Grand Concert

At the Phelan opera house next Wednesday evening will be given a concert such as the people of this city rarely have an opportunity to hear. The music committee of the Methodist church have secured the director and professors of Nebraska Wesleyan Conservatory of Music for this occasion. The concert will consist of the rendition of piano, violin and vocal selections by Professors, Johannes Magendanz, Clemens Movius and Anton Stechele. Admission: Adults, 50 cents; Children, including High school and Academy students, 25 cents.

High School Declamatory Contest

The declamatory contest at the opera house last Friday night was well attended, indicating a good interest in the work of the high school. There were to have been fourteen contestants, owing to sickness Miss Helen Beeson could not be present, hence there were but thirteen who participated, as follows: Oratorical class, Herbert Nelson, Lura Vance; dramatic, Josephine Hampton, Ethel James, Minnie Reed, Fred Sweeney, Ralph Thomas, Elvira Williams and Tommy Woods; humorous, Knight Burris, Leone Mallery, Chas. Parker, Beulah Smith.

The winning contestants were, oratorical, Lura Vance, first; Herbert Nelson, second; dramatic, Ralph Thomas, first; Minnie Reed, second; humorous, Beulah Smith, first; Leone Mallery, second.

The judges were, Rev. D. Webster Davis of Crawford, Miss Gelia Chase of the Chadron high school, and Keith L. Pierce of Hemingford. Hon. W. W. Wood acted as referee. The contestants winning first place will represent Alliance at the district contest to be held at Bridgeport on Friday evening of this week.

Obituary.

A gloom of sadness settled over this community Tuesday morning when it was announced that Mrs. A. J. Kennedy had departed this life, although her demise was not unexpected.

Marie McMahon was her maiden name. She was born in Bay City Mich., October 25, 1880; married July 19, 1900, to Dr. A. J. Kennedy. Early last fall she showed symptoms of pulmonary tuberculosis. She came with her husband to Alliance, October 8th, and it was hoped that the change of climate would prove beneficial.

Mrs. Kennedy was of an affectionate disposition, bright and winning in her ways, so that friendship's circle to her was a large one. Although her stay in Alliance was of short duration, she had many friends here. Indeed, it may be said of her, "None knew her but to love her." She was a highly cultured young lady, being a graduate of St. Mary's Convent of Bay City, and was proficient as a pianist.

The remains were taken back to her Michigan home for burial, accompanied by her bereaved husband, Dr. A. J. Kennedy, and her mother, Mrs. McMahon.

The Herald realizes that words are inadequate to comfort sorrowing hearts in times like this. Nevertheless, we wish to give expression to the sympathy which we feel for the bereaved relatives and friends.

Stereopticon Lecture

There will be a stereopticon lecture at the United Presbyterian church on the evening of April 1st. Rev. A. L. Godfrey will deliver the lecture which will be on the subject of missions in Africa, particularly in the Sudan. The lecture will be illustrated by stereopticon views. Rev. A. F. Bundy will operate the stereopticon. Attraction will be added by the fact that the places spoken of and represented have recently been seen in the Roosevelt expedition. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody to attend.

New Real Estate Firm

The Alliance Land company is the name adopted for the transacting of real estate business by a new firm composed of Messrs. J. A. Hunter and W. M. Iodence. They have rented the southwest corner on the second floor of the Rumer block, one of the best locations, we think, in the city for their purpose.

We predict that this new firm will dispose of a large amount of Box Butte county soil the coming season. Mr. Hunter is thoroughly familiar with this country, he is well acquainted with the people and is a rustling business man. Mr. Iodence also has a practical knowledge of the soil and farming prospects of this county, which with his legal lore will make him a valuable member of a firm of this kind.

These gentlemen started out right by ordering a supply of printed matter from the Herald's job department.

The indications are that there will be an unusual large attendance at the opera house to hear the famous lecturer, "Seamus MacManus," in "Rollicking Ramble through Ireland."

Easter Monday Ball

The committee in charge of the ball to be given next Monday night at the Phelan opera house by the Knights of Columbus has been hard at work with the determination to make this event the most enjoyable of the year. It is no easy matter to eclipse the success of last year, but the committee believes it can promise to all attending next Monday night just a little bit the swellest affair that has happened in Alliance for some time.

Something About The Herald Piano

The Bennett Piano offered by the Herald in the contest now under way possibly represents the greatest value of any piano in the market today at the price. The Bennett Co., has long been known as the exponents of, and factors in the west for strictly high grade pianos. There is not a stenciled piano purchased and sold by them from the many factories today making and selling this class of piano.

The Bennett Co. piano is manufactured by Kohler & Campbell, the largest and one of the most distinguished piano manufacturers and interior player action makers in the world. Every Bennett Co. piano has the name of Kohler & Campbell, its manufacturers, cast in the plate. The piano to be given away to the successful contestant has already been ordered and will reach Alliance the early part of April, and will be on display in their store rooms, opposite the postoffice.

There is a great deal of interest manifested in the contest and we assure whoever is successful in securing this beautiful instrument that she will get a piano of which she can be proud, and one backed by a manufacturer who is second to none in the world; also backed by the Bennett Co., whose reputation for square dealing and whose financial standing in Nebraska and Wyoming is not questioned by any reputable person.

SOCIETY EVENTS OF THE WEEK

A large and enjoyable card party was given on Saturday evening at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Murray on Toluca avenue. Both ladies and gentlemen were present and were enough for five tables who passed the evening playing five hundred. Mr. Lindley Ellis won first prize, a handsome cut glass salt and pepper shaker. Mrs. Dick Waters claimed the second prize, a cut glass dish. By Mr. Wagner's skill with the cards he succeeded in winning the booby prize. A very dainty and delicious three-course lunch was served on the card tables. This is the first time Mr. and Mrs. Murray have entertained since making their home in Alliance, and they show by their hospitality that they are worthy of the welcome given them. The party was given in honor of Mr. Homer Murray who left Sunday morning for Lincoln where he will be a member of the Western league baseball team.

On Tuesday afternoon twelve ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Robert Birney to spend the afternoon playing "500." Mrs. Guy M. Richards of Grand Island was the guest of honor. At 5:30 eleven games had been played of which Mrs. Richards won ten. She was given a beautiful china pitcher. The consolation prize was awarded to Mrs. R. H. Watkins. One of those delicious, long-to-be-remembered lunches for which the hostess is famous, was served on the little tables. At six p. m. the ladies departed after assuring Mrs. Birney it was one of the most pleasant parties of the season.

Mrs. Nell Dietlein of Crawford was guest of honor at a party given by Mrs. U. N. Hoskins, on Wednesday afternoon. Twelve ladies enjoyed the hours from 2:30 to 5:30 with that popular game "500." When the scores were counted they were found to be very close. Mrs. A. E. Nelson and Mrs. Dietlein cut for one prize, the latter was successful. Mrs. R. E. Murray was another prize winner. The smiling faces of Mrs. Claude Lester and Mrs. Lindley Ellis showed that they were greatly pleased with the booby prizes. Mrs. Hoskins took her guests to one of the popular ice cream parlors for lunch.

On Saturday evening Mrs. A. E. Nelson entertained a few friends in honor of her guest, Miss Starr of Ravenna. It is needless to add that a pleasant evening was spent.

Reform Began

A number of boys from about eight to fourteen years of age that have been staying out of school and earning a little money were found shooting fire crackers and doing other things that were annoying to citizens of Alliance last Saturday and were arrested by the city marshal and taken before Judge Zurn for hearing. Some of them could probably have been sent to the reform school, but the judge did not consider this advisable at present, but gave them a ten days' jail sentence, the sentence being suspended on condition that they behave themselves, following the advice given to them in a good talk by the judge. This we suppose is a good beginning in a matter that has been too much neglected. We suggest that it be followed up with an enforcement of the compulsory education law.

HOSPITAL NOTES

K. Gotes is a new patient with us. Jim Carros, an inmate for a short time, left us last Thursday.

Mrs. Ashburger of Lakeside will undergo an operation today.

Mr. George, who recently suffered some broken ribs in the railroad yards, is an inmate. Miss Amy Hashman, who has been with us for medical aid a short time, left for home today.

T. L. Stewart, who was injured the same time Mr. Carros was, is recovering nicely and will soon be able to leave.

Tom Griffith left us last week for a thirty days' visit with his parents at Spencer, Ia., whom he had not visited for about four years.

Fred Eastham, who has been an inmate of the Alliance hospital since last January, left last week for a thirty days' visit with relatives at Ft. Scott, Kans.

Matron Riley was the recipient recently of visits from the following friends: Harry Brown and wife of Mumper, Mrs. C. E. May of Bridgeport, and Miss Ada Parkin, Hemingford.

Wm. H. Lunn, brother of A. T. Lunn, arrived in Alliance last Saturday. He is a professional piano tuner and has been with the Ross P. Curtis Co., Lincoln, for about three years, but has decided to remove to Alliance and make this city his home. He is prospecting this week, preparing to begin business here as a piano tuner. He will return to Lincoln the first of next week and, about April 1st, will come back to Alliance with his wife and three children. The Herald wishes to extend to them a cordial welcome which we are sure they will receive from the people of this city.

Joe Smith, the expert soda dispenser in charge of Brennan's sanitary fountain, informs the Herald scribe that he is receiving a fine patronage. He extends a cordial invitation to his many friends to meet him in his new place of business, and will as always serve them right.

J. W. Guthrie, the insurance man, is visiting his mother and friends at Carroll, Iowa, to which place he recently went from Minneapolis, where he had been assisting a brother in some business matters for about two months. He is expected in Alliance about Easter time.

It does not seem that this time of the year would be favorable for opening up in the coal business, especially with the kind of weather we have been having, but J. T. Carey informs us that he is already having a good trade.

We call attention to the ad of Otis & Bush, appearing in this issue of the Herald. Chas. Otis formerly resided here but went to Oklahoma about a year ago. He returned recently and has formed a partnership with R. Bush, who has been working here the last six months. They are contractors and builders, doing carpentering and giving special attention to cement work.

The Musical Committee of the M. E. Church are to be congratulated upon their success in securing the concert company for next Wednesday evening. The price for children has been placed at twenty-five cents so that every child studying music or showing musical talent may have the opportunity of attending this pleasing entertainment.

Dr. Bowman and family attended the Reed sale Monday.
