The Alliance Cash Shoe Store

THE artist purposely spelt that word "sole" wrong --hethought that another variation in spelling the word was necessary to impress on the public's mind the individuality of our shoes--the superb qualities and values we give in OUR footwear.

We give the soul of good workmanship and leather, in both the sole and uppers in OUR shoes.

Tragic Death of Switchman.
Life of a Young Burlington Employee Crushed Out Under Wheels of N. P. Flat Car.
 A terrible accident that sent terror to the hearts of all the railroad people in Alliance and left a widow and three fatherless children, occurred in the west end of the yards at 9:30 p. m. Feb. 27.
 Robert DeVoe was switching cars for an extra west, the pin litter on the car he was trying to cut off not working, he went in between the cars to pull the pin on the other car catching his foot in the guard rail and one pair of trucks of a flat car heavily loaded with steel rails ran over both legs crushing both above the knees. The poor fellow was conscious all the time. Although he was suffering terribly he thought only of his wife and children. He was carried by his fellow workers to the hospital and the company physician summoned but nothing could be done to save his life. His wife was sent for and was with him when he died. His last words to her were: "Honey, everything is growing dark for me."
 Mrs. DeVoe is a niece of our well known citizen, Mrs. Al Wiker. Miss

Susie Frazier, Mrs. G. J. Stnton, John and H. Frazier. She with her family of three children arrived on No. 43 Sunday from Galesburg, Ill., where she had been to pack her household goods preparatory to moving to Alliance.
 W. S. Hartman of Galesburg, a brother of Mrs. DeVoe, and his wife arrived on No. 41 Wednesday morning.
 Robert DeVoe was born in Galesburg, Ill., Sept. 29, 1881. After graduating from the public schools there he entered the employ of the Burlington. On New Years Day, 1901, he was married to Miss Myra Hartman of Galesburg and she with her three children two girls and a boy are left to mourn their loss.
 Robert DeVoe was an only child. His father is now a resident of California and owing to sickness will be unable to attend the funeral of his son. Mr. DeVoe was a member of the Masons, Eagles and the Switchmen's Union. The funeral was held from the Methodist church this afternoon.
Joe Smith Leases Brennan's Soda Fountain.
 Joe R. Smith the soda fountain expert, has leased the fountain at F. J. Brennan's pharmacy in the new Rumer block and opened for business last evening. Joe is an enthusiast in his line of business and his new position will give him ample opportunity to display his ability as a caterer. He has a host of friends in this city and located as he now is, will without doubt receive a big patronage.
Ex-Governor Hanley Coming
 Hon. Frank Hanley, ex-governor of Indiana, will deliver a lecture in the Phelan opera house on Saturday evening, March 12. His subject will be "The Irrepressible Conflict." This will afford the people of this part of the state a rare opportunity to hear a man with a national reputation as a platform orator. No doubt the opera house will be filled to overflowing, as it should be.
 That the Alliance ladies are having an enjoyable time will be seen by the following which was one of the most delightful occasions they have experienced for a long time.
 On Saturday afternoon about thirty ladies gathered at the comfortable home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beckwith the occasion being a "500" party given in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Jerry Rowan and Mrs. Lindley Ellis, both being prominent society ladies and favorites with all as the two beautiful presents presented to them by the ladies clearly show. At 5:45 the prizes were awarded, Mrs. R. H. Watkins won first prize a silver fruit fork, Mrs. Lindley Ellis won second a piece of cut glass--Elsie Betebenner's smiling face showed that she was well pleased with the booby prize, a dainty Japanese cup and saucer. In a few pleasant words Mrs. Beckwith presented each of the guests of honor with an elegant cut glass dish. Mrs. Beckwith and Mrs. A. E. Nelson were hostesses and while the ladies were enjoying the cards they had been preparing a banquet that in all its appointments, its delicacy and profusion, its variety and daintiness would do credit to a city caterer, and is seldom equalled by the best of them. When the banquet was finished the ladies made their adieus highly delighted with a social event that will long be remembered as a picture from life's sunny side.

 In our opinion no city in Nebraska has a more wide awake and up-to-date bill poster than has Alliance in the person of S. A. Miller. Si believes in advertising, not only for other people, but for himself as well and is having some stationery printed for "S. A. Miller Advertising Service." On the back of some envelopes, he is having printed the Herald's outline map of Nebraska showing its central location in the panhandle of the state which is, we think a good scheme in advertising this city. Other business men would do well to follow his example in this respect.
Public Sale
 I will sell at my place, one mile west of Alliance, beginning at one o'clock P. M., on MONDAY, MARCH 14 the following described property: 3 head horses, 2 sets harness, 5 head cattle (2 cows, 1 two-year-old steer and 2 yearling calves), 1 mower, 1 sulky plow, 1 walking plow, 1 breaking plow, 1 disc, 1 harrow, and other tools; also, 4 tons alfalfa hay and some straw.
