On Monday, May 3. County Judge A. L. Berry tied the knot that united in the holy bonds of marriage Mr. Joseph W. Moore and Mrs. Mattie A. Nabb, daughter of August Kroesing, one of The Herald's Canada subscribers. They will make their home in this city.

Complaint comes from the Black Hills that the grouse are so numerous as to be a dangerous pest. Men are still living in Omaha who can remember the day when it was unsafe for a citizen to go abroad after the middle of July unless he carried a shotgun as protection against the attack of ferocious prairie chickens. Many an unprotected wavfarer has been severely bitten by these ravenous birds .-Omaha Bee.

The Speed department of our State Fair, to be held Sept. 5th to 9th, is receiving some good advertising at the hands of the various horse papers from the fact that on the last and only bright sunshiny day of the 1909 fair the management pulled off to completion ten harness events, which is the record of the United States for game sportsmanship.

A Fire-Proof Garage

J. C. McCorkle has purchased the Baxter property on the north side of Wyoming avenue, between Laramie and Cheyenne avenues, having a frontage of 87% feet. There is a brick cottage on the ground now, but a garage 50 by 80 feet will be constructed, the work on the same to be commenced soon. Mr. McCorkle says he will carry his own insurance on this building and its contents and will have it constructed absolutely fire proof, making it the most up-to-date and probably the only absolutely fire proof garage in this part of the state.

A Special Offer

The big daily papers find it necessary and profitable to keep increasing their subscription list, and one of the fastest growers is the Lincoln State Journal. This splendid state daily has just opentrip to Grand Island. She left here on ed up another big subscription campaign, offering the paper to Jan- 1, 1911 for only $2; with Sunday $2.50. This special rate will bring the business. The Journal has a way of its own-cutting out a lot of expensive methods of getting subscribers and making the low rate to its readers direct. The people of the state as never before are looking to the Journal for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lynch were in get it, and when you do pay for it you offered. are only paying for your own paper, not helping to pay for the one sent some deadbeat. You will like the cleancut methods of the Journal people.

T. N's. With Mrs. Pate

The T. N's, had a most joyous meeting Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. W. R. Pate. All members but one, Mrs. Fisherman, who was absent in Denver, were present. An old fashioned luncheon certainly made a hit with these ladies of modern fashion. The afternoon was one of the golden ones to mention in one's diary and Mrs. Pate's last entertainment for the club before leaving for her new home in Alliance was one of highest success. -Sidney Telegraph.

given us by readers of The Herald in securing news items for publication. There is one class of news items in particular which we wish to request in show you what we have. Nebraska Land formation about in order that suitable Co. announcements may be made in due time. Properly considered, we think. there is no kind of news that ought to be of more interest to people generally than the announcement of the arrival on this mudane sphere of the masculine and feminine bits of humanity that bring joy to the hearts of the happy parents and mean so much-everything-for the future of our country.

If our friends will furnish us the necessary data we will try hereafter to give this class of notices the prominence in our columns that they deserve.
