Piano Contest Closes

The Herald's great piano contest closed last Thursday evening. Miss Gladys Boon won the piano with a vote of 32,150. Attie Snow won second place by a vote of 30,425; Ella Moravek of Canton won third by a vote of 20,995; and Nell Acheson won fourth by a vote of 13,300. The votes of the other contestants were:

Alma Rosenberger	10930
Mrs. Jessie Nagelschneider (nee Geiger), Hemingford	9135
Anna Dainton, Alliance	6675
Theresa Morgan, Lakeside	5900
Mrs. Emma O'Bannon, Alliance	5615
Jennie Sandoz, Svasburger	5225

The fine Bennett piano has been delivered to Miss Boon and Miss Snow has been paid one-half of the cash paid in on new subscription voted for her, according to the rules of the contest.

Daughters of Isabella to Give Lawn Social

A lawn social will be given at the Catholic parsonage under the direction of the Ladies of Isabella next Wednesday evening. Refreshments will be served and an enjoyable time is promised to all. All are invited to attend. Remember the date.

Bad Accident at Grand Island

A special telegram to R. T. Watson early this morning from Grand Island states that the walls which were left standing after the Nebraska Mercantile Company building fire fell and buried two men. The telegram was sent by K. C. Strong, who is a traveler for the Nebraska Mercantile Company and a son-in-law of Mr. Watson. Mr. Strong stated that he was not at the place when the accident happened. The telegram did not state who the men killed were but it is supposed that they were workmen engaged in cleaning up the debris of the fire.

Mrs. William A. Hood Dies

Funeral services were held at Darling's undertaking parlors Sunday afternoon over the remains of Mrs. Evelyn E. Hood, wife of Wm. A. Hood, of Canton. Mrs. Hood died Friday evening. For several years they have been living on a homestead near Canton. The services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Huston, the remains being shipped to Ottumwa, Iowa. The husband and other relatives have the sympathy of all.

County Fair-Important Notice

Farmers and others who will co-operate in securing a Box Butte county exhibit for the state fair this year are requested to notify Earl D. Mailery, secretary, as soon as possible. This is important and if you are interested we hope you will lose no time in getting in touch with the secretary in regard to the matter, even though you may not know just how how you can be of any assistance.

The premium lists for the Box Butte county fair are printed and in the hands of the secretary, ready for distribution, but will not be sent out for a few days yet, as there are to be some changes in the speed list, which will be announced on printed slips to accompany the premium lists.

Mrs. A. C. Zehner Will Lecture

Mrs. A. C. Zehner who is to lecture at the Scottsbluff Chautauqua on July 25th, will be in Alliance the preceding day and will speak at the Baptist church in the morning and at a union meeting in the evening at the Methodist church. Mrs. Zehner is a brilliant speaker on popular and reform subjects and a cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend both meetings.

Address to Sunday School Workers

Rev. Chas. H. Lewis, general secretary of the Nebraska Sunday School Union, will deliver an address at the M. E. church in Alliance tomorrow (Friday) evening. While the address will be to Sunday school officers, teachers and workers, all who may be interested are cordially invited to attend.

County S. S. Convention

One of the most interesting annual conventions of the Box Butte County Sunday School association was held at Hemingford, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. The program as published in The Herald last week was carried out with slight changes. Rev. R. D. Waterman could not take the part assigned him on account of illness; the automobile in which Rev. A. L. Godfrey and others from Alliance started to the convention refused to complete the trip, hence Mr. Godfrey was not present at the time appointed for him to take part in the program; Miss Della Reed, county superintendent, was not present Wednesday afternoon on account of other matters demanding her attention at that time, hence her subject was omitted.

The following officers of the county association were elected for the ensuing year: J. W. Thomas, president; John Wiltsey, vice pres.; C. W. Lockwood, sec.-treas.; department superintendents—Miss Della M. Reed, teacher training; Mrs. Broshar, home; S. K. Warrick, temperance; Mrs. Peter Rubendall, elementary; Alex Muirhead, missionary; Rev. J. M. Huston, adult class; Rev. Homer W. Cox, pastors; Rev. J. F. Bundy, visitation; Mrs. L. Birney, intermediate.
