Notice to School Boards

Lincoln, Nebr., Oct. 1, 1909.
To All Boards of Education in Nebraska.

Ladies and Gentlemen:
Permit me to call your attention to the Nebraska State Teachers' Association, which convenes in Lincoln, Nov. 3, 4, 5, 1909. The best program ever given in the history of the Association has been prepared. Educators of state and national reputation will take part in the deliberations. Men and women of affairs will discuss the problems of our public school system. Questions that concern the life of the nation and the destiny of the republic will be expounded by such leaders as Booker T. Washington. These are some of the great questions that will command attention. But the every day responsibility of country teachers, and of town and city teachers will receive earnest consideration. The every day problems that confront rural school officers, town and city boards of education, high school principals, city and county superintendents will be the things of greatest importance on this program. These are questions which should concern you as much as they do the men and women themselves.

In some states the law makes it mandatory upon boards of education to have their teachers attend the Association and Institutes at the expense of the school district. I am not suggesting that you pay the expenses of your teachers to this meeting. All that I would suggest is that you grant all teachers who desire to attend leave of absence so to do on full pay without requiring them to make up the time so used. They will come back to you with broader vision, better methods, more cheerful disposition, sanner and stronger discipline, and will be an inspiration to every boy and girl in the school. Therefore, from the standpoint of enlightened selfishness, if for no other reason, you cannot afford to keep your teachers away from this great educational gathering.

Furthermore, since this Association will give anxious thought to so many problems of interest to boards of education, I most earnestly recommend that so far as possible, school officers attend and I make the suggestion that every board of education in Nebraska send one of its members at the expense of its district to this Association. A special program has been prepared, adapted to the wants and needs of school officers. The questions that will come before you under the free high school law and under the law governing normal training in high school make it almost imperative that each board of education send at least one representative to this school board meeting. Here you will meet the Hon. E. C. Bishop, state superintendent of public instruction, who will be glad to answer all questions on which you may desire authoritative information; for his word is law until reversed by the court.

And to all of you, let me extend a most cordial invitation to visit the University of Nebraska on this occasion. It will be running at full blast then. It is your school. You are of those who pay taxes for its support. It belongs to you. You have a right to know how it is managed. Come and see for yourself.

Hoping that you will have the best schools this year in their history, I remain
Very truly yours,
S. AVERY, chancellor.

Lecture Course

The Lecture Course for this season is the strongest ever offered to Alliance people. There will be three musical numbers as follows:

The Five Stars Concert Company, five young ladies, whose program will consist of vocal and instrumental music, reading, and will close with a college girl's farce. This company is making many return dates and are everywhere greatly appreciated.

The Trox-Eile Male Quartette will furnish an entertainment. These gentlemen have been traveling together for four years without a change in the personnel.

The Georgia Jubilee Singers have been secured as the third musical attraction.

The Perry Carter Company, cartoonist, will be with us and give an exhibition of the work of a cartoonist. Mr. Carter is one of the most noted cartoonists in America. His wife accompanies him. Mrs. Carter is an excellent soloist and Mr. Carter illustrates many of her selections while she sings. This will be the first number and will occur Oct. 29th.

Gen. S. T. Sweeny will deliver the lecture of the course. He comes highly recommended to us, and has been heard by a number of our citizens, all of whom recommend him very highly. One of our leading citizens said, "He is the most eloquent lecturer I ever heard."

Tickets are the same as in past seasons, $1.50 for the course. The tickets are transferable, may be used in a single entertainment by five persons or by one for the entire course. Another feature has been introduced, to holders of season tickets desiring it, additional admissions in any number will be furnished at the same rate of the season ticket, so that should patrons of the course desire to take friends they may do so at the same price of their admission.

The city will be canvassed next week when tickets will be delivered. We have not secured as many pledges for tickets as we should and will be glad to furnish tickets to any who have not been seen. Call or phone to Baptist parsonage.

Operator Cain of McCook, who has been acting as night wire chief for sometime, was called home Tuesday, owing to the illness of Mrs. Cain. Harry Bennett has taken his place on the moonlight trick.

No. 306 had a car jump the track near Angola Sunday morning, delaying No. 302 pretty badly. The derrick was sent down from here to clear the track, which did not take long after they got to work at it.

RAILWAY NOTES AND PERSONALS.

Mr. Bracken is making an inspection trip in the Big Horn Basin.

Dispatcher Bill Mosher took a couple days' lay off and proceeded to the sandhills to scare the ducks. He got back.

Miss Florence Gregory of Cody, Wyo., is visiting her brother, Archie Gregory, and family.

Conductor Dick Kenner is laying off and Jim Armour, the extra passenger conductor, has again been put in freight service and has the former's car.

Armour, extra east, derailed a couple of cars at Whitman Monday night, but aside from a small delay to a few freight trains no damage was done.

The double heading of No. 41 with a small engine has not brought the results that were expected and the "K 2" engine has been brought to Alliance and a larger engine of the "K 4" class has been sent to Ravenna for the same purpose.

Carpenter Sledges has been laying off with a mashed thumb.

Brakeman Jack Burke received a bad cut in the face, caused by his train making a short stop.

Engineer H. J. Pomeroy has been transferred from the east end to the main line out of Alliance.

The FROST IS ON THE PUMPKIN
