Ice Plant For Alliance

Ora E. Phillips informs The Herald that the Phillips Land company is working on a proposition to secure a large ice manufacturing plant for Alliance. The proposition is a good one. Such a plant would not only supply this city with good pure ice, probably cheaper than can be done with the ice shipped in to fill the local ice houses, as has always been done, but would also furnish ice to neighboring towns, and thus help in a sense to increase Alliance's prestige as a wholesale and distributing point.

No bonus is asked by the man who contemplates putting in the plant, he only asks help in securing a suitable location. We hope the Commercial club will take the matter up soon.

International Press Bible Question Club

We commence today the publication of a series of suggestive questions on the International Sunday School Lessons. For some time past these weekly questions have been stirring a great deal of national interest. They are published in nearly a thousand newspaper towns and studied by millions of readers. They are received warmly by the public and enthusiastically endorsed by clergymen of all the churches. Sunday school superintendents, teachers, and adult Bible class scholars use them in every town where they are published, and the general public are much interested.

Contracting for this unique Bible study question service forms The Alliance Herald and its readers into a local club of one of the classes of the International Press Bible Question Club, and gives the right for all our readers to compete for some very valuable prizes. There are four classes organized each year composed of the newspapers which take up the publication of these questions at four different periods, viz: Those that commence April-June are Class A; July-September are Class B; October-December are Class C, and January-March are Class D. Hence The Herald local club belongs to Class B. There are fifty valuable prizes to be given to our Class: Five solid gold medals, five sterling silver medals, five teachers' Bibles, price $5.50 each, and thirty-five copies of the book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50 each. The medals are specially designed and engraved and each will be inscribed with the name of the winner. The conditions of the contest are so simple that any person can comply with them. The contest will not commence until the questions have been published thirteen weeks, in order to give everybody a chance to become familiar with them. One condition is that the questions must be read each week and as The Herald will be necessary for this, you had better send in your subscription on the attached coupon.

Cut out and send to this office:

The Laborers in the Vineyard, Matt. xx:1-16.

Golden Text—Many that are first shall be last, and the last shall be first. Matt. xix:30.

Verse 1—In what respect does the kingdom of heaven resemble a man, who hires men to work in his vineyard?

How many points of resemblance are there between work in a vineyard and Christian work? (This question can be answered by writing members of the club.)

Who does God want to work in his vineyard and what are the qualifications?

When did God begin to hire laborers for his vineyard?

Verse 2—How much does "a penny" represent in our money, and what was a fair day's wage, for a laborer, in Jesus' day?

Should an employer of labor hire men as cheaply as he can get them, or should he pay them in proportion to his own profits, giving them all he can afford?

How much ought an employer to make, net profit, for every dollar he pays in wages?

Verse 3—What claim can a person make to being a Christian, who is not doing some kind of work in God's vineyard?

What should the State do with those who, being a charge upon the community, can get work, but will not do it?

What wages does God literally give to those who feed the hungry, comfort the sorrowful, teach the ignorant, and preach the Gospel to sinners?

What do church members deserve at the hands of God who are standing around doing nothing, in God's vineyard, when there is so much work to be done?

By what method to-day, is God inviting men to work in his vineyard?

Verses 8-15—Does this parable teach that there is no advantage in starting to work early in God's vineyard, and if not, what is the principle involved in the fact that they were all paid a penny?

Which should give a true workman the greater satisfaction, and why, having put in a full day's work, for a fair day's pay, or being paid nine-tenths more than he really earned?

What can you say, for or against, those who, in this parable, grumbled at their pay?

When a laborer works exclusively for his pay, and does not take delight in his work, doing as much, and doing it as good as he can, in what class would you place him, morally and spiritually?

If a mechanic, a sculptor, a musician, a lawyer, a doctor, or any other kind of worker, thinks more of his pay than of his work, how would he likely rank in point of ability among his fellow craftsmen?

When does God reckon with the laborers in his vineyard?

Verse 16—If the first called is the last in merit, and the last called is the first in merit, why should the length of the service be considered when the rewards are given out?

Lesson for Sunday, Aug. 21st 1910. Jesus Teaching Jerusalem. Matt. xix: 17-34.

In Front of the Palace Livery Stable you can nearly always see a rig getting ready to start out. We will send one any distance, for any purpose, at any time.

We answer all calls promptly and will be glad to serve you in any way in which a rig is required.
