

THE WINNING TEAM

MUST HAVE GOOD MEN IN EVERY POSITION, WHO WORK TOGETHER AND TRY HARD TO WIN

THE DIAMOND

OUR LINE-UP

A. W. TAGG
E. J. WRIGHT } Cattle Salesmen
F. W. LIGHTFOOT, Brandman
JOHN SMITH, Sheep Salesman
W. B. TAGG } Hog Salesmen
J. F. STARR }
R. L. BATIE, Office
H. E. BLAIR, Cashier

WE WIN!

TAGG BROS.

Live Stock Commission Company

107-109 Exchange Bldg.,

SO. OMAHA, NEBR.

Try Us

Be Convinced

Write in for our Weekly Market Reports, furnished free

W. B. TAGG, Manager

CORRESPONDENCE

HEMINGFORD

Mrs. Peter Haag is reported to be seriously ill.

Miss Susie Davison was thrown from a horse and quite badly hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Tachaker are the proud parents of a baby girl.

Miss Alice Pomesil from near Dunlap was seen on our streets Monday.

A. E. Clark went down to Alliance Saturday on business and returned Sunday.

Mr. Hess of Chadron, father of Mrs. Wm. Curry, is here for a few days visit.

Rev. Chas. Burleigh came in on 43 Friday from Lakeside. He went to Marsland to preach Sunday.

The children are busy practicing for Children's Day, which will be held at the Methodist church July 3.

The Mormons held a meeting in the Opera House Saturday evening. There was a large crowd in attendance.

The Misses Ruth and Blanche Wiltsey and Glen Mounts spent Saturday afternoon with Miss Evalyn McBurney.

While out driving Tuesday one of A. Frohpfel's valuable horses got sick and before he could get help the animal died.

Kay Brown left Monday morning for Lead, S. D. He has made many friends while here who will regret to see him leave.

The Rev. Omer Cox, who was expected to preach in the Congressional church Sunday, was unable to come on account of sickness.

Mr. Rockwell's baby accidentally swallowed some fly poison Sunday morning. Dr. Little was called and the little one is getting along nicely.

Mrs. A. Donovan and children came in on 43 Sunday from Alliance where she has been visiting. She left for her home in Pringle, S. D., Tuesday morning.

Among those who went to Alliance to attend the Church Association from here were Mrs. Rollo Johnson, Mrs. Sherwood, Mrs. Ben Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Among those who autoed to Alliance from here to attend the circus were Mamie Miller, Mr. Thompson, Mr. Fenner and Beatrice, Mr. Muirhead and children and Dent Piper.

The Hemingford boys will cross bats with the Ft. Robinson team Sunday, July 3. Although our boys are a little out of practice we are hoping for a victory for the home team.

News reached us Friday morning that Miss Beatrice Stump had committed suicide at the home of John Curran, where she was working. She was alone at the time and she was found dead in her room with a rifle lying beside her. She shot herself through the head. No cause was known for the act.

BELMONT

Mr. McHenry is just home from southern Texas. He says it is a fine country but those Texas boys tell such large well news that it is hard to believe all you hear.

Fred Wendt is rushing his new store building. He is building a large hall for dancing.

Belmont has secured the teachers for the coming year. Miss Blessing has the senior room.

Lee Gregory, agent at Belmont, sold a pair of horses. Consideration three hundred dollars.

Ver Schoefield left Marsland Saturday for Hot Springs where he intends to make his future home.

Carroll Folman from Marsland visited his brother at Belmont last Sunday and took in the ball game.

Miss Blessing has left Belmont to visit Whitney, Edgemont and other places of interest for a week or two.

Mr. Hack has resigned his position as section boss. We did not hear what kind of business he intends to follow.

Mrs. A. Gregory is closing out her thorough bred brown Leghorn hens at eight dollars for a male and twelve hens.

Miss Johnson has gone to Denver for a few months. Her many friends and patrons will be glad to see her home again.

Everybody and then some are talking of going to Squaw Creek to attend the celebration, dance, horse races, fire works, etc.

Everybody is making preparations for a good time the 4th of July. Some are going to Alliance and others to Hot Springs, S. D.

We are glad to see Belmont growing. It is a good shipping point and large quantities of milk and cream are shipped from this point to Crawford and Deadwood.

Mrs. A. Gregory, Miss Belle Gregory and Mr. and Mrs. Eiswath were all invited to Lee Gregory's last Thursday to eat ice cream.

The people in the vicinity of Marsland will be sorry to hear that Miss Allie Gregory is in the hospital at Omaha having her eyes treated.

Mrs. Fred Tolman and children were in town Friday with a load of milk and cream. Mr. Tolman is a ranchman and has lived in the vicinity of Belmont for a number of years.

Tom Pool, real estate dealer in Marsland, is doing a thriving business in real estate. We understand he is selling some nice pieces of land for $20 and $25 per acre in that vicinity.

Dawes county cattle are on a boom. Mr. Phelps has sold a few of his poorest cows for ninety dollars per head and refused an offer of one hundred dollars per head for two car loads or his entire herd.

There was a large crowd over from Squaw Creek to see the ball game Sunday. A large crowd of ladies came to witness the defeat of their team. The Belmont boys are challenged to try it again at Squaw Creek the 4th.

Get your decorations at the Fair Store.

CONDENSED NEWS

An unknown man jumped into the Niagara river from the second Sister's island and was carried over the Horse-shoe falls.

Investigation into the sale of friar lands in the Philippines was recommended to the house by the committee on insular affairs.

Mrs. W. P. G. Harding, wife of the president of the National Bank of Birmingham, Ala., shot and killed herself at her home in Glenn, Wis.

Tom Ingraham, who shot and killed John McConchie at Guthrie, Ill., March 13, was convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to two years.

The man killed in the wreck of a St. Louis and San Francisco freight train at Haverhill, Kan., was identified as William Tuley of Monett, Mo.

Edmond E. North, a mining engineer, graduate of Leland Stanford university, died at Mexico City as the result of a fall down a mine shaft.

Nick Maringe and Frank Chircaris were hanged at Norristown, Pa., on the same gallows for the murder in August, 1909, of George A. Johnson.

While practicing previous to a ball game at Dayton, Ky., Leonard Hand was hit with a batted ball and a thrown ball and died as the result of his injuries.

Governor Haskell of Oklahoma issued a proclamation calling a special election for Aug. 2 to vote on the "grandfather clause" to amend the constitution.

It is anticipated that at the forthcoming jubilee of Prince Nicholas L., who was proclaimed prince of Montenegro on Aug. 14, 1830, Montenegro will be declared a kingdom.

William Hamilton, who disappeared from his home at Pittsburg eight months ago and who later fell heir to a fortune, was discovered as a prisoner in the Chicago house of correction.

Cornell university will receive the major part of the estate of Goldwin Smith, who was prominently identified with the early history of the university and who died recently in Toronto.

Former Comptroller of the Currency Dawes addressed the Illinois Bankers' association. He maintained a central bank could not be successfully adapted to our present independent banking system.

Harry S. Schwartz has resigned as chief of the field service of the general land office and will be succeeded in that position by James M. Sheridan, now a special agent located at Denver.

Mrs. T. B. Entz of Kirkwood, Mo., won the women's state tennis championship by defeating Miss Mamie Garruche of St. Louis, 4-6, 7-5, 7-6. Mrs. Entz has won the state championship three times.

The first bale of the cotton crop of 1910-11 was sold at auction in New York and brought 50 cents per pound, the proceeds being for the usual charity. This bale was picked in Hidalgo county, Texas.

On account of the inability of the attorneys to obtain a hearing of the Pullman case before the United States circuit court in Chicago, the interstate commerce commission suspended its order effective July 1 until July 12.

Under the will of the late Elisha P. Wilbur, financier and once president of the Lehigh Valley railroad, an estate of $7,000,000 is bequeathed to his family. So far as it is known there was no gift to a public or charitable institution.

G. V. Deering of Columbus, Wis., won the national amateur championship of the Interstate Trap Shooters' association in the closing day of the eleventh annual grand American tournament at Chicago. Deering broke 189 targets out of 209 chances.

With several hundred delegates from all parts of the state, the "band of hope" conference assembled at Peoria. The principal object of the meeting is to devise ways and means of purifying legislative methods in electing United States senators.

After sitting with closed doors in St. Petersburg, a court-martial has concluded the trial of sixty-eight persons charged with armed robberies and other crimes, including murder, during the revolutionary period. Twenty-nine death sentences were passed.

Moses Haas of New York and Frederick A. Peckham of Cincinnati, after fighting for five years indictments returned against them in the cotton leak in the department of agriculture, entered pleas of guilty. Justice Gould imposed a fine of $5,000 on Haas and $5,000 on Peckham, which they paid.

Roosevelt, Jr., and Bride Reach Frisco. San Francisco, June 21.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., who was married to Eleanor Butler Alexander in New York a few days ago, arrived here with his bride. The couple will make their home in San Francisco, where young Roosevelt will be connected with a large carpet establishment.

Pass Rubber Men's Bill. Singapore, June 27.—The legislative council of the Straits Settlements has passed the rubber dealers' bill, which contains a provision for the refusal of a license to an agent or individual or corporation attempting to establish a monopoly of output or of market in cultivated rubber.

Expulsion of Jews Goes On. Kiev, June 27.—From June 23 to June 27 seventy-three Jews were expelled from Kiev, sixty-one from Saitmonka and forty-one from Demietzka.

NEW HARNESS STORE

Located Opposite Postoffice

I have a New and Complete Stock of

Harness and Saddlery

Goods, Harness, Saddles, Bridles and Collars of all kinds and grades

Whips, Fly Nets, Fly Covers, Lap Dusters, etc.

Everything included in an Up-to-Date Harness Stock

I am a Dealer and Manufacturer of many years' experience and will guarantee to please you.

A Share of Your Patronage is Solicited

J. E. SMITH

Estray Notice

One large Short-horn bull is at my place, eighteen miles west of Alliance. Owner may have same by proving property and paying charge.

F. B. Thomas, 27-41 Postoffice, Hemingford, Nebr.

Stallion for Sale or Trade

Stallion for sale or trade for horses or cattle. Good disposition, range broke. Weight 1800, seven years old, dapple gray. JAMES POTMESIL, Long Lake, Nebr.