Mrs. M. E. Grebe Entertains

No details which could add perfection to the affair was overlooked on the beautifully appointed Five Hundred, last Saturday afternoon, at which Mrs. M. E. Grebe was hostess.

There were twenty guests present. The first prize, a dainty hand-painted dish was given for the highest score. This honor was won by Mrs. A. E. Nelson. The consolation prize, a handsome hat pin, was given to Mrs. V. Cole. At five thirty an elaborate three course dinner was served.

Bound Over to District Court

Frank Watson, who is accused of robbing Rodger's grocery store on the 13th of last June, was brought up in court Wednesday of last week and bound over to the district court in bonds of $1,000. Immediately after the robbery he left Alliance but two weeks ago phoned to Alliance parties and asked for money. Sheriff Cal Cox, who is always on the alert, heard of the message, took the first train for Crawford, and caught him.

Little Show Girl Injured

The smallest of the little LaBelle Sisters, who are giving a very popular act at the Crystal Theatre this week, was injured Wednesday noon by falling on a needle which she was holding in her hand and which penetrated deeply into her limb just above the knee. A surgeon was called and removed the needle, the plucky little girl refusing to take chloroform because as she said, she could not give her act at the theatre if she did. No serious results are anticipated from the accident.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

The following proposed amendment to the constitution of the State of Nebraska, as hereinafter set forth in full, is submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska, to be voted upon at the general election to be held Tuesday, November 8th, A. D. 1910:

A JOINT RESOLUTION to amend Section one (1) of Article seven (7) of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Nebraska:

Section 1. (Amendment constitution proposed.) That section one (1) of article seven (7) of the constitution of the state of Nebraska, the senate concurring, be so amended as to read as follows:

Section 1. (Who are electors.) Every male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a resident of this state six months next preceding the election and of the county, precinct, or ward, for the term provided by law shall be an elector; provided, that persons of foreign birth who shall have declared their intention to become citizens conformably to the laws of the United States and are voting at the taking effect of this amendment, may continue to exercise the right of suffrage until such time as they may have resided in the United States five years, after which they shall take out full citizenship papers to be entitled to vote at any succeeding election.

Section 2. (Ballots.) That at the general election nineteen hundred and ten (1910) there shall be submitted to the electors of the state for their approval or rejection the foregoing proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage. At such election, on the ballot of each elector voting for or against said proposed amendment, shall be written or printed the words: "For proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage," and "Against said proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage."

Section 3. (Adoption) If such amendment shall be approved by a majority of all electors voting at such election, said amendment shall constitute section one (1) of article seven (7) of the constitution of the State of Nebraska.

Approved April 1, 1909.

I, Geo. C. Junkin, Secretary of State, of the state of Nebraska do hereby certify that the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska is a true and correct copy of the original enrolled and engrossed bill, as passed by the thirty-first session of the legislature of the State of Nebraska, as appears from said original bill on file in this office, and that said proposed amendment is submitted to the qualified voters of the state of Nebraska for their adoption or rejection at the general election to be held on Tuesday, the 8th day of November, A. D. 1910.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the great seal of the State of Nebraska. Done at Lincoln, this 29th day of July, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Ten, and of the Independence of the United States the One Hundred and Thirty-fifth, and of this State the Forty-fourth.
GEORGE C. JUNKIN,
(Seal) Secretary of State.
