarantine.

Mrs. Jim Tolman and children have just returned from a visit in Iowa.

McGogy Pool Trading Co. are doing a fine business this fall at the old stand.

More new goods at Bellamy & Miller's. They have a fine stock for winter.

The elderly Mr. Gregory who has been sick so long, is a little better this week.

Mrs. Geo. Gregory has been on the sick list ever since she came from Hot Springs, S. D.

Mrs. May Holman from Oklahoma City, has come to visit her sick father at the Gregory ranch.

Another wedding in the near future at Marsland, with several more to follow during the holidays.

Mrs. Geo. Hicew and daughter have gone to Wyoming where they expect to spend the winter.

Mrs. Lee Gregory and daughters from Belmont, were pleasant callers at Marsland one day this week.

Mrs. Durt Bouck has returned from the hospital at Hot Springs, where Dr. Walker performed an operation. She is doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. Furman were in town one day this week. They say they like it very much on their ranch but it takes a whole day to come to town.

A heavy hail storm passed this way last Saturday and threshed all the oats on the Gregory ranch before it was cut. The storm also struck Ed Horner's and S. Trussell's ranches doing lots of damage.

Another homesteader in Dawes Co. Last Friday morning a young man appeared at the home of Tom Baucks and wished to be located on one of the best sections in Dawes county, but he not being of age, will have to wait 21 years before he can take a claim. He is a handsome fellow and weighs six pounds.

Hashman Notes.

Mr. Loer was threshing the fore part of the week.

George Key was seen taking some cattle to town Monday.
