Announcement

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for State Representative of the 53rd representative district of Nebraska...

G. L. SHUMWAY

Candidate for Nomination for Congress.

Democratic and People's Independent Parties, Primaries August 16.

Twenty-five years in Western Nebraska, and a thorough acquaintance with conditions surrounding the people...

I hope you will take the pains to investigate my record, and give me an opportunity to show where I stand on live questions...

The district has been misrepresented long enough. We want no gum-shoe, soft-pedal congressman...

A man of action, a thinker, a builder; a man of red blood, who sees so much to do and so little done that he wants to tear into the work...

Six years ago, this district was 8600 republican. I reduced Kinkaid's majority about 3500 four years ago...

Yet we cannot win with a doubtful man. If there is any question as to where he stands on Cannonism...

It is my earnest desire to learn something while this contest is on, in which the people are so much interested...

I want to be fitted for congress whether I win or not. To that end, I want the opinions of as many as will take the trouble to write me...

If you are for me, tell me why; and if against me tell me why also.

Thanking you in advance for any favors shown, I am,

Yours to command, G. L. SHUMWAY.

The way it looks now, "standpat" success at the primaries in the nomination of republican candidates means the success of democratic candidates at the polls in November.

Eleven employees of the interior department, who would rather be right than hold a government job, have been forced out by Ballinger.

"I will not lie for the republican party," says Senator Cummins of Iowa. We believe that the rank and file of the republicans of the west will honor him for the stand he takes...

Ross Hammond, editor of the Fremont Tribune, is of the opinion that whether or not the democrats endorse the initiative and referendum in their party platform this year, the republicans ought to do it. Mr. Hammond says very truly: "No believer in popular government can consistently oppose it. Only those who are afraid to trust public questions to the people argue against it."

TO QUIT THIS WEEK

Leaders Look for Adjournment Before Saturday.

POSTAL SAVINGS BILL PENDING.

Measure May Be Put Out of Way Before Quitting—Tariff, Statehood and Railroad Bills Are Most Important of the Administration Measures Passed by Both Houses.

Washington, June 21.—Congress leaders confidently expect to wind up the business of the present session this week and adjourn not later than Saturday.

It is pointed out by Republican leaders that there never has been a congress where the president has obtained the amount of legislation that has resulted from the demands of President Taft.

Bills on all these subjects have passed both branches of congress, with the exception of the anti-injunction measure.

The postal savings bank bill is still before the senate. It came from the house in the form of an amended bill, and Senator Carter moved that the senate concur in the house amendments.

The rivers and harbors bill is awaiting the president's signature, and he will soon have the omnibus public buildings bill, which was reported to the house Saturday.

Washington, June 18.—The house, which has seen many days of dissension during the present session over the question of rules of that body, furnished the remarkable spectacle of passing, with only one lone member voting in opposition, a strongly worded "reform" rule, designed to correct an acknowledged legislative abuse—the "smothering" of legislation in committee.

The indictment was returned by a special federal grand jury and handed up before Judge Hough, in the United States circuit court. Five of those indicted, James A. Patten, Eugene B. Seales, Frank B. Hayne, William P. Brown and M. H. Rothchild, gave bail of $5,000 through counsel.
