Meet me at Mollring's in the Ladies' Rest Room

TAILORED SUITS REDUCED
Special Offering at $17.50, $22.50 and $28

During the past week we have received an immense stock of new apparel for mid-summer wear, and in order to have adequate room for its proper showing it is necessary to give over a large portion of the tailored section for that purpose. To make this possible we will close out some 82 tailored suits, offering them at very special reductions, values that will bring quick response. We have arranged them in three collections at $17.50, $22.50 and $28. In each lot will be found the season's most attractive models in the fashionable materials and colors.

Just received, an elegant line

CORRESPONDENCE

FAIRVIEW

R. H. West returned from Hot Springs Saturday.
Geo. West and family visited at Fred Nason's Sunday.
Rev. Ruth Palmer preached at Fairview Sunday morning.
J. R. Lawrence and wife visited with Mr. and Mrs. Nason Sunday afternoon.
There will be preaching Sunday at eleven o'clock by Rev. Ira E. Nolte, Sunday School at ten o'clock.
There will be a Children's Day program given Sunday, June 26. Everyone is invited to come and take part in the program.
J. R. Lawrence and Chas. Benjamin took their threshing machine south of Alliance Monday to thresh for J. R. Phelan and other parties.

AFTON

Auntie Mailey is quite sick at this writing.
Mrs. Fred Robbins is some better at this writing.
Mrs. Shanklin is in Alliance this week attending Institute.
Lysie Coker was the guest of Roy Shanklin Tuesday night.
Miss Lizzie Coker took dinner at the home of W. S. Coker Sunday.
K. R. Reddish and family are spending a few days in Bridgeport at this writing.
W. S. Coker, wife and children, spent the day Tuesday at the home of H. F. Dainton and report a good time.
Roy Coker went home with his aunt from the dinner at Mailey's and spent a few days and reports a good time.
Sylvia Hagaman and Marion Soilenberger are at the home of Mrs. R. R. Reddish taking care of things this week while Mrs. Reddish is in Bridgeport.
Joe Carey has been putting down a well for Jim Underwood on his homestead. Jim says as soon as he gets his house built he will be ready for a cook. Look out, girls!
Wednesday of last week a large number of the friends of Perry Mailey came together and took him by surprise, the occasion being his birthday. There was the usual good dinner enjoyed by young and old, after which there was a jolly ball game between the men and the boys, both sides claiming victory. H. F. Dainton came out with a badly scarred face and R. E. Reddish with a thumb out of joint. All report a fine time.

At the Marriage Altar

Two of the estimable young people of the Bonner neighborhood yesterday took upon themselves the vows which are to last until "death doth them part." Mr. Rufus Thomas and Miss Avery Wood are the names of this happy young couple and the ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wood, Rev. I. L. Vallow of Alliance officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas left immediately for a short trip, after which they will be at home to their many friends on their ranch near Bonner.

MOTHER LEACH IS DEAD

Helped Husband to Found Brotherhood of Firemen.

Omaha, June 6.—Mrs. J. A. Leach, better known to every member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen in the world as "Mother" Leach, is dead in Omaha.
Suddenly overcome with heart disease as she was seating herself at the luncheon table at the home of W. H. Ahmanson, Mrs. Leach, who has spent the greater part of her life in work among railroad men of the order, passed peacefully to her last rest. So suddenly did death come, and so quietly, that those seated about the table did not realize the truth until they had lifted her lifeless form from the chair.
With her husband, J. A. Leach, who founded the brotherhood thirty-seven years ago, "Mother" Leach was en route for St. Paul, where the biennial convention of the brotherhood and the auxiliary will convene today. They reached Omaha from their home at Sedalia, Mo.

JUDGMENT FOR WIFE'S LOVE

Jury Gives Phelps Verdict of $16,666.67 Against Bergers.

Omaha, June 4.—John W. Bergers must pay Frank N. Phelps $16,666.67. An award of this amount is given Phelps by the district court jury which heard the alienation of affection suit.
When the jury had voted that they thought Phelps ought to recover, each juror wrote down the amount and the total was figured and divided by eleven, one juror having been excused on account of illness. In this way the sum of $16,666.67 was reached. One or two jurors favored giving Phelps the whole amount asked for, while some were considerably below the amount reached. The plaintiff asked $25,000.

FATHER SHOTS DAUGHTER

Henry Frannsen Fires at Mark, Bullet Glancing, Entering Girl's Heart.

Grand Island, Neb., June 4.—While Henry Frannsen was at the home of a relative near St. Libory, ten miles north of here, some of the men, including Mr. Frannsen, engaged in shooting at a target with a rifle. The target was a brickbat some distance away. Forty feet to the side stood Mr. Frannsen's little nine-year-old daughter, Martha. Mr. Frannsen took a shot and hit the brick. The bullet seems to have glanced off and struck the little girl, entering the heart. Death was almost instantaneous.
