The Arrington's
Alliance is fortunate in having as one of the strong amusement attractions during the fair, the Arrington Comedians, which is one of the best repertory show companies now on the road. Their opening play Monday night, "Salome Jane," was witnessed by a crowded house. Last night "Dora Thorne" drew well. To-night will be presented "Jim the Westerner." The concert by the Palmatier Sisters and specialties by three little girls in themselves are well worth the price of admission. The Arrington's will close the week's engagement Saturday night, at which performance will be given away $15 to holders of the lucky numbers being given out each night.

Removal of Tailor Shop
Joe Orchowski, the tailor, informs us that he will move his shop this week from the Charter's Hotel building to the room formerly occupied by the Golden Rod Bottling Works, 116 West Third Street, opposite the post office, where he will be better prepared than ever to handle a large business. He has recently secured the service of his cousin, Edmont Hojmeski, an expert cutter and coat maker of Toledo, Ohio, who with his already competent assistants, gives him the best working force of up-to-date tailors in this part of the west. 41-9271
