thing to consider in depositing money in a bank is security. The capital and surplus are the depositors protection fund. Our capital is $50,000.00. Our surplus is $50,000.00. This makes a depositors guarantee fund of $100,000.00. The

of ALLIANCE

Should Be On First Page.

The following persons and firms have advertising space reserved on the first page of The Herald, but through miscalculation in making up the forms, their ads were in the first run (two impressions being required to print each edition of the paper): Geo. I. Hand, M. D. Kennedy Brothers, dentists; Thiele, prescription druggist; Forest Lumber Co., J. A. Berry, manager; the Fair Store and the Palace Livery. We hope this item will call attention to these ads sufficiently to give them as much publicity as they would have had on the first page.

Attends Bill Posters' Convention.

S. A. Miller attended the annual convention of the Tri-State Association of Bill Posters at St. Joe last week, leaving Alliance Wednesday and returning Saturday. This association is composed of accredited bill posters of Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri. Si reports having a splendid time, but returned sober, so he says, and with some new ideas to add to his already large fund of information on bill posting service. The next convention is to be held at St. Louis.

Alumni Banquet

The annual banquet of the Alliance High School Alumni association was held last evening at the Burlington hotel, with an unusually large attendance, there being about fifty present, including members of the association and invited guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Lockwood provided a sumptuous repast, the spread being arranged with such elegance as to elicit many expressions of admiration. A table in the shape of a horseshoe almost filled the large dining room, and would have accommodated a hundred guests had it been necessary. Following is the

MENU
Cold Hars-d-ouvers

At the close of the banquet a short business session of the association was held, at which the following officers for the ensuing year were elected: Edward Jameson, '02, president; Frank Rumer, '09, vice president; Alice Acheson, '07, secretary-treasurer. The other officers are appointive, and we have not learned whether they have been named yet.

Exchange Pastorates.

The many Alliance friends of Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Vallow will regret to learn that they are soon to leave the city. Arrangements have been completed for the transfer of Mr. Vallow to the pastorate of the First M. E. church at Elkins, W. Va., the present pastor, Dr. J. L. P. Jones, coming to Alliance. The transfer will be made about July 1st.

During their residence of about three years here, Rev. Vallow and his family have formed a large circle of acquaintances, which means a large number of friends, who will sincerely regret to see them leave, but who will wish them well in their new home. It is no flattery to say that Mr. Vallow is a preacher of exceptional ability, and that the church here has been strengthened by his ministry. We consider the church that secures his services fortunate.

Dr. Jones' district superintendent says that he is one of the great preachers of Methodism. On behalf of the church he is to serve and the city of which he is to become a citizen, we gladly extend to Dr. Jones and his family a cordial welcome.

New Moving Picture and Vaudeville Show.

John Wallace and E. Becker, commonly known as "Bill," are as busy as bees this week getting ready to open their new moving picture and vaudeville show in the building at the southeast corner of Box Butte avenue and Dakota street, one block north of the Burlington station, on east side of street. They are getting the large room fixed up in "ship shape" and will have everything brand new. They promise the best in their line, and will give their opening performance next Monday night.

Beal Bros. will continue to have their office in the south-west room, but the entry will be so arranged that this will not interfere with the show, neither will the show make any difference with their business.

Enjoyed Convention.

Rev. J. M. Huston writes the editor from Chicago, under date of May 17, as follows:

"If the comet does not hit the earth, or any other calamity befall us, we will be home for next Sunday. Will you kindly announce me for next Sunday a. m. 'Echoes from N. B. Convention'; 8:00 p. m. 'Gospel Service.' We have had the time of our lives."

Evidently Mr. Huston did not think of the union service to be held Sunday evening for the annual sermon of the High school graduating class, hence we take the liberty of announcing no service at the Baptist church at that time.

S. K. Warrick came over from Alliance Wednesday in an automobile and after a short business call on the Minatare Bank continued his trip to Gering with Wellington Clark on the cushions as company. An off-hand guess would be that some kind of a land deal was involved.—Minatare Free Press.

Tag Day

June 18th has been designated as "tag day" by the sisters who have charge of Mercy Hospital. On that day three ladies, Miss Mary O'Keefe, Mrs. W. D. Rumer and Mrs. John Brennan, each assisted by six girls, all of whom will be supplied with suitable tags, will solicit donations to be used in furnishing the new hospital building when it opens July 1st. Every person making a donation will be given a tag to wear during the balance of the day. As this will be something new for this city, and as the donations will be to help a work of mercy and charity, it is expected that the public will respond liberally on tag day.
