

Announcement

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for State Representative of the 53rd representative district of Nebraska, subject to the Primaries of the Democratic and People's Independent Parties to be held Aug. 16, 1910.

J. A. ROBERTSON.

Announcement.

I wish to announce to the voters that I am a candidate for Representative of the 53rd District, subject to the action of the Democratic and People's Independent parties. Primaries August 16th, 1910. H. E. REISCHE.

NOTICE

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of County Attorney, for Box Butte County, at the Primary to be held August 16th., 1910, subject to the Democrat and People's party.

EUGENE BURTON.

54th Representative District.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for Representative of the 54th district of Nebraska, subject to the will of the democratic voters as expressed at the primaries to be held August 16, 1910.

C. J. COLLINS.

C. J. COLLINS

Democratic candidate for representative, 54th district, subject to the primaries to be held August 16th. Twenty-four years in the state; three years ranchman at Collins, McPherson county, Nebr. Favors direct legislation. Will abide by Statement No. 1, under law relating to the election of United States senators, which means that, if elected to the legislature, he will vote for the senator receiving the largest popular vote at the November election.

Remember the primary next Tuesday, the voting to be done between noon and nine o'clock at night, at the usual voting places throughout the county. Turn out and help nominate the candidates you want to see elected in November.

We hope to see Box Butte county cast largest vote next Tuesday she has yet cast at a primary. A good interest in the nominations is an indication of patriotism. We wish to especially urge upon farmers and ranchmen that they attend the primaries and help make the nominations.

When you go to the polls to vote next November you may "split" your ticket if you wish, that is, vote for candidates of different parties, and your vote will be counted; but do not do so at the primary next Tuesday or your vote will not be counted for any of the candidates for either party. If a democrat vote only for candidates for the democratic nomination; if a republican, vote only for candidates for the republican nomination; if a populist, only for candidates for the populist nomination; and so on for socialists and prohibitionists. If a man is a candidate for the nomination of two parties and you wish to help nominate him, be sure to vote for him only once, and under the party name that you vote for candidates for other offices.

Political advertisement:

G. L. Shumway of Scottsbluff

G. L. Shumway is a pioneer; in fact and in politics. He is advanced on labor questions. Stephen Marion Reynolds, who has done more to improve labor conditions in Indiana than any other man says:

"Shumway is one of the broadest and most liberal minded men I ever met. The first I ever knew to give labor a voice on the chautauqua platform."

Shumway knows the west like a book. He ought to get the vote of Box Butte county. He is one of us, and with our people on all important questions.

To illustrate the clearness, terseness and practical way he goes after a thing read this:

"The country demands downward revision of the tariff. A bill to accomplish this should contain not hundreds of schedules but a few short words: 'Be it enacted, etc., that all duties on imports shall be reduced twenty per cent from present schedules.' That would do the business, and no mystery or magic about it."

New Store for Alliance.

Phil Pizer, an enterprising young business man who was in Alliance several weeks ago looking over the situation, has decided to locate here. He leased the building next to Copeland & Nation's barber shop on the east side of Box Butte avenue and will open an exclusive gent's furnishing store on the 15th. Some of his goods have already arrived and more are on the way. The new store will be called, "The Palace for Men" and will have everything for men. Mr. Pizer has been traveling over a great deal of the west in the last six months and he tells us that Alliance is the busiest town of its size that he has seen. He comes from the south where most of his life has been spent.

First Presbyterian Church

The services for next Sunday will be as follows: Sabbath-school, 10 a. m.; morning preaching service, 11 a. m. The subject for the morning service will be, "The True Worship." A warm welcome will be given to all who may attend these services. A cordial invitation is extended to strangers.

A Busy Bakery

One of the busiest Alliance establishments is the Pardee Bakery. This bakery has a capacity of two thousand loaves of the famous Pardee bread per day and there are times when it is taxed to its fullest capacity. They have recently added up-to-date bread and cake mixing machinery. This machinery is very interesting to the novice and it does the work entirely, the materials being placed in the mixer, which is run by electric motor, the dough not being touched by hand. Pardee's bakery ships its products to many of the smaller surrounding towns and a good business is done. Their expert help are adept in making special party or wedding cakes, etc. An interesting sight is to watch the electric bread mixer which is started working at five o'clock every morning.

Dry Farming Pays

From practically every section of the west comes the same story. Those farmers who have attempted to conserve moisture, who have tried out the methods advocated by the Dry Farming Congress, have been uniformly successful. The cries of failure and distress have invariably come from the newer districts and from those farmers who have hitherto not paid much attention to the dry farming system. In a region of limited rainfall it pays to practice dry farming methods and by such practice insure the presence of moisture for the periods of shortage.—The Dry Farming Congress Bulletin.

Clubbing Rates

Now is a good time to subscribe to one of the farm papers published in Nebraska or Iowa. We offer the following rates with either new or renewal subscriptions to the Herald: Nebraska Farmer and Alliance Herald one year, $2.25. Campbell's Scientific Farmer and Alliance Herald one year, $2.25.

Two Interesting Games

The games played between the Alliance baseball team and the Cherokee Indian team were both very interesting. They only won by a score of six to five on Monday. The weather was rainy and the crowd was small. Clark McIntyre, who was catching for the Alliance team, had his collar bone broken on the left side by a foul tip.

On Tuesday a much larger crowd was present. A. W. Guthrie inspired nothing was doing in the first five innings but the Indians ran up a score of four to three in their favor. A collection of twenty-five dollars was taken up for catcher McIntyre who will be unable to work for some time.

Horseback to Alabama

Irby C. Hall and John Cox of Strasburger, having secured a leave of absence from their Sheridan county claims started yesterday for a trip by horseback to their native state of Alabama, coming via Alliance. They are just the kind of fellows to enjoy a 1,500 mile horseback ride across country at this time of year, and doubt will have a delightful trip, which we most certainly wish them. The Herald will keep them posted on Nebraska news until their return.

BOX BUTTE COUNTY IS IN THE BEST CONDITION OF ANY IN NEBRASKA

Cutting Alfalfa on Box Butte County Farm

While so much is being said about the dry weather which the crop season of 1910 has experienced in Nebraska, Iowa, and other adjacent states, many people are desirous of knowing how western Nebraska and Box Butte county in particular are taking the drought. The Herald reporter has interviewed some of the leading Alliance real estate men and their opinions are given below.

E. T. Kibble, of E. T. Kibble & Co., has been collecting a large amount of exhibits for the State Fair which is to be held September 5th to 9th. He has had a large number of photographs taken of Box Butte scenes this year, and these will be shown together with the exhibit. Mr. Kibble states that in his opinion all of the small grain will average better than half the regular crop. He has seen some wheat that will go as high as twenty-five bushels per acre and some oats that will go to forty bushels. The latest small grain is the best. Potatoes are the best in years. Corn is better than ever before. Alfalfa is fine. His prospects for the sale of Box Butte county land are good for a fall business.

In the opinion of J. C. McCorkle potatoes are the best ever. Small grain will make seventy-five per cent crop. The straw is short but the heads are well filled. Alfalfa is medium. Corn the best ever and well along. Cane, millet and Kaffir corn are exceptionally good. He has a fine exhibit of this year's crops in the hall upstairs in the McCorkle block where his office is located, some of which will be sent to the State Fair. The business prospects for this fall are very good. He stated that he had talked with people who know and that Box Butte county is the greenest spot between Canada and Mexico, west of the one hundredth meridian.

John O'Keefe, of O'Keefe Brothers, believes that the outlook for this county is very favorable. He stated that potatoes were never better. The average potato field will mature without any more moisture needed. Small grain will make better than one-half a crop. While there are exceptions, it is the poorest farmers and those who have not given their crops the proper attention that are getting the poorest crop. Alfalfa will make from one-half to two-thirds of a crop. Corn is the best in years and has had plenty of moisture. The outlook for business is very good and he expects that they will sell a great deal of land after September. The Box Butte county land owners are not anxious to sell and are holding up their prices.

A. F. Baldrige of the Western Land Headquarters, stated that crops in Box Butte county are just as good and even better than is grown on the $100, $150 and $200 per acre land farther east. His prospects for land business are very good for this fall.

J. M. Dineen, of Dineen & Rubendall, stated that the crops here will average with any county in Nebraska. The potato and corn crop is excellent. Knows of several fields of oats that will go forty bushels per acre and one field of wheat that will go thirty bushels per acre. The small grain straw is short but the heads are well filled. A great deal depends on the farmer this year. Land here is advancing in price and prospects are good for many land sales this fall.

Luke Phillips of the Phillips Land Company, states that in his many year's residence in Box Butte county crops never looked better. Crops around Hemingford are looking especially well. John Barnstead, who lives seven miles northeast of Hemingford, told him that his crops this year were the best ever. The farmers have plenty of feed. An eastern man who had traveled two thousand miles through North and South Dakota and Wyoming said that Box Butte county was the best looking country he had seen in the whole trip. Business prospects with them are good.

From the above statements by conservative Alliance business men who are acquainted with the local crop situation we gather that our county and surrounding country is exceptionally well favored this year and that this land, which can be purchased very cheap, raises just as good crops as the higher priced land in eastern localities. Box Butte county is surely a good place to live and Alliance is the liveliest town on the map. Business is good with everybody and all have their shoulders to the wheel. BOOST FOR ALLIANCE AND BOX BUTTE COUNTY.

Rev. I. E. Nolte, First Vice Pres-

Frank Potmesil of Powell, Idaho, and formerly of Box Butte county, has returned for a visit with relatives and on his ranch northeast of Alliance. Frank arrived entirely unexpectedly, his visit being a surprise to his many friends.

E. I. Gregg, wife and daughters, took a trip to Hemingford in their auto Sunday. After taking dinner at Hemingford they autoed west four miles to show the girls where they started the first improvements that were built in Box Butte county.

Bridgeport will have a big celebration August 29, 30 and 31st in honor of the completion of the new Morrill county court house at that place. The Hon. C. H. Morrill, of Lincoln, after whom the county was named, will be the guest of honor.

Morrill county readers will take notice that the voting place, in Good Streak precinct has been changed from C. H. Green's residence to the residence of Fred Nagelschneider, and in King precinct from P. J. Dunn's residence to the school house in District No. 3.

Misses Nell Acheson and Ruth Aspenwall returned Friday morning from their week's trip to South Dakota points. They report the weather fine in the Black Hills and saw many people there from this part of the state. Their trip included stops at Hot Springs, Ardmore and Crawford.

Dr. Curtis, the veterinarian, came up from Alliance on business. Doc has been on the retired list since about the first of July, having been thrown from a wagon, dislocating his collar bone and breaking two ribs. He is again on the firing line, however, and will soon be as good as new. You can't keep a good man down.—Hemingford Journal.

A D. Lyon, of Madison, Nebraska, was in Alliance from Monday until Wednesday looking over the country. He is very well pleased and says that conditions here are better than in many parts of eastern Nebraska. We trust that he will decide to make his home here.

Speaking of advertising: there is no business that cannot be increased and benefited by advertising. No class of advertising pays as well as a well written newspaper ad. There is no work you could do that would bring you as great returns as to use thirty minutes time each day in the study of advertising, if you are in business.

A farewell reception was tendered the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. H. P. V. Bogue, the retiring minister of the First Presbyterian church, last Friday evening at the church. Dr. Bogue leaves Alliance to become president of the Mary Ellen College at Crockett, Texas. The guests were charmingly entertained by vocal and instrumental music.

Enoch Boyer has been making some extensive improvements in the Box Butte Avenue property in which he resides. He has lately put in a new heating plant and remodeled the residence at a cost of sixteen hundred dollars. Mr. Boyer owns five other houses in town which he rents. He is an enthusiastic booster and is always working for Alliance and Box Butte county at every opportunity.

Rev. Dr. Harris returned Tuesday from a very pleasant, over-Sunday outing in the sand hills west of Bridgeport, stopping Sunday night at Gering. He will leave within a few days to join the Second Infantry National Guards, of which he is chaplain, in a trip to Fort Riley, Kansas, where the autumn maneuvers, which will be held from the 15th to the 28th of this month. He informs us that there will probably be about 20,000 men at Fort Riley at that time.
