RAILWAY NOTES AND PERSONALS

* Engineer Jay Carr bas gone to Ravenna

for a ten days' visit with his family. H. C. Sternberg is a new fireman, He was formerly call boy at Edgemont,

F. D. Shirk, night foreman at the stock yards, is enjoying a visit from his brother. Brakeman A. E. Martz has bought a house from Boyer in the north part of Business has been rather quiet the last few days. The men appreciate some time

Fireman Branley writes that he is well leased with the work on Crawford hill and has "bid in" the place.

Among the new men employed in the machine shops are Eugene Whitman, P. J. Morris, and G. H. McLain.

The Burchell brothers enjoyed a three days' visit from their friend, Mr. Brennan of Greely. From here he went west and will make a trip to the coast.

Owing to slack business four cars and crews were pulled off Tuesday. They were Picket, Olson, Heizenbottle and Evans. This will only be for a short time.

Mrs. Engineer Heizenbottle and little daughter returned Sunday from Edgemont where they had been visiting Mr. Heizenbottle, who is working between Edgemont and Deadwood,

Fred Tyler, formerly of the express office, is now running a hotel at Ellsworth. He will be there until July 1st when he will have to begin baying. Both he and his wife own fine hay claims near Ells-

Passenger brakeman Charley Hoffman is in Denver this week. His mother, who has been making her home here with Mr. and Mrs. Albro is on her way to the home he will run on 39 and 40 Ravenna to Seneca. He has sold his property here. This move will make either Con. Bennet or Gaddis move back to Alliance.

Trainmaster M. O. Joder came in Monday morning from the Hamilton wreck at Ashby where he had been in charge of the wrecker. A long, heavy train of seventy cars broke in two and ran together again, piling up seven cars. Fortunately no one

Mrs. Dick Kenner paid an over Sunday visit to her friend, Mrs. Hoskins. She reports Dick with the work train at Ardbrakemen, Hack and McKenzie. prospects now are that the work will last Walter Metz received the sad news Wednesday of the death of his mother at Falls City. The funeral will take place Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Metz and Master Sidney left on No. 42 Thursday. Friends here extend their sincerest sympathy to Mr. Metz in his bereavement.

Mr. L. W. Park who left here seven brother were both engineers here. He has again entered the engine service. Mr. work of "W. A. M," and will compare wishes to secure a good, cheap

Park will either buy or build him a home can, He was very much surprised and pleased over the growth and improvement in Alliance in the last seven years.

Old friends of Conductor W. R. Cunningham are glad to know that he has again entered the employ of the Burlington. He came to Alliance Saturday and immediately reported for duty. He is now making his home with Conductor Baird at the Bullock home. His wife, who is in Grand Island, will come to Alliance soon.

The news of the death of Mrs. D. C. Taylor of Guernsey came as a shock to her many friends here. The operation at the hospital some time ago seemed so very successful. When Mrs. Taylor left here for her home she said she was enjoying better health than she had for years. Her friend, Mrs. I. U. Hager, was with her when she died. The body was brought in on the Guernsey train Tuesday and buried from the Methodist church. A large crowd of railroad people, lodge members, and other friends attended. "Dad" Taylor is one of the oldest engineers out of Alliance, and both he and his wife were known and liked by all. Words cannot express our sympathy for Mr. Taylor. We commend him to a higher power for we know "He doeth all things well".

Letter from Prof. Hayes

The editor of The Herald has a personal letter from Prof. Hayes, written from Peru, Nebr., to which place, as our readers know, he went last week to take charge as president of the Peru State Normal school. The letter was not written for publication, but as it contains information that many of our readers will be interested in we venture to publish it:

'Dear Mr, Thomas; Please send The Herald to me at Peru hereafter. I am greatly pleased with the pros and Mrs. Albro is on her way to the home of a daughter in Colorado. Mr. Hoffman will return Saturday.

Passenger conductor C, W. Betebenner and family have moved to Ravenna where fruit trees in this part of the state, A new administration building which will cost $50,000 is just being startedthis gives us a total of eight good buildings, and all are needed. Sincerely yours, D. W. Hayes,"
