

WRIGHT TRIUMPHS

Pilots Aeroplane High Above Warships in Hudson River.

COVERS DISTANCE OF 20 MILES

Airship Circles Grant's Tomb and Returns Safely to Starting Point on Governor's Island After Remaining in the Air Thirty-three Minutes and Thirty-three Seconds—Machine Under Perfect Control.

New York, Oct. 5.—An aeroplane flashed around the white dome of Grant's tomb, then turning gracefully in midair, over the waters of the Hudson, shot like a falcon back to Governor's island, ten miles away. Wilbur Wright of Dayton, O., thus placed his name in the rank with Hudson and Fulton in one of the most spectacular feats in the history of aeronautics.

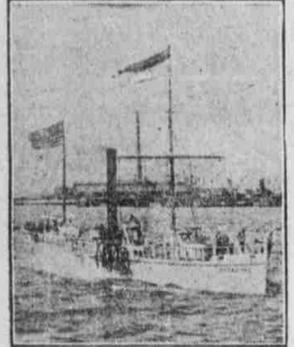

Over the masses of warships, from whose decks the hoarse cheers of the sailors were borne up to him in his elevated seat, he flew for twenty miles—ten miles up and ten miles back—remaining in the air for 33 minutes and 33 seconds and alighting at the aerodrome without mishap.

During the flight business was practically at a standstill in all that part of Manhattan from which a view of his remarkable performance was available. Harbor craft shrieked their applause, cheer after cheer swept up from the banks of the Hudson and the lower bay, for the Dayton aviator had "made good," crowning the aviation program of the Hudson-Fulton celebration with a record.

GERMANS HIT PROHIBITION

Forty-two States Represented at Meeting of National Alliance.

Cincinnati, Oct. 4.—With delegates representing forty-two states present, the National German alliance was formally welcomed to Cincinnati. Dr. C. J. Haximer of Philadelphia, president of the alliance, responded.

In his address, President Haximer said, in part: "As devoted citizens of this country we hold ourselves second to none in devotion to the cause of true temperance and to all that makes for the sanctity of the home and decency and order in the state, but we are bitterly opposed to the passage of any law that destroys our right of national liberty. As free people, we believe we have the right to regulate our lives as we see fit. The right to drink our wine and our beer we consider as absolute an attribute of human liberty as is the right to buy any other food.

"The divine right of each to pursue his own good in his own way should not be sacrificed to the fears and the fanaticism of those who regard, or pretend to regard, drink as a crime. We regard prohibition as an unrighteous invasion of our manhood rights and of human freedom.

"The strongest plea that can be put forward for the mildest form of prohibition—local option—is that it enables a fanatical majority to lord over a liberal minded people. Let us hope that the spirit of liberty and American fair play will soon cause a reaction against the wave of fanaticism that is now spreading over our land."
