

"The Man on the Box"

This play is a delightful comedy drama of a refined order in which nothing but high class acting is introduced. Those expecting to see the usual cheap "horse play" common to comedy dramas, will be disappointed if they expect anything of the kind in "The Man on the Box." This is a play for people capable of distinguishing genuine comedy from cheap "horse play." The indications are that the house is going to be crowded, for no person having read the book or heard of it will miss this performance. Any person unable to grasp the many laughable and humorous situations in this play must be a person of dull wits. People desirous of seeing this great play can prepare to dress up in their best and expect an audience that will be a credit to any theatre in the country. Tickets will be placed on sale beginning Saturday morning and tickets for every seat in the house will be in the ticket box to give all a fair and equal chance for selecting seats. First row in the house will be $1.50. Last four rows will be 75 cents and balance of the lower floor will be $1.00. Gallery will be 50 cents.

W. C. T. U. Notes

The regular semi-monthly meeting was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Zehring. There was a good attendance, and an interesting program in charge of Mrs. McCorke was carried out. Two recitations by Stella Parker and Margaret Zehring were nicely rendered; also two piano solos by Miss Lunette Zehring.

A paper on Domestic Science was read by Mrs. Kuhn which was followed by a general discussion of the same. Also receipts of different kinds were given and their "make-up" discussed, the ladies thoroughly enjoying the information gained in this culinary love-feast.

The meeting on the last Tuesday of November is to be held at the home of Mrs. Kuhn.

Pardey-Huff.

On Wednesday morning, November 3d, at nine o'clock, the Rev. Ambrose McVey, pastor of the Methodist church, pronounced the words that bound the lives of Miss Belle Huff of Fullerton and Mr. Harold Pardey of Alliance together, at the pleasant home of the parents of the bride in Fullerton.

Following the ceremony those witnessing the service were seated at a very pretty wedding breakfast, and included the relatives of the happy couple and intimate friends who rejoiced with them in the joy of the event. The dining room was cheerfully decorated in colors, yellow and white, with cut flowers in profusion.

The bride has many friends in Alliance, having made her home here for a period of three years, during which time she held the position of teacher in one of our public schools. During the last two years she has been in the employ of the high school at Fullerton, and has many friends in that city. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin H. Huff, well known in that city.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pardey, who have long been residents of Alliance, and Harold has grown to manhood in this community. He, too, has a host of friends who are sincere in their congratulations in wishing him and his estimable bride all the joys and happiness in store for the happily married. They will be at home to their friends after December 1st at 142 West Montana street.
