Called Home

It is with sadness that we chronicle the death of Edward, the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Newberry, which sad event occurred on Sunday morning, following an illness of only three days.

This is the second child whom they have been called upon to part with within the past four months, the other being an infant son.

The grief-stricken parents have the sincere sympathy of their many friends.

The funeral was held Tuesday forenoon at Holy Rosary church, conducted by Rev. Fr. McNamara, who spoke beautifully but with pathos of the bereavement which has come to the afflicted family, and of the high esteem in which they are held and the sympathy extended to them.

Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. Four little boys, Richard Kniest, Everett O'Keefe, Frank Buechstein and John Nolan acted as pall bearers of the beautiful white casket that contained the remains of the precious little one.

New City Directory

Some time since the manager of The Herald employed a canvasser to prepare the data necessary for a new city directory of Alliance. It was our in-attention to get out this directory during the summer, but orders being received for an unexpectedly large amount of job printing, together with the fact that we were unable to secure at that time all the help that we needed, made it necessary to defer the matter. We wish to state now that arrangements have been made with Messrs. L. H. Brown and S. Warren Carusi to recanvass the city at once and compile lists of names for a directory which will be published in a short time. The plan is to get out and publish a directory in loose leaf form which will make it possible to revise it frequently without cost to the owners of the books, and also to insert directories of about ten other towns in this part of the state. Further explanation will be made later.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the illness and burial of our dearly beloved one, John A. Wilson.

Mrs. JOHN A. WILSON.
Miss EVA WILSON.
Hiram WILSON.
CHARLIE WILSON.
Miss ALICE WILSON.
Mrs. LAURA SHAW.

Gray & Guthrie, Alliance's live insurance men, have purchased a Reo automobile of the runabout type and will now have traveling facilities in keeping with their extensive business.

Mrs. C. C. Smith accompanied her daughter, Miss Beulah, to Omaha Monday for medical examination. The physicians there pronounce her case double curvature of the spine.

G. W. Leake returned last Thursday from an extended trip through Wyoming. He has been troubled with defective hearing and found his stay in the mountain state quite beneficial.

We are pleased to note the establishment of an up-to-date candy kitchen in Alliance by our friend, Harry Johnson. He has secured a good location first door south of the Charters Hotel and will conduct his business in a style that will be a credit to the city. We dare say that this will be the best place in this part of the west to secure home made confections and sweet meats. Notice his advertisement in another part of this paper.

George Mushi, the hot tomale man, had the misfortune of slipping on the icy sidewalk a few days ago and fell, breaking an arm, but continues in business, carrying the broken arm in a sling.

On Thursday evening of this week the foot ball team will give a dance, proceeds to be used for the expense of getting the Havelock team here to play Thanksgiving. A large attendance is desired.

Mrs. Lee Acheson returned Saturday of last week from Kirksville, Mo., where she has been the past six weeks, four weeks of the time being spent in the O. S. A. hospital, and the balance of the time visiting with Dr. Frey, formerly of this city, and other friends.

A change has been made in assistant pastors of the Catholic churches at Alliance and Sidney. Father Cavanaugh goes to Sidney and his place here is taken by Father Felby of St. Peter's church, Omaha, Neb., who will arrive in Alliance some time this week.

At eight o'clock last Thursday evening the third battalion of the U. S. Infantry under Col. Davidson passed through Alliance enroute to Fort McKenzie at Sheridan, Wyo., and at one o'clock the next morning the second battalion followed them. Both battalions have just returned from service in the Philippines.

As previously mentioned in The Herald, F. J. Brennan will remove his drug store to the corner room of the new Rumer block about the first of the year. L. W. Bolte, the jeweler, will also occupy the same room with an elegant stock of watches and jewelry.

Miss Agnes Elmore entertained a dinner party last Sunday, the guests being the Misses Virgil Cavan, Ruth Morris and Ethel Miller and Messrs. Harry Bruce, Dwight Zediker and James Elmore. Miss Agnes' mother, Mrs. John Elmore, served an elegant eight course dinner.

Miss Josie O'Donnell returned from Sidney last Saturday accompanied by Miss Fanny Bergman. The next day they left for Denver where Miss O'Donnell will finish the season as trimmer with one of that city's millinery establishments. Miss Bergman will visit there a few days and return to her home at Sidney.

Perhaps the happiest family in town today is that of ex-Mayor Louis Buechstein. Not only is Louie and his estimable family enjoying a royal feast of turkey, but the stork dropped down into the Buechstein home Tuesday evening and left the sweetest girl baby in all the world—and now ex-baby Louis jr. has his nose out of joint.

A. T. Ross, the expert piano tuner of Denver, notice of whose coming to Alliance to tune pianos was given in The Herald, has been employed permanently by the Bennett Piano Co., and will make this city his headquarters and home. His wife arrived last Thursday and has received a cordial welcome from the ladies of Alliance.

P. J. Knapp sold four thoroughbred pigs for good prices at the sale at the Palace Livery barn, November 6th, and last Saturday received by express from Madison, Nebr., a registered male pig, the same being from the Ash Grove herd of O. A. Sunderman. Mr. Knapp says he has learned that it does not cost as much to raise good stock as it does poor, and is doing his best to educate other farmers up to the same fact.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Shollenberger of Butte, Mont., left that city October 20th for a trip to Philadelphia via Lincoln, Omaha, St. Louis, Chicago and Pittsburg on a wager, so it is claimed, of $1,000 that they could not reach the quaker city, traveling over the route mentioned and by this mode of travel, by the 15th of next August. They arrived in Alliance Monday evening, and, calling at The Herald office to have some printing done, informed us that they were enjoying their trip and seemed confident of winning the wager.

An editorial in last week's Herald in regard to hypnotism was not intended as a reflection upon any local entertainments that have been given in Alliance recently. In fact it was written without any reference to or thought of the same. The sentiments expressed, however, we believe are correct, but it would probably be more agreeable to change the wording somewhat. Instead of calling traveling showmen, who practice hypnotism, "mountebanks" it might sound better to call them amateurs. With this change and with the above explanation we wish to let the editorial referred to pass for what it was worth.

Resignation of Division Superintendent Birdsell

We are always pleased to learn of the prosperity of deserving persons, but sometimes prosperity brings about changes that are not desired by the friends of the parties making the change. Such is the case of Division Superintendent J. C. Birdsell. His large and increasing business interests at Edgemont, S. D., where he owns the most of the township and several irrigated farms near by, demand his entire time and attention; consequently he has tendered his resignation as division superintendent, the same to take effect December 1st.

Mr. Birdsell has been in the employ of the Burlington railway company for thirty years, having begun his service as foreman of a bridge gang, afterwards serving as brakeman, conductor, trainmaster, assistant superintendent and superintendent. During their residence in Alliance, they have made many friends who sincerely regret to see them leave.

Mr. W. M. Weidenhamer, from the Sterling division will take Mr. Birdsell's place here and F. G. Robbins, assistant superintendent at Galesburg, will take Mr. Weidenhamer's place at Sterling. Mr. Weidenhamer has been division superintendent at Sterling the past year and a half, previous to that being trainmaster at McCook. Mr. Robbins was trainmaster at Sheridan before going to Galesburg.

Obituary Telling of the Death of Miss Nellie Allen

Nellie Margaret Allen was born in Colorado Nov. 17, 1891, and died in Alliance, Neb., Nov. 18, 1909, aged eighteen years, one day. She was converted to God and joined the Baptist church at Boulder, Colo., in 1891. In 1904 she came with her parents to this city where she united with the Methodist Episcopal church in whose fellowship she lived until her decease. Her last moments were spent in prayer, and in its atmosphere she passed into the presence of Him to whom the voice of penitent prayer is sweetest music. That she had many appreciative friends is attested by the large attendance at the funeral obsequies, which occurred at the M. E. church at 2 p. m., Sunday, Nov. 21, 1909. Interment was at Greenwood cemetery where she was laid to rest in the presence of loved ones, who confidently expect to meet her in glory.

It is gratifying to know that in the celestial home criticisms, cold and cruel, carping and unjust, are never uttered; the venomous tongue of the slanderous gossip never heard.

The bereaved ones may be assured of the tender regards of many who "weep with them," as they mourn the departure of their loved one, and "rejoice with them" as they rejoice at the thought of her final coronation.

J. L. VALLOW,
Pastor M. E. church.

Any Name Would Do.

A dignified gentleman was trying to read in a crowded railroad train. Among the passengers was a lady with a sprightly little blue eyed girl with golden hair and an inquisitive tongue. She asked the dignified gentleman numerous questions, played with his watch chain and endeavored to determine by means of the buttons on his waistcoat whether he was a rich man, poor man, beggar man or thief.

The mother fairly beamed upon him. He was becoming nervous, and turning to the lady, said:

"Madam, what do you call this sweet little child?"

"Ethel," replied the mother with a smile.

"Please call her, then."—"Everybody's."

"Locked In."

The intoxicated individual who, after bumping into the same tree thirteen times, bemoaned the fact that he was lost in an impenetrable forest, is no greater disgrace to modern civilization than the hero of this story:

A citizen of Seattle who had looked upon the wine when he was no longer sure what color it was, in the course of his journey home encountered a tree protected by an iron tree guard. Grasping the bars, he cautiously felt his way around it twice. "Curse it!" he moaned, sinking to the ground in despair. "Locked in!"—"Everybody's."

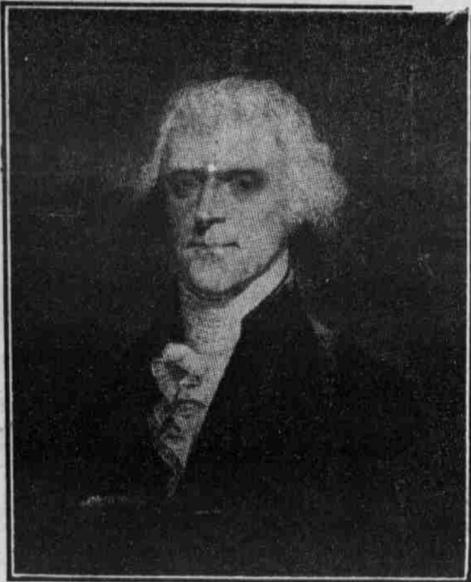

CHRISTMAS PAINTING.—Will take orders for hand painted pillows, any design, finished with back and cord, $3.00 each. Lodge pillows a specialty. Mrs. Zehrung, Phone 287.

Hits the Nail Right on the Head

HON. NORMAN E. MACK,
Buffalo, N. Y.

Dear Sir:—I herewith enclose you my check and ask my name to be enrolled as a regular subscriber to your National Monthly. I have just finished examining the first number. It is a publication of stupendous merit, and it will exert a great influence for good in our country. It ranks with the best magazines that are printed in all respects, and its genuine Democracy gives it distinctive superiority. It will succeed for the Democracy is not dead, but very much alive. It will help save the country from capitalistic greed on the one hand and from the dangers of socialism and anarchism on the other. I am heart and soul with you in your new enterprise. Yours truly,
FRED J. KERN,
Mayor of the City of Belleville, Ill.
