Wedding

A beautiful wedding took place at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Keister's, eight miles east of Hemingford, on Wednesday, September 14, when Mr. Chester Wright and Miss Ethel Keister were joined in wedlock, in the presence of their parents and immediate friends. The Rev. H. W. Cox officiated. The ceremony was followed by heart-felt congratulations, and those present were served with a delicious supper.

The bride was gowned in lovely dark blue taffeta silk, while the bridesmaid, Stella Keister, sister of the bride, was robed in a pretty sky blue gown. The groom was attired in conventional black and was attended by his brother Lee as best man.

The young couple received many useful and beautiful presents from relatives and friends, who also share with the Herald's best wishes for their married life.

Normal School For Alliance

"I see in the Lincoln Journal that Alliance in contesting for the Normal School against Chadron," said N. P. Dodge, Jr., who has been conducting the remarkable sale of lots in Alliance next to the fair grounds, to the Herald reporter. "Well, I believe if the visitors to the fair from Chadron would come out to our new addition, 'Belmont,' which lies between the city and the Normal School proposed site, I believe they will see how attractive the Alliance site is and withdraw their petition."

"We have had a remarkable sale of lots, selling nearly two hundred since Friday and there are scores of people who haven't heard of our original terms of one dollar down and fifty cents a week, without interest or taxes," said Mr. Dodge, "and we will probably sell every lot in the addition by Saturday, for many people are waiting to come to Alliance and take in our sale and the races at the same time."

"I wish Alliance could get the Normal School. If they do, we will have two lots for a church in that part of the city. We feel a keen interest in Alliance now and we are ready to boost for it in every way."

Box Butte Booster

One of the best boosters for Alliance and Box Butte county is E. T. Kibble, the land man. Mr. Kibble has been in the real estate business in Alliance for several years and knows the country like a book. He has a very good business and the fact that he has a farm himself keeps him in touch with crops and other conditions. Recently he made a trip with others to the Nebraska State Fair and did some very effective advertising while there.

W. C. T. U. Notes

Box Butte county W. C. T. U. held their county convention in the Presbyterian church, at Alliance, on Sept. 15. All the unions were well represented except Hemingford. Much good work was reported as having been done during the past year. Most of the session was spent in discussing the proposed revised State W. C. T. U. Constitution. Delegates were instructed how to vote at the state convention on the recommended changes.

The following county officers and superintendants were elected:

Vice President—Mrs. Herbert Nason, Fairview.

The Alliance W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. J. W. Thomas on Thursday, Sept. 29. No program will be held, but every member is requested to be present to discuss business plans for the coming year.

There will be no L. L. L. next Monday night on account of the absence of Mrs. Vance at the State W. C. T. U.

Musical Appreciated

The Epworth League Musicales at the Methodist church Monday evening, which is the second given by the league, was attended by an appreciative audience and showed that a home talent entertainment will always bring a crowd, especially when given by such talented people as were there Monday. The most of the money for the league piano has been raised.

It is the wise housekeeper who has a Bell Telephone. She finds that it is as useful in the home as in her husband's place of business. The time of personal shopping and long trips is past, for the Belle Telephone has taken their place.
