Mica Mill Wants to Locate in Alliance

The Commercial Club has received a letter from The Electric Mica Company of Custer City, S. D., asking if Alliance business men would be interested in the establishment of a mica mill here. The letter explains fully about the business, stating that mica is the greatest insulating material known and the deposit of mica in the Black Hills is the only one found in the United States.

The big profit in mica is in the milling, as the mica which comes from the mine is worth about $150 per ton, but after it has been handled at the mill it is worth from $500 to $1,000 per ton. It costs about $35 to mine a ton of mica and about $50 to mill, so the profit is very large.

The mill, if located in Alliance, would furnish employment for 50 to 75 people to start with. The Electric Mica Company, which is capitalized at $100,000, owns property at Custer City which they consider worth that amount. They desire to sell stock to the amount of $25,000 for the purpose of building a mill and equipping it with the necessary machinery.

The writer of the letter offers to come to Alliance and demonstrate his proposition, if the Alliance business men are interested. It is probable that the Commercial Club will ask him to come down and explain the proposition.

Valuable Prizes for Bible Study

We call the attention of our readers to one of The Herald's departments which we have just added at considerable cost. "Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lessons." They only need to be read to be appreciated, and if read carefully, comparing the questions with the Scripture upon which they are based, they will not fail to impress the reader with their great significance.

This department is copyrighted and is the same as is used by hundreds of other leading papers of the United States. It is not denominational or sectarian; in fact, it is not an explanation of doctrines, but suggestive questions leading to investigation.

While these questions do not comment on the subjects suggested, they are inspiring sermons, addresses and newspaper articles in hundreds of towns; they are a stimulus and help to thousands of Bible class teachers and students. The man on the street reads and discusses them with his chum; they are read in the homes of the people and afford interesting subjects for profitable discussion. Almost any one question will suggest as much thought to the average reader as would take a newspaper column to express, and the thought will be his own.

The questions are not dry sermons or explanations, they are fresh, interesting, and suggestive, and one can learn from them, by way of suggestion, more than by reading an entire magazine devoted to the philosophy of every-day life.

These questions cover the all-round needs of human nature, while they are a wonderful help in elucidating, and enforcing the Bible lesson upon which they are based.

Don't fail to read them from now on, and be ready to start in the easy Bible contest which is to commence in a few weeks, and thus you may hope to win one of the beautiful gold medals.

See our announcement last week and those that are to follow. Subscribe for The Herald today, using the attached coupon and get in line with this popular Bible study movement.

Jesus Nearing Jerusalem. Matt. xx: 17-34.

Golden Text—The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister and to give his life a ransom for many. Matt. xx:28.

Verses 17-19—Did Jesus know from the beginning of his ministry, that the Jews would reject and put him to death?

At what period in the life of Jesus did he begin to tell his disciples of his approaching crucifixion? (See Chap. 16:21. Mark 8:31, Luke 9:22.)

Did God in any sense cause the chief priests and the scribes to betray Jesus, or the Gentiles to scourge and crucify him?

Why did Jesus tell of his coming death confidentially, and to the twelve disciples only?

Verses 20-21—Who were the two sons of Zebedee?

What had probably inspired this mother, to make the ambitious request, that her two sons may sit, one on his right hand and the other on his left, in his kingdom?

What, if any, reason is there to believe that the two sons got their mother to make this request for them?

What was probably their idea concerning the coming kingdom of Jesus? Can you state possible circumstances where it would be right to get others to ask for us, what we are ashamed to ask personally?

Verses 22—How may we know, or get into a condition, so as not to pray for foolish, or unprofitable things?

What does the expression signify, "to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"

Why have we a right to conclude that these two disciples, notwithstanding their unwise request, loved Jesus dearly, and were prepared to suffer with him?

Verses 23—Is suffering for Jesus as necessary now as then, or does the change in the circumstances make suffering now unnecessary? Why?

Why cannot God show partiality to any, notwithstanding his tender love to each?
