

Our FALL STOCK

is all in now and we never had a more complete line.

Durable Comfortable
Dressy

Coupled with Moderate Prices
Will make them popular with all

Alliance Cash Shoe Store

E.P. REED & Co
ROCHESTER N. Y.

CHAS. C. STREET

ALLIANCE, NEBEASKA

Traveling Agent in Box Butte county for

J. R. Watkin's Celebrated Household Remedies

Poultry and Stock Tonic

Flavoring Extracts, Ground Spices

Toilet Articles, Soaps and Perfumes

The Old Reliable
Hardware, Harness and Implement Firm

In order to make room for new goods will make special prices on

Buggies, Spring and Farm Wagons

Agent for the well known Deering Hay Tools and Harvesters and J. I. Case Threshing Machines.

In HARNESS—My motto: "How Good; Not, How Cheap."

Anton Uhrig

LEMINGFORD, NEBR.

Will be a Grand Success

From The Crawford Courier:

Earl D. Mallery, the hustling secretary of the Box Butte County Fair, which will be held in Alliance on the 28th, 29th and 30th of this month, was in the city Wednesday enroute to Chadron. This is the first attempt of our sister city to have a county fair, and judging from the large number of premiums offered and the excellent program they have prepared for the occasion, it promises to be a grand success.

Carey-Brennan.

From the Toronto Globe:

A very quiet wedding was solemnized in St. Patrick's church, Southampton, Wednesday, Sept. 8th, at 8 a. m., when Madeleine, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Carey, was united in marriage to Frank J. Brennan, of Alliance, Nebr., Rev. Father Padden, of Walkerton, officiating.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a travelling suit of Havana broadcloth with hat to match, and carried a large bouquet of bride roses. Miss Babe Carey assisted the bride, and Mr. Fred Carey, of Cleveland, Ohio, was best man. The wedding march was played by Mr. Raynor, violinist, accompanied by Miss May Carey.

After the ceremony a dainty dejeuner was served at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Brennan left on the morning train for eastern points, and will be at home in Alliance, Nebr., after October 1st.

High Price for Range Cattle.

Frank Currie of Gordon, Nebr., and Charles Tulley of Alliance, topped the market on range cattle at the South Omaha market Friday.

A consignment of range cows marketed by them brought $4.50, the highest price paid for range stuff within the year. The price exceeded that of several lots of domestic heifers offered on the same market.—Omaha Daily News, Sept. 18.

Married.

At the Baptist parsonage, Sept. 17, 1909, occurred the marriage of two estimable young people of Alliance, Mr. Walter Cochran and Miss Alta Ames, Rev. J. C. Huston officiating. They were accompanied by Freeman Cronn and Miss Mary Neifield as witnesses. The Herald extends congratulations and good wishes.

NORTON'S

STORE FULL
NEW GOODS

We have just returned from market, and you will now find our large sales rooms stocked from floor to ceiling with merchandise of that high quality which has gained for this store the reputation of handling nothing but the best. This season's showing in each department is by far the greatest and grandest that we have ever been able to offer you, and we are pleased to invite you to inspect, as we feel sure that you will find here just what you are looking for.

ON SEPTEMBER 28, 29, 30

SEPTEMBER 30
is the important day for the little girls . .

The great biscuit baking contest for little girls will be held at our store in the afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. The contest is open to all little girls of fourteen years or under, and the "Buck's" Junior Range will go to her who bakes the best pan of biscuits.

The following ladies will act as judges: Mrs. John Elmore, Mrs. I. E. Tash, Mrs. Wills.

The awards will be made under a system of numbering which will insure fairness to all. See the stove in our window.

Little girls be on hand sharply at 2:00 o'clock, and if possible, BRING A WHITE APRON WITH YOU. We furnish all other materials.

a representative of the Buck Stove Co. will be at our store and demonstrate the Buck Hot Blast Heaters and Ranges. On September 30th at 10:30 a.
m. we will give away a $35.00 Hot Blast Heater.

Call at our store for particulars

Miller Brothers
ALLIANCE, NEB.