Normal School Fiasco

Within the last week the people of western Nebraska have learned, if they did not previously know, that in a contest between logic and politics, logic will get worsted—if the decision of the contest is left to the politicians. In the decision of the State Board of Education to locate the western Nebraska normal school at Chadron is found another strong argument in favor of permitting the people to vote directly upon questions affecting their interests. We sincerely believe that if the question of location could have been submitted to the electors of the entire state, unbiased by partisan prejudice, and with a correct representation of this part of the state placed before them, as between Alliance and Chadron, the decision would have been practically unanimous in favor of Alliance.

There were some reasons, or we will say, there was one reason favorable to Crawford, namely, its railroad facilities; but there was absolutely no good reason so far as we have been able to learn for locating at Chadron. We will say frankly that, in the early part of the campaign for the location of the school, that Crawford was the only town we feared; but later we learned that the campaign to defeat Alliance was in the hands of the politicians and that they were combining on Chadron. In last week's Herald we referred to a boast that at least one Chadron politician made, and that was that they had a "trump card to play at the right time" and were sure of getting the school, etc. And notwithstanding all this, our opinion of the State Board of Education, as a whole, was such that we did not believe a majority of its members would accede to the cut and dried plans of political hacks.

We are not sore merely because Alliance was not designated. If this were a matter of no interest except to the towns contending for the location, we would not say much about it; but the people of these towns are only a small part of the whole number interested. The object of locating a state normal school in western Nebraska ought to be to give normal training facilities to the largest number possible of Nebraska people; but in locating such a state school at Chadron, we feel that western Nebraska has been outraged. But the end is not yet. "There's many a slip, 'twixt the cup and the lip." We shall see what we shall see. Wait for the next act.

Returns to Blackfoot

Frank Potmesil has returned to Blackfoot, Idaho, after a few weeks' visit with relatives and other friends in Box Butte county. Frank expressed himself as well pleased with the Snake river country in Idaho, but does not wish to let go entirely of western Nebraska. While here he traded with Lloyd Thomas for the residence property on West Wyoming avenue, between Laramie and Cheyenne avenues, now occupied by H. P. Coursey. It would not surprise us to see him occupying this himself some day in the not greatly distant future, but that's guessing.

The Herald will keep Frank posted as to Alliance and Box Butte county doings.

A Dancing Party

The Ladies' Guild will give a dancing party at Phelan's opera house Wednesday Jan. 19, '10. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Joy's orchestra will furnish the music. Tickets, $1.00.

Hewitt-Cadwalader

A pretty wedding occurred Jan. 8, 1910, at high noon, at the home of Earl W. Hewitt, a brother of the groom, at 315 Yellowstone avenue, the contracting parties being Mr. Chas. N. Hewitt of Mead, Ill., and Miss Winifred Cadwalader of Marsland, Rev. A. L. Godfrey tying the nuptial knot. The groom is in the employ of the C. B. & Q. railroad and we understand the young couple will make their home in our city.

N. S. V. F. D.

On next Monday the Alliance fire boys, ten in number, leave for the annual convention of the Nebraska State Volunteer Fire Departments, which is to be held this year at Fremont, Jan. 18-20.

The delegates of 1908, who were W. O. Barnes, W. S. Ridgell, C. F. Brunell and J. W. Guthrie, and of 1909, F. D. McCormick, Geo. Snyder and J. R. Baskins, are already members of the state association by virtue of their having been delegates. Their number is reinforced this year by the election of M. O. New, Louis Luft and Elbert Laing.

The boys go loaded with badges, etc., expecting to make a pull for the convention to be held next year at the metropolis of western Nebraska.

Thiele-Hawkins.

Two of the best known young people of Alliance were united in the happy bonds of wedlock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. W. Crane, at Creston, Iowa, when Rev. C. S. Stryker, at 9:30 a. m., on Monday, January 10, 1910, declared Mr. Harry F. Thiele and Miss Gertrude Hawkins to be husband and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Thiele are on a wedding tour in the east. They are expected in Alliance next week, and will be given a most cordial welcome by their host of friends. The Herald extends sincerest congratulations and best wishes.

Ladies' Aid Meeting

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church met with Mrs. Davenport Wednesday afternoon. About thirty-five ladies called during the afternoon and enjoyed hugely the hospitality of the Davenport home. This department of the church is in a flourishing condition and expects this year to be a banner one. The ladies of the church and congregation who do not belong are invited to join our membership.

Post-Younklin.

An important news item which we failed to get last week was the wedding of Mr. Geo. B. Post and Miss Florence Younklin, which took place on Wednesday, Jan. 5th, Judge L. A. Berry officiating. The first information which we had of the happy event was an order for printing announcements, and worded as follows: "Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Younklin announce the marriage of their daughter Florence to Mr. Geo. B. Post, January 5, 1910. At home at Hotel Alliance after Jan. 12th." The Herald extends congratulations and best wishes.

I. O. O. F. Installation at Hemingford.

A company of Alliance Oddfellows, headed by Dr. H. H. Bellwood, District Deputy Grand Master, went to Hemingford on 43 yesterday to attend and participate in the installation of officers of the Hemingford lodge I. O. O. F. The other members of the company were S. A. Franklin, Gregory Zurn, J. B. Denton, F. W. Buchman, Chas. Brinkman, M. E. Grebe, T. M. Lawler, Joe Sexton, E. I. Gregg, E. D. Henry, T. M. Watkins, Ed Martin, H. G. Castle, H. W. Beach and A. S. Mote. They returned on 36 this morning.

Taken to the Pen

Sheriff Cox left on 44 Tuesday for Lincoln, having in custody Charles Craig and Oscar H. Herring, self-confessed forgers, whom he was taking to the penitentiary. Herring was charged with raising the amount of a C. B. & Q. time check, and Craig with raising a check on F. H. Nason. At a special term of court, held in Alliance by Judge Westover last Saturday, both plead guilty and were given a year each to work for the state.

Zach-Hassentab

At 9 o'clock last Monday morning, in Holy Rosary church, Alliance, Father McNamara united in the holy bonds of matrimony Mr. Emil Zach of Humphrey, Nebraska, and Miss Anna Hassentab, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hassentab of Alliance. Mr. and Mrs. Zach have left for Humphrey, near which town he has a fine farm on which they will make their home.

The Herald congratulates them on their life union, and wishes them much prosperity and happiness.

Gone to California

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Norton left today for an extended visit in California, going via Denver. They returned yesterday from Lincoln, where they were called last Sunday by the sad news of the death of Mr. Dan Butler, Mrs. Norton's brother.

It is their intention to stop awhile at Phoenix, Ariz., on their way to the sunset state. Without doubt they will find the mild climate of Arizona and southern California quite an agreeable change from the cold weather which we have been having in Nebraska this winter.

Greek Laborer Crushed to Death

As the big locomotive No. 2806 was backing down from the west end of the yards to couple onto train No. 43 yesterday, a Greek laborer was caught and crushed to death under the wheels of the tender. "Only a Greek," some one was heard to remark; but he was a human being. However much we may be opposed to the importation of cheap labor from Europe or other parts of the world; however much we may be opposed to placing the American ballot into the hands of the ignorant from other lands, who are unqualified to properly exercise the rights of citizenship in this country, our hearts ought to throb with sympathy for the unfortunate. Although untutored and uncultured, his interests were as dear to him as are those of the millionaire in his palace to him; his God-given life was as sacred as the life of a king on his throne. In the humble home, perhaps a hovel, in the far off land where remain the wife and two children, sorrow will be felt as keenly upon receiving the sad news as is ever felt in the homes of the great men of the world.

The editor of this paper believes that an educational qualification ought to be made a condition of suffrage so that the ignorant who are unqualified to properly exercise the rights of citizenship in this country, whether Greeks or of other nationality, might not stand on a political equality with intelligent American citizens; we believe, furthermore, that the immigration of cheap laborers ought to be restricted more than it is at present; and yet we say, God pity the man who can look with equanimity upon the suffering of the unfortunate and say: "It doesn't matter; he's only a Greek."

Since writing the above we learn that the name of the unfortunate man is Nicholas Lingus. A priest of the Greek Catholic church at Denver was wired to yesterday, and will conduct the funeral today in St. Matthew's Episcopal church, the use of which has been kindly tendered for that purpose.

Society Events in Alliance

Would not be up to-date if any lady should wish to entertain her most intimate, but ever critical, friends unless she has fine linens. Every lady wants them now days. Loucks sells them. H. A. LOUCKS.

Location—Old Libby Store.

Booze Will be Tagged

After January 1st, there can be no more shipments of liquors by express or freight without a label on the outside of the package stating exactly what the package contains, and it must be addressed to the person who bought it. Congress at the last session codified, revised and amended the penal laws of the United States, and January 1st was fixed as the date for the new code to go into effect.

A penalty of five thousand dollars and forfeiture of the liquor is imposed for violation of this provision of the code. The effect of this law will be to practically break up every blind tiger in dry territory. There will be no way to escape the law. In addition to the penalty against the shipper, there is also a heavy penalty against any railroad or other agent delivering such goods when not properly marked. There will be no way the keeper of a blind tiger can procure the liquor he sells, except from moonshine distilleries.

The arrival of liquor at the station in large quantities consigned to one person will be a dead give away, and it will be very easy to spot every blind tiger now running in dry territory.—Ex.

Our Continued Story

By a miscalculation, which sometimes occurs in a print shop, we are unable this week to give the regular installment of our continued story, "One Way of Love." It will appear next week and thereafter until finished.

W. C. T. U. Notes

The semi-monthly meeting held at the home of Mrs. Dr. Bowman Tuesday afternoon was very well attended, there being about twenty-five present.

The dozen year books, which were ordered at the state convention and which had just arrived, were quickly disposed of and it will probably be necessary to order a dozen and a half more.

Mrs. W. S. Acheson, who has so ably conducted the contest department, was forced to tender her resignation because of ill health. The vacancy thus caused was filled by the appointment of Mrs. Zehrung. It is expected that medal contests will be held in the near future.

After the disposal of necessary business, the remainder of the afternoon was given to the discussion of the subject of "Franchise" under the leadership of Mrs. C. N. Roup.

Following are subjects of some of the papers read, each of which elicited favorable comment:

"Twelve reasons why women want the ballot," by Mrs. Roup.

"Why women should be given the ballot," by Mrs. Tash.

"Why women do not want to vote," by Mrs. Campbell.

A plain talk, by Mrs. Bignell.

"The new spirit," by Mrs. Carr.

"How women's voting will tend to purify the ballot," by Mrs. Cornu.

The meeting was attended by the six members of the high school debating society who have places on the program for Thursday evening's contest, mentioned elsewhere in this paper. These young debaters were present for the purpose of taking notes and getting information on the subject under discussion.

It is an acknowledged fact that the W. C. T. U. has been one of the most potent factors in the education of the people on the question of temperance and there is still a great work to do. There are many open doors, let us not fail to enter them.

From Bridgeport News-Blade:

Cashier Mark Spangole of the Bridgeport bank was an Alliance visitor on Monday.

L. L. Stoner came over from Angola Tuesday night and spent Wednesday attending to business matters.
