G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT

Fairbury Getting Ready for Reunion May 17.

Lincoln, May 3.-Captain A. M. Trimble, adjutant general of the Grand Army of the Republic, is of the opinion the coming encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic at Fairbury will be the most enjoyable of any ever held. His opinion is based on information he received from Fairbury regarding the work being done by the several committees which have the local arrangements in charge.

The encampment will be held May 17, 18 and 19. In the parade will be 1,000 school children, some from the city schools and others from the country schools. In addition, there will be a civic section, automobiles and floats. The committee expects to raise at least $1,500 to pay the local expenses and the chairman has written Captain Trimble that the town will be decorated to such an extent that it will not be recognized by the old soldiers.

TWO SUPERIOR BOYS IN JAIL

Held on Charge of Robbing Farmer of $400.

Superior, Neb., May 3 .- Billy Hill and Walter Verbeck are now in the county jail at Nelson, awaiting trial on the charge of robbing Fred Lunzman, a farmer, of $400. Last week Lunzman came to town, got drunk and was around with the boys having a good time. Lunzman drew $400 from the bank and the boys "took care" of him while he was sobering off. When he became sober the boys and money were gone. He reported the case to the police, who began a search for the youths. They were located in Enid. Okla. Sheriff Jones brought them back and landed them in the county iail. They confessed and returned $50; No. 2 hard, $1.01@1.0312; No. 3 hard, about all the money they had left.

COURT HOUSE BRINGS $500

Phelps County Farmer Will Move Structure to His Farm for a Barn.

Holdrege, Neb., May 3.-The old court house was sold at auction, the structure being purchased by Gene Snow, who will move it onto his farm near this city, if present plans mature, where he may use it for a barn. The price paid the county was $500, which was considered very cheap as it measured forty feet wide by eighty feet long and was two stories high. The cost of moving the structure, how ever, will be considerable, and according to the terms of the sale, this must be done within the next thirty days

The court house, which will soon be hauled away to make room for a handsome new $100,000 edifice, was built in 1884 by the Lincoln Land company and presented to the county for the purpose, before this city had been designated as the county seat.
