A Strong Bank

The statement of THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK shows it to be a remarkably STRONG INSTITUTION.

Its strength lies not alone in its large capital, surplus and resources, but in the character and financial responsibility of the men who conduct its affairs.

Many Moves Made

The completion of the new Rumer Block is the occasion of the removal of a number of business stores. F. J. Brennan has moved from the rear of the First National Bank building to the corner room of the new block, and is getting the same fixed up so that it will be one of the finest drug stores in the west.

L. W. Bolte occupies the north side front of the same room with his up-to-date jewelry store.

Next Saturday Geo. A. Mollring will take charge of the north room, which extends the entire length of the building and also across the rear of the corner room, opening on Box Butte avenue and on Wyoming avenue. He will begin moving Saturday night and by the first of next week will be ready for business in his new location. All of the new fixtures that have been ordered for this room will not be here for some days yet, but that will not interfere with the transaction of business. When fully equipped this will no doubt be one of the finest dry goods stores in the west.

The triple room just vacated by Brennan, the druggist, will be separated by partitions into three rooms, each opening on Wyoming avenue. The Bennett Piano store has been moved into the middle room, and in charge of Mrs. J. T. Wiker. We call attention to her advertisement in another place in this paper.

The Bee Hive store, desiring more room and a location that will be more convenient for their trade, will move about March 1st into the room on Box Butte avenue to be vacated by the Mollring dry goods store. W. B. Parker has made a trip to Chicago, where he went to order a new stock of goods which will arrive in time to be installed at the time of moving into the new location.

There are other moves to be made about which we will tell our readers next week.

Sad News

Sheriff Cox left on 44 today for Fairbury, having received a dispatch conveying the sad news that his father died last evening at his home there. He goes to Grand Island, and thence over the St. J. & G. I. road to Fairbury. His father was possessed of a robust constitution, but was well advanced in years and for some has been ailing. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved friends.
