Important Change in Bank.

Last Saturday night Glen Hampton, who has been with the First National bank of this city for eight years, left for his new home in Gothenburg, Nebraska, where he goes to accept the cashiership of the Gothenburg National bank.

Chas. E. Ford, who is president of the First National bank of Alliance, owns a controlling interest in the Gothenburg bank and this comes as a promotion to Glen. He becomes a member of the board of directors of that bank and will have a good share of the stock of the institution.

Glen has been very popular with Alliance business men and was exalted ruler of the local order of B. P. O. E. He was also treasurer of the Masonic lodge. The Herald joins his many friends in wishing him good luck and prosperity in his new location.

A good many Alliance ladies patronize the swimming pool at Judge Berry's, and some of them are quite expert swimmers. 33-5t

We always give you the Most of the Best for the Least. J. A. Berry, Mgr.

FOR BOOKKEEPERS

The Herald has a stock of little adding machines that save time, worry and money. Ask to see one.

They cost $2.50 They're worth $25.00

The New Adding Machine Herald Publishing Company

Take a plunge in the swimming pool. 33-5t

Attorney B. F. Gilman has been called to Bsdgeport on legal business a number of times lately.

The Bee Hive—the red front—biggest racket store in the northwest.

Bill Bone, one of the best humorous lecturers in the world. At Butte Chautauqua, Crawford, August 7th and 8th. 32-2

Take a swim at the "plunge" and see how much better you feel afterwards. 33-5t

Mrs. George Leidy and daughter Lulu are visiting friends in the south. They left Sunday.

I. U. Hager is confined to his bed by an attack of appendicitis.

After a hot day's work a plunge in Berry's swimming pool will do you a lot of good. 33-5t

Miss Raphael Keane of Hartington, Neb., is visiting the family of M. Keane.

E. D. Marr, state agent of the New York Underwriters, was in Alliance and placed the agency of the company with Gray & Guthrie.

Harvey B. Hornby is a new employe of the First National bank. He is a son of Geo. H. Hornby of Valentine, who is well known in western Nebraska.

Commencing next Sunday and continuing until some time in September, there will be no evening service in Holy Rosary church. Benediction will be given after the last mass.

Miss Ruth Ganson, who is soloist at the First Congregational church in Omaha, is spending part of her vacation with her sister, Mrs. G. L. Griggs, of Alliance. She will sing at the Methodist church next Sunday morning.

Mrs. S. K. Warrick and children, accompanied by her brother, Eugene Burton, and father, E. C. Burton, of Wytheville, Virginia, will leave Alliance Friday morning to spend their summer outing at Hot Springs. They expect to be there about two weeks.

An interesting article on the "Relation of Railroad Rates to General Business" was left out of this issue on account of the large amount of other interesting matter. We hope to have room for it next week.

Captain J. C. Thorbin of Sioux City and J. M. Shickley of Geneva, Neb., special agents of the Farmers & Merchants Insurance Co. of Lincoln, spent Sunday with the general agents of the company, Gray & Guthrie.

Eugene Burton, county attorney for Box Butte county, with offices in the First National Bank building, has a mighty fine office since he has added to the attractiveness by new fixtures and office furniture. Both his private office and reception room are fitted with the latest office appliances which helps him keep up his excellent reputation in his line of work.

Hear the Weber Male Quartette of Boston. To hear them once means to hear them again. At Butte Chautauqua, Crawford. Entire week August 5th to 10th inclusive. 32-2

James Feagins now has his live stock and real estate office in room three in the new McCorkle building. He keeps up-to-date by ordering a full supply of office stationery from the Herald job department.

Chase Feagins and wife, who have been staying at the home of his father, James Feagins, for some time, left Tuesday morning for Sutton, Nebraska, where Chase has established a real estate office for the purpose of selling Idaho land. Chase is a hustler and has sold a lot of irrigated land to Nebraska people. We wish him continued success.

Edward Howard Griggs compares the work of Edmund Vance Cooke to Stevenson's and Field's? You cannot. But you may still hear Mr. Cooke at Butte Chautauqua, Crawford, Neb., August 8th and 9th. 32-2

Visitors at the state fair this year will have an opportunity to see the Wright brothers in several flights in their aeroplane, as the fair management has contracted with those gentlemen who have made the old world sit up and take notice, for several flights each day of the fair, Sept. 5 to 9. They will bring with them three of their full sized aeroplanes which will be used in making their flights each day. When not in use they will be on exhibition and their working fully explained to those interested in air navigation. This will be an opportunity for the people of Nebraska to see these wonders of the 20th century.

A. R. Finley went to Alliance this morning to meet Mrs. Finley, who comes today from Bay City, Mich. They will make their home here, having secured a residence in the north part of town.—Scottsbluff Herald.

The First National Bank of Callaway and the Alliance National Bank of Alliance, Nebraska, today made applications to be designated as depositories for postal savings bank funds.—The Omaha Bee, July 23rd.

McCook, Nebraska, recently had a big fire causing a loss of about $30,000 in the burning of two large elevators. The fire was thought to have been extinguished at one time but broke out again and could not be controlled.

Send your wives and daughters to hear Edith Charlton Salisbury in Domestic Science lectures. She tells you what to eat and how to prepare it. Shows you how you can live high on 15 cents per day. At Butte Chautauqua, Crawford, August 6th and 7th. at

John W. Guthrie of Gray & Guthrie left yesterday for York, Neb., where he will spend three days at the firemen's tournament. From there he will visit Lincoln and Omaha on business, and Sunday at the old home at Carroll, Iowa, and see "the twins." He will also investigate the report that "Kelly has been found."

Miss Nell Acheson and friend, Ruth Aspenwall, expect to leave Friday morning for a week's trip to Hot Springs. While there they will visit with Mrs. Venson, who is an aunt of Miss Aspenwall. On their return they will stop over at Ardmore and visit with Mrs. Guy Eastman, who was formerly Miss Hadden of Alliance.

Hear Montaville Flowers at Butte Chautauqua, Crawford, August 5th and 6th, in his interpretive recitals, Ben Hur and a Christmas Carol. He is one of the finest products of the lyceum. All who have heard him exclaim that the man and the occupation are an exact fit. 32-2

Police Judge Zurn's court room is a pretty busy place these days. Last Friday a very interesting session was held and between the word fights of the witnesses and the arguments of the lawyers one would have imagined himself to have been in Omaha or Denver. However, the judge handles things in a very orderly manner.

Lee L. Hamlin, secretary of the Western Fire Insurance company of Lincoln, came to Alliance last Friday and accompanied by J. W. Guthrie of Gray & Guthrie went to Marsland and adjusted and paid Miss Hazel Furman $1,500, the amount of insurance carried on her house and furniture which was struck by lightning and burned to the ground on June 11th.

W. S. Barrett, proprietor of the Hotel Drake, believes in patronizing home industry. He says he is well satisfied with an eleven thousand order of Drake Hotel letterheads which the job printing department of The Herald has just finished for him. This number of letterheads seems to last but a very short time however as the hotel has a large patronage.

Sidney is keeping up with the times by purchasing a new motor and pump for their city water plant. Their present system has been unable to supply enough water for the town's use which made this improvement necessary.

An election will be held shortly to determine whether the disputed strip of territory lying between McPherson and Garden counties in townships 17, 18, 19 and 20, range 41, and also all of township 16, range 40, shall be in McPherson or Garden county.

A. T. Hemingway, who was a former resident of Alliance and owned some property here, spent a day in Alliance with Mr. Berry, manager of the Forest Lumber branch in this city. Mr. Hemingway has an important position with this company at its Kansas City headquarters.

A great many Alliance people are getting the habit of spending a day or two occasionally at that popular summer resort, Hot Springs, South Dakota. There were there from Alliance last Sunday C. H. Rocky and family, J. Dobry and family, Claude McDonold and Alice Acheson, Frank Bronkhorst and Elva Hillis, H. R. Toobey and Pearl Hillis.

In 1902 seventeen of our Dawes county people took out insurance with the German-American Fire Insurance Co. of Hastings. The company is now in the hands of a receiver and these parties are being sued for $10,000 as their part of the liabilities of the company. The folks are learning that it doesn't pay to monkey with a one horse insurance company when there are plenty of companies well established. Their experiences should be a warning to people in general to be on their guard against fraud.—Chadron Journal.

J. P. Carpenter of Sprague, Neb., a brother of H. U. Carpenter, the blacksmith, arrived on 43 last Friday, for a stay of several days. He is agent for the National Fidelity & Casualty company of Omaha, and will work up some business while stopping here.

Manager Harry Hamilton of Hamilton & Buckley, the two popular short-sketch artists who were at the Imperial last week, patronized the Herald's up-to-date job department by getting out a fine booklet printed on heavy calendared paper together with special envelopes for the same.

Drs. Copperrill & Peterson, who have offices in the Rumer building, have just received a fine lot of letterheads and envelopes printed on special paper by The Herald's job department. They believe in having the "best what is."

The Herald's job department is equipped for practically every kind of business in the printing line. Last week the County Fair Association premium list was turned out. Many of the Alliance merchants are having their loose leaf ledger sheets printed by this department. Our prices are as low as city prices and the money stays at home.
