A SPECIAL OFFER

The big daily papers find it necessary and profitable to keep increasing their subscription list, and one of the fastest growers is the Lincoln State Journal. This Mrs. Bert Can was a passenger to splendid state daily has just opened up another big subscription campaign, offering the paper to Jan. 1, 1911, for only $2; with Sunday $2.50. This special rate will bring the business. The Journal has a way of its own-cutting out a lot of expensive methods of getting subscribers and making the low rate to the readers direct. The people of the state as never before are looking to The Journal for the real doings in the state. It is building up its business through reliability and enterprise, especially in covering the state news. Another good thing about The Journal is its policy of stopping every paper when Alliance on No. 44, and went at once the time is up. If you don't pay for it you to the company doctor.
