While sitting with several others on one of the high seats they were thrown to the ground by a large strip of canvas being blown against them. The others were unhurt but his arm was fractured.

Did you ever think what your ad in the newspaper is doing for you? When you close your store in the evening and go home to your family and friends, not thinking about your business at all, then it is that the paper is being pored over in hundreds of homes—the homes from which your trade is drawn. And there is your ad doing its work silently, but surely, and if you have taken the pains to make it attractive its work will be all the more satisfactory. This is repeated over and over again, and is no doubt what inspired some writer to call newspaper advertising a "silent drummer."

A former Nebraska farmer who is now in the Salt River Valley of Arizona, says Lloyd Thomas, was trying to give some of his friends back here an idea of the productiveness of the soil down there when the water is properly applied. He said that they had to mow the grass in the front yard every day to find the baby. One family near him had twins and as they only had one cradle one had to sleep on the lawn, and the kid that had to sleep on the ground grew twice as fast as the other. Where the soil is richest a man dares not stand on one foot any length of time lest that leg become longer and bother his walking. The farmer said that everything grows for he had one neighbor who made a business of planting needles and reaping crowbars.

The remark is often made by visitors to our town that it is a prosperous, thriving town. Traveling men especially, speak of the amount of business done here. It only serves to emphasize the fact that Alliance is the metropolis of western Nebraska. Our grain and stock buyers pay the highest prices that the markets afford, often a good deal better prices than are paid in other western Nebraska towns. To the merchants also is due a large share of the credit. They carry large and well selected stocks, bought in large quantities at close figures for cash, and give their customers the advantages of the cut prices. Nothing helps to build up a town more than live, energetic business men.

Married

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the residence of Jerry Rowan, of Alliance, at four o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Rev. J. M. Huston being the officiating minister.

Miss Sylvia L. Hagaman, a popular Box Butte county school teacher, and Clyde E. McKinney, of Dallas, Oregon, but formerly of this county, were the contracting parties.

Only a few guests were present. Miss Buelah Smith played the beautiful wedding march. The happy couple will visit in this vicinity a few weeks, after which they will leave for Oregon, which will be their home.

Time to Subscribe Now

We often learn of persons who have been thinking of subscribing for The Alliance Herald, but who have deferred doing so. Although we have a large list of subscribers, there are probably quite a number of persons in Box Butte and adjoining counties who wish to take this paper but who have not yet ordered it.

We wish to call the attention of such persons to the fact that it is their interest to subscribe now. Besides having the privilege of voting for their choice of the candidates for The Herald piano, they will also receive a valuable wall chart (maps) that is worth more than a dollar; in proportion to the prices asked for some other maps this wall chart is easily worth a dollar and a half. Every person paying two year's subscription in advance will receive one of these premium wall charts absolutely free.

Lumber Dealers Complain.

Lincoln, June 28.—Eleven lumber dealers of Omaha have joined in a complaint against the railroads doing business in Nebraska, alleging the rates charged for the shipment of lumber from Omaha and South Omaha are unreasonable and unjust. The complaint was filed with the state railway commission and a formal hearing will be held at a date yet to be fixed. This complaint takes the place of the complaint filed by the Commercial club of Omaha and later withdrawn.

Beaver City Boy Burned.

Beaver City, Neb., June 28.—Eddie, the thirteen-year-old son of E. C. Carter, was horribly burned while filling a lighted gasoline stove from an open can. The fluid was spilled on the boy's clothing and he was burned about the face, neck, chest and arms. At first it was thought his injuries would be fatal, but he has improved during the day and hopes are entertained for his recovery.
