RAILWAY NOTES AND PERSONALS

Fireman Trinkle is firing the switch engine now days.

Fireman Bailey from the east end has been transferred to Alliance.

Engineer "Dad" Hurst of Crawford Hill came down to Alliance for "Big Doin's."

Conductor and Mrs. Clyde Bullock returned from their honeymoon Wednesday.

Brakeman White, who has been here several months, has resigned and gone to Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Dunning returned from Denver in time for the convention.

Mrs. Deleline mother of Mrs. Chas. Grothe, came in from the ranch to spend the 4th.

Owing to the rush of business only a few of the railroad men were in town for the big celebration.

Conductor Bob Evans has Hamilton's car and crew. Mr. Hamilton has sickness in his family.

Brakeman John Burke left Monday night for a visit with relatives in Lincoln and Friend, Nebr.

It is rumored that there will be a surprising change among our officials here in the near future.

Fireman Raymond, who has been herding engines at Ardmore spent Saturday and Sunday in Alliance.

Mrs. James Mewhirter and little daughter came up from Ravenna to spend the 4th with relatives here.

Miss Mabel Duncan has resigned her place at the store house. She will now keep books for the Duncan Grocery.

The boys on the Ardmore work train were given a vacation the 4th and 5th. Conductor Burright and R. E. McKenzie came to Alliance. Brakeman Hack spent his Fourth with his people in Hemingford.

Brakeman F. O. Rowe is enjoying a visit from his wife and sister who are living on a claim near Mitchell, Nebr.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Short and little son of Slater, Mo., are here, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Campbell.

Mrs. Clyde Miller, Mrs. Mosher, Miss Mabel Mosher and Miss Etvina Williams spent five days last week in Denver.

Ross Hale, formerly a switchman here but now a prosperous ranchman near Aurora, spent the past week in Alliance.

Ambrase Carroll, formerly a in connection here but now of Racine, Wisconsin, is here visiting his relatives, the McNutty's.

The reception given last Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Dunning was well attended and heartily enjoyed by all.

Mrs. A. E. Nelson met with quite a painful accident Friday. While picking peas in her garden she cut her right hand on a piece of glass.

Mrs. Hiezenbottle and daughter have gone to Hot Springs where they will spend a month. Engineer Hiezenbottle now has the Hot Springs run.

Saturday was the last day of the drawing at the famous. For the fourth time Mrs. U. S. Hoskins held the ticket that drew the five dollar gold piece.

A section foreman at Rumford had a very narrow escape June 28 at 8:30 p. m. He was on the track with his speeder at the mail crane west of Ardmore when an extra east struck him. He was thrown about fifty yards from the track and was badly bruised but no bones were broken. The speeder was a total wreck.

Business has been rushing on the road the last few days. Several crews have gone to Edgecumbe and turned right back making the round trip in about fifteen hours.

Mrs. Chas Mathews and little daughter of Marsland are in Alliance, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Waters.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ward passed through Alliance Saturday night on their way from Denver to Sturgis, S. D., where they will visit Mr. Ward's relatives a few days. When they come home they will go to keeping house in the Deeline house.

A. F. Norton, who has been car foreman here since March 1 resigned July 1. Mr. Norton will go from here to the Black Hills where he will spend a few days and from there will go to the Pacific coast. Mr. Norton was very much surprised to be waited on by a delegation of the car men who presented him with a fine gold watch and chain and an expensive Eagle charm as a token of their appreciation of Mr. Norton's work while here. Mr. Norton was so surprised he could not say a word but the men things he felt towards the men he had worked with.

McINTYRE ACQUITTED

Wednesday evening the jury in the murder case at Mullen returned a verdict of not guilty, making McIntyre a free man. The defendant, with his wife and two babies sitting beside him throughout the day, was perfectly calm and unmoved during the whole day's proceedings. Only when shaking hands with the jurors did McIntyre show any emotion. Then tears streamed down his face. Taken from Rock County Leader.

Two years ago Mr. McIntyre with his family were residents of Alliance. Mr. McIntyre is the father-in-law of Ross Parrish, the well known yard master at Seneca.

We desire to thank all who so kindly assisted us in caring for our darling wife and mother in sickness and death.

MR. S. O. CARR.
MR. AND MRS. G. B. CARR.
MR. AND MRS. I. R. WILCOX.
