Frank Thomas is the owner of a new piano, purchased of the Bennett Piano Co.

Miss Roberts of Bogue's store has just returned from her annual vacation.

B. E. Holman of Alliance is the new fireman on the helper crew on the Burlington.—Marsland Tribune.

To our already fine list of assistant editors (correspondents) we are pleased to add one this week from Belmont, who starts out with a good batch of news.

G. W. Berry of Angora, who is attending the S. D. A. camp meeting, has been having some printing done at The Herald office to be used in religious work.

The rustling qualities of W. M. Robinson of the Bennett Piano company were shown last week when he sold a Chickering Grand piano on a railroad train to a fellow-passenger last week.

We wish to call particular attention to the notice of a meeting of the Alliance Commercial Club, to be held Thursday evening, June 30th. Business of importance is to be transacted, and a full attendance is desired.

Miss Eva Ross, daughter of Mrs. Ida M. Ross, returned Friday noon from her first year in college at Waukesha, Wis. She will be home a little over two months, after which she will return to Waukesha for the second year of the six years' course she is taking.

Last Friday was a strenuous day for Mrs. J. T. Wiker. Besides selling two pianos, one to Mrs. Betaine Shields and another to Mike Butler, she assisted in moving her household goods from the upstairs rooms in the McWhinney block to 708 Big Horn avenue.

Judge J. R. Dean of Broken Bow was in Alliance last Thursday looking after his interests as a candidate for the democratic nomination for congress. In company with Attorney Wm. Mitchell he was briefly interviewing democratic voters. They made The Herald office a short but pleasant call.

Training School for Nurses

In connection with Mercy Hospital, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, is a Training School for Nurses. Wanted, young ladies to enter the Training School of Mercy Hospital at Alliance. Apply to SISTER SUPERIOR.

Return from Arizona

Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Thomas arrived on their return from Phoenix, Arizona, where they went last winter. They are enthusiastic over the beauties of the Salt River valley, in which Phoenix is located, and which they say resembles a huge garden, but they were both delighted to get back to Alliance and again greet their many friends here. Lloyd will continue to sell Salt River valley real estate, but will do so from Nebraska, making his office with The Herald. We might say, incidentally, that any of our readers who contemplate going to a milder climate will do well to see or write to him for information.

We are more than pleased to announce that Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will help to make The Herald the best local paper in Nebraska. Mr. Thomas having already assumed the duties of business manager. Persons acquainted with him and his work know there will be "something doing" in the newspaper and printing business that he is connected with. The work that Mrs. Thomas will do as bookkeeper, stenographer, etc., will be just as much appreciated, and will greatly assist in making the business a financial success, as well as helping to place the paper in the front rank as a news dispenser and exponent of "the square deal," for which it in the future, as in the past, will stand.
