Horace Bogue, of Alliance, is a merchant who says that it does pay to advertise. Mr. Bogue made use of a full page of the Herald last week and says that the results of this advertising are very gratifying to him. Starting in 1900 with a small store he gradually increased his business through advertising and progressive methods until to day the Horace Bogue Store occupies its own large building, and is crowded for room in it.

Mr. Bogue guarantees the quality of all goods sold by his store. We believe that this has a great deal to do with his success for it insures satisfied customers.

While recently in New York, Mr. Bogue purchased for cash, part of the immense stock of the Teft Weller Co., and this stock is now being placed on sale at the Bogue Store.

T. J. Trelkeld was badly injured last week by falling from a ladder and striking on his head. He was confined to his bed for a day and a half but is now out again.

John Barnstead of Hemingford, and one of the Herald's subscribers, paid this office a visit the last of the week.

N. P. Dodge, of Omaha, who has been conducting the successful sale of lots in Alliance's new addition—"Belmont," returned to Omaha Monday noon. Mr. Dodge was very well satisfied with the way the lots sold and predicts a bright future for Alliance. He is to be congratulated on the businesslike manner in which this sale is being conducted by himself and salesmen.

Arthur Hubbard, advertising manager of R. L. Polk & Co., of Sioux City, Iowa, who are getting out the new city directory of Alliance, has been in the city several days arranging for advertising and doing the preliminary work. Mr. Hubbard is a pleasant gentleman to meet and impresses us as being a good business man.

C. B. Johnson, who recently opened a laundry at 318 West Fourth street and has been advertising the same in the Herald, orders the advertisement out, as it is bringing him more work than he can handle. He will put in a larger engine and more machinery, then he will be able to take care of all orders that may be given him for laundry work.

We are pleased to note the great improvement in the health of A. P. Lee, manager of the Forest Lumber company's Alliance yard, who came here from Oklahoma five weeks ago to take the place of J. A. Berry. Mr. Lee informs us that the health of Mrs. Lee and the children is also better than formerly and makes it much more convenient for those employed there. Mr. Norton follows his policy of keeping his store right up-to-date and has had the material for his new store front ready for some time, but has been unable to get the necessary workmen to put it in.

Mr. Hubbard, the R. L. Polk advertising man, was in Alliance just five years ago when the Drake hotel was being erected. He states that the city has changed considerably since that time and is making rapid strides, much more noticeable to a man from outside than here.

An Interesting Letter

Gray & Guthrie, Gen. Agents, Equitable Life Assurance Society, Alliance, Nebraska, Sept. 15, 1910.

Gentlemen: I am this day in receipt of check for $1000.00 in settlement of Policy No. 1,642,664, on the life of my late husband, Halleck E. MacCray. This policy was not received by Mr. MacCray until the latter part of April of this year, and he had made but one payment on it. He was taken sick in May and died on the 15th of August. I wish to thank you and the Society you represent for the courtesy shown, and the promptness with which the claim was paid.

Very truly yours,

Mrs. Christina L. MacCray.

Miss Alice Acheson has entered the employ of Teater Brothers as cashier and bookkeeper.

Robert Monfort, who was formerly employed at the Burlington storehouse in this city, is now employed as a brakeman on the Bridgeport-Guernsey run.
