Our Lincoln Letter

Governor Shallenberger's administration is less than two years old, yet since assumed the executive office the state has not only finished paying off its debt, but in addition to making appro-priations that should have been made y republican administrations for the care and comfort of the state's wards. has accumulated upwards of $100,000 in the general fund for which investment s now sought.

Let these important facts be burned into the minds of the taxpayers of Nebraska.

Attorney General Thompson has acepted an appointment as solicitor of the treasury department and expects to remove to Washington about October 1. It is not likely that Governor Shallenberger will appoint a successor, but will allow the present office force in the attorney general's department to carry on the work until the attorney general to be elected in November assumes the duties of his office. Mr. Thompson has rendered efficient service to the people of Nebraska, and his many friends, regardless of party affiliations, will con-gratulate him upon his deserved pro-

There have been no pardon scandals connected with the present administra-The only criticism republican tion. organs have been able to make against Governor Shallenberger is that he has accepted whenever possible invitations from his constituents to address them.

Mr. Hitchcock has declared that he will not accept the filing of his name for the congressional nomination in the second district. He is a candidate for the senate only.

Will They Pay?

That is the question that is asked so many times by doubting ones who would like to carry insurance but they allow their doubts and suspicions to cheat them out of one of the greatest blessings bestowed upon man or woman.

The following testimonials will set at rest all doubts in the mind of any sensible person:
