The total fire loss was about $10,000, with very little insurance.

Clyde Bullock and wife, formerly Laura Miller of the Herald force, arrived in Alliance Wednesday morning. They will live for the present in the residence occupied by W. S. Ridgell.

A meeting of the Official Board, the Board of Trustees, and the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church is called for next Monday evening, July 11th, at eight o'clock, in the church building.

Henry Grapengier, the genial press agent for Mayor Dahlman, who speaks Thursday at the Convention was in Alliance Monday, leaving this morning for Bridgeport.

J. A. Robertson of Glen, Sioux county "killed two birds with one stone" this week by taking in the Stockmen's Convention and looking after his candidacy for the democratic nomination for state representative.

Amusements for convention visitors are very plentiful. In addition to the races at the fair grounds and the speechmaking down town, there is a merry-go-round and plenty of street stands where you can spend your money.

W. W. Scott, employed by one of the moving picture film companies, has been taking pictures of Alliance scenes during the convention and celebration. This kind of publicity will give our city some very good and much needed advertising.

In another part of this issue will be found the program of the annual meeting of the Box Butte Sunday School Association, to be held at Hemingford, July 12th and 13th. This will be a very interesting meeting and all are invited to attend.

He is now confined to his bed but unless complications set in no serious results are feared. The stabbers are confined in the jail until the results of Harry's injuries are learned.

George Nichols, representing the Woods Bros., Commission Co., has been a pleasant caller at The Herald office a number of times this week. He was born in the Black Hills country, and being a native of the northwest, has a particularly warm spot in his heart for the people who attend the annual convention of stockmen.

Mr. E. C. Burton from Wrethville, Mo., and Mr. S. K. Warrick and son, Burton Warrick, from Alliance, were here Wednesday and Thursday, looking after some of their real estate interests over south of the river. Mrs. S. K. Warrick is Mr. Burton's daughter.—Minutary Free Press.

W. B. Tagg of Tagg Bros. Commission Co., South Omaha, was one of The Herald's many callers this week. He has been attending the annual meetings of the stockmen's association for eleven years and says there was the biggest crowd in Alliance last Monday that he has ever seen in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. New are taking in the big celebration and visiting their many Alliance friends this week. They are doing their share towards developing northwestern Nebraska; while M. O. is on the road selling flour, Mrs. New holds down the north Sioux County claim, and thus industry is being rewarded with prosperity. It would be difficult to find a happier couple than they.

W. D. Munger of the Denver Optical Mfg. Co., is in Alliance looking for a location. Mr. Munger brought a complete set of optical machinery with him and if Alliance proves to be a good location he will probably locate here. Mrs. Munger is accompanying him. With Mr. Munger is associated F. L. Barnes, for 12 years a manufacturing optician.

Every issue of the Alliance Herald is up to standard. The Herald Publishing Company employs plenty of help and only competent help. We do not consider it necessary to apologize for the paper or for work turned out by the force. This week we found it necessary to employ extra typesetters and an extra reporter. The extra gotten out early Tuesday morning brought a great deal of favorable comment as it contained an extended report of the Fourth doings as well as the telegraph reports of the Jeffries-Johnson fight.

The Eighth Cavalry left early Tuesday morning on their way to Cheyenne and the maneuver grounds northeast of that city. The writer has been over the country which they will camp and maneuver on this year many times. Fort D. A. Russell, which is about two miles from Cheyenne, will also participate with the Fort Robinson boys. The country picked out this year is well adapted to the use which it will be put, being partly level country similar to Box Butte County and partly mountain country.

Miss Laura Miller, formerly a Columbus newspaper girl, was married at her home in Albion Wednesday morning to Mr. C. E. Bullock, of Alliance. Since leaving this city Miss Miller has been employed in the office of the Herald, at Alliance, and she will continue to reside in that city. Mr. Bullock is a Burlington train conductor. Wednesday afternoon and evening Mr. and Mrs. Bullock visited in Columbus. They will take a honeymoon trip to eastern cities, and be at home in Alliance after July 24.—Columbus Telegram. The Herald joins the many friends of Miss Miller in extending congratulations to her.

C. A. Newberry sustained a heavy loss in the cloudburst which Alliance experienced Wednesday of last week. The water running in front of his new three story warehouse got under the brick wall of the basement and undermined it, causing a large portion of the wall to cave in. The water rose to a depth of from sixteen to eighteen inches before it could be checked. Mr. Newberry, with his characteristic promptness, secured the large pump used by J. C. McCorkle on his irrigated tract east of town and installed it with a gasoline engine on the first floor of the warehouse. By midnight practically all of the water was pumped out. Mr. Newberry estimated his loss from eight hundred to a thousand dollars.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH

Triumphant Celebration of the Nation's Birthday in This City.

Uncle Sam's Military Demonstration Together with Thousands of Citizens and Visitors Make a Great Day of it.

Monday, July the Fourth, 1910, will be a day long to be remembered in the history of Alliance. Visitors began pouring in Saturday and every train was loaded to the steps with people bound for the metropolis of western Nebraska. Alliance-ites are just beginning to realize with others that we have a real little city. The thousands of people who have been here this time will have a warm spot in their hearts for Alliance and will not forget the warm welcome and the happy time shown them Monday.

The grand day started with a salute of twenty-one guns at sunrise. Everybody was down early and the fun started at once.

First on the program was a grand parade by the Eighth Cavalry of the United States Army, brought down from Fort Robinson for the express purpose of helping in the festivities. After the parade in which six hundred cavalymen took part, a beautiful automobile parade was given. The first prize was won by the superb ship, decorated in beautiful colors by the Woman's Club, on the deck of which was several young girls. The second prize was won by a gondola, which was the car of Judge W. W. Wood. Third prize was won by C. A. Newberry. About fifty cars were in the parade and it was indeed imposing. When all of the cars were reviewed and the large number which Alliance boasts of seen, there was good reason shown for the new auto department of the Herald, which is becoming very popular. Following the auto parade there was an immense parade of cowboys and cowgirls. The wide streets of Alliance were lined with thousands of people.

Promptly at ten-thirty the races started. First was aquater mile cow pony race which was won by young Philip. The cowgirl's race was won by Miss Underwood; the girl's cow pony race by Miss Harvey; the men's free for all foot race by H. I. Halmer; the girl's foot race by Florence Whaley; and the boy's foot race by Philip Grove.

The jam was heaviest at the Fair grounds. The entertainment there was in the hands of the Eighth Cavalry. Every feature was clean and interesting. First was the Roman race. This is run with one man standing on two horses. First prize was won by Sargent Lockwood of troop K. Next was the wrestling match, the contestants being mounted on bareback horses. Troop K's squad won first prize. In the Cossack race first prize was won by Foster of the Mounted Gun Platoon. The rescue race was very interesting as it demonstrated the method of rescuing wounded and unmounted soldiers in actual warfare. The Mounted Gun Platoon won first prize. The relay race, in which three horses were used by one rider, was won by Troop L. The four horse Roman race was won by Troop L, Sergeant Seeds representing. The polo game was won by the superb horsemanship of the officers of the Third Squadron. The mounted gun platoon contest, which consisted of a hundred yard dash, dismounting, setting and firing gun, remounting and returning, was decided a draw. The First Squadron would have won but for the antics of a bally pack mule which cost them fifteen seconds.

The officers and privates, to a man, expressed great pleasure at the generosity of the celebration Committee and the large amount donated for prizes. The troops broke camp at five o'clock Tuesday morning. They go from here to Dale Creek, Wyo., the maneuver grounds about forty miles west of Cheyenne, Wyoming, where they will go through the yearly maneuvers until August 17th. They will then return to Ft. Robinson. These men have shown themselves to be gentlemen by their good conduct while in Alliance. Many of them attended the Union Meeting held Sunday evening at the Methodist church for the purpose of hearing Rev. J. L. Vallow preach his farewell sermon to his congregation in Alliance. The hospital corps with the Regiment is the famous corps which volunteered first to take the recent anti toxin test in which experiments were being carried on, relative to an anti-toxin for typhoid fever.
