

WE PLEASE It's No Trouble

Alliance Cash Shoe Store

to show you here—we'll show you our entire stock and if you don't see just what you want (which is highly improbable) you are under no obligation—implied or otherwise—to buy. An inspection of our stock of E. P. Reed and Queen Quality makes of feminine footwear will reveal to you an assortment that is certain to contain the footwear the most critical lady could wish.

RAILWAY NOTES AND PERSONALS.

Engineer Jacoby and fireman of the east end were in Alliance Wednesday.

We are sorry to learn of the very serious illness of Mrs. M. E. Johnson.

East end Conductor Conn and Engineer Hicks brought in an extra Sunday.

Conductor Hoskins and Engineer Cole made a trip to Ravenna on a stock train.

Walter Metz's little son, Sidney, has been very sick with pneumonia. He is now out of danger.

Mrs. I. U. Hagar went to Guernsey Tuesday to assist in the care of her friend, Mrs. D. C. Taylor.

Express Messenger Myrt Oldt has resigned from the service. He will try farming on his father-in-law's ranch near Hemingford.

A few friends were entertained at the home of Mrs. A. E. Nelson Tuesday afternoon. A dainty dinner was served at 5:30 p. m.

Con. Rad Randall is still in Chadron where he was called by the sickness of his father. Con. Arthur Pickett has charge of the west-end local.

Engineer D. C. Taylor came over from Guernsey Tuesday. He returned the same day on account of the very dangerous illness of Mrs. Taylor.

Mrs. Reed and daughters, Miss Ray and Miss Ruth, went to Sidney Sunday. They will visit there a few days with Conductor Robert Reed of the Denver division.

Word comes from Mrs. Geo. Davis, wife of machinist Davis, that she is now at the home of her parents in Havelock. She will visit in Iowa with a sister before she returns to Alliance.

Passenger Con. Zollinger was taken very sick in Ravenna Friday. Conductor Gaddis was called to bring his train to Alliance. Mr. Gaddis was accompanied by his wife and daughter who have relatives here.

A head-on collision occurred on the long bridge just west of Edgemont Sunday afternoon between two freights. Fortunately no one was seriously hurt and no damage was done to the track. Trains from the west were delayed about six hours.

Passenger brakeman R. E. McKenzie has been transferred to the freight service. He bought a new two-piece blue suit, not exactly the same cut as a passenger uniform. He was called Wednesday morning to make his first trip with Con. Clyde Miller.

The resignation of Joe Mikke came as a great surprise. Only a few years ago Mr. Mikke entered the employ of the company as call boy. By his studious habits and well directed ability he has worked up to the position as train dispatcher. During his time of service he has made many friends among the officials and also among the road men whom he had in charge. He expects to make an extensive trip to the western coast before he decides to locate permanently. That this young man has a bright future was clearly demonstrated by his work here in Alliance.

State Sunday School Convention

Probably very many readers do not need to be told of the Nebraska State Sunday School Convention which is to meet this year in Beatrice, June 7, 8, 9. In number of delegates attending and in number of speakers of national and world-wide reputation appearing on the program this promises to be the best convention the state has ever had. Every Sunday School in the state should have delegates at this convention, for the meeting will mark a tremendous forward movement in the Sunday Schools over the whole state. Beatrice is confidently preparing to entertain 1,200 delegates but if more come they will be cared for gladly. The state workers and the local committees at Beatrice have the work of preparation well in hand and every possible thing will be done to make the convention entirely successful.

W. C. T. U. Notes

The union held its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Bignell. A committee with Mrs. Bignell as chairman was appointed to arrange for Rest Rooms during the 4th of July celebration and Stockmen's convention.

The subject of Sabbath observance was discussed. Mrs. Geo. Fernald having charge of that department. It was voted by the union to petition the city council to close the business houses of the city on Sundays.

The union meets May 24th with beautiful presents testified in what high esteem these young people were held.

Among the out of town guests were Miss Bertha Anderson of Alliance, Miss Pearl Copey of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Nester and family of Omaha.

Mrs. Kauffman was for two years connected with the clerical force in the Master Mechanic's office and won many friends while here. Dave Kauffman is well known here and needs no words from us as his sterling qualities are known by all. He has for years been connected with the Famous Clothing Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Kauffman returned to Alliance on No. 47 Monday morning and will be at home to their friends after June 1st, 1910.

For Rent—Two furnished rooms, modern, first floor; could be used for light housekeeping. Phone 324 or 299.
