

WILL GIVE MILLION

Lady Cook Willing to Part With Fortune in Suffragette Cause.

TELLS OF PLANS FOR CAMPAIGN.

Given Enthusiastic Welcomes on Her Arrival in New York—Says She Has More Faith in President Taft Than in His Predecessor—Will Go to Washington and Have It Out With Nation's Chief.

New York, Oct. 19.—No mere financier or politician or explorer ever received a welcome that could hold a candle to the one the American suffragettes got up for Lady Cook, formerly Miss Tennessee Claflin, who was a passenger on the liner Celtic, which arrived here.

It seemed, indeed, as if every passenger on the Celtic was a suffragette sympathizer. The crowd on deck got so excited over "The Star Spangled Banner" and "Dixie" and "There'll Be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight," that they cheered and the crowd on the dock, who had come down to say now do you do to personal friends, joined in the shouts of the suffragettes. A squad of deputy surveyors and inspectors escorted Lady Cook down the gang plank and a roar of enthusiasm burst forth. The executive committee of the National Progressive union escorted Lady Cook to a taxicab and started immediately for headquarters.

The rooms of the union and the entrance to the house had been elaborately decorated with messages of welcome in red and white.

After ten minutes of work on the part of the cameras, a reception was held. Then Lady Cook told a little about her plans for the coming campaign. "I have more faith in President Taft than I had in his predecessor," she said. "He doesn't think that he is the only important thing in the country, and he has a bright mind. I think he will listen to reason and that he realizes that the time has come when the women of America must be reckoned with. I will not beat about the bush any longer but go to Washington and have it out with him. I shall probably take a house there in December, and shall start a campaign similar to the one that my sister and I carried on in the 70s. I am going to devote my life and my fortune to helping women to win the ballot, and I am not going to stop at anything that I think will further my aim. I intend to spend $1,000,000 on the election of congress."

PRESIDENTS MEET

Taft and Diaz Clasp Hands at El Paso, Tex.

CEREMONIES ARE IMPRESSIVE

Flare of Trumpets and Boom of Cannon Announce Event to People. Mexican Executive is First Man to Speak—Taft Begins Four Days' Visit With His Brother on Ranch Near Corpus Christi, Tex.

Gregory, Tex., Oct. 19.—A wildcat hunt, a day's tarpon fishing, motor boating, jackrabbit chasing and golf are a few of the diversions in which President Taft is expected to indulge in in the course of his four days' rest at his brother's big ranch here.

The president arrived here at 9:30 last night and will devote the next four days to having a good time.

Falls City got the first presidential baby kiss of the Taft trip. The president had managed to cover about 8,000 of the 13,000 miles of his jaunt without kissing a single kid, but at Falls City he was cornered. Mrs. E. S. Wolsey passed her four-months-old baby up over the rear platform railing and the president took it in his arms. Having surrendered to that extent, there was no escape, with all of Falls City cheering, and the president planted a generous kiss on the child's cheek. What evidence is needed of Taft's candidacy for re-election?

Presidents Meet at El Paso.

The long-expected meeting between President Taft and President Diaz of Mexico occurred at El Paso, Tex., Saturday. Outwardly it was attended with a display of soldiery, a flare of trumpets, a boom of cannon and a pomp of ceremony suggestive of supreme authority, but in the actual hand clasp of the two executives and in the exchange of courteous words which passed from lip to lip, there was simple but cordial informality. President Diaz was the first to speak. He assured President Taft of his warm personal regard. President Taft, in simple American fashion, declared he was glad to meet President Diaz. Both dwelt upon the cordiality of the relations existing between the United States and Mexico.

In the custom house at Juarez President Diaz received a return call from President Taft and again late in the evening entertained the American president at a state banquet.
